

clothes and general whiskers. The Mercantile Liberator... and finally the editors of the Commercial Gazette...

As the soul of Jonathan was knit to the soul of David, so my soul to your soul. Your joys, sorrows, perils, persecutions, friends and foes, are mine.

That no infringement of liberty of speech would be permitted. This had the desired effect, and the lecture proceeded without interruption.

charged to desert from their owners. But did they obey orders? Certainly not, but looked their oppressors in the face, and persisted in a course which the scribes, Pharisees, and chief priests...

THE UTICA CONVENTION. The intelligence from the N. Y. State Anti-Slavery Convention, is certainly of a very cheering nature...

I have, Mr. Editor, been one of the present party, under all its names, ever since it appeared, about the year 1815. I have been exerting my humble powers to promote its interests, and what I thought to be its principles.

Your unalterably attached Friend and brother, GEO. THOMPSON. DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA. Men and brethren! Friends of the slave, of every name and creed!

QuARTERLY ANTI-SLAVERY MAGAZINE. The subscription for this Magazine will be received at the Anti-Slavery Office, 68 Washington street...

LIBERTY OF THE PRESS. Our exchange papers contain a deal of lamentation over the abridgement of the liberty of the press in France, and of severe comment upon the present state of the press in this country...

As a consequence of the brief extract from the Commercialist's account, showing how the "good faces" of the good faces of Utica triumphed! The "honour" is in perfect accord...

We hope the suggestion of the following article from the Reformer, will be attended to. A meeting of the friends of good order and the supremacy of the law, ought forthwith to be held...

Lord Somerville. The English papers announce the recent death of this truly noble philanthropist and excellent man, whose important and valuable services in the cause of human rights, mantrially siding as they did, in effecting the abolition of slavery in the British colonies...

Let the papers be briskly circulated. Let every man, who has not already done so, see to it right speedily, that his signature is affixed to one, and let our female friends forget that on them we rely for powerful and efficient aid in this work.

Let the papers be briskly circulated. Let every man, who has not already done so, see to it right speedily, that his signature is affixed to one, and let our female friends forget that on them we rely for powerful and efficient aid in this work.

Though our friends had repeatedly promised that no convention should be held, without the sanction of the committee, they nevertheless proceeded to assemble in their own power to accomplish their purpose...

Several editorial articles from Mr. Garrison have been received, but they came too late for insertion this week.

Several editorial articles from Mr. Garrison have been received, but they came too late for insertion this week.

Several editorial articles from Mr. Garrison have been received, but they came too late for insertion this week.

Several editorial articles from Mr. Garrison have been received, but they came too late for insertion this week.

Several editorial articles from Mr. Garrison have been received, but they came too late for insertion this week.

Several editorial articles from Mr. Garrison have been received, but they came too late for insertion this week.

Several editorial articles from Mr. Garrison have been received, but they came too late for insertion this week.

Several editorial articles from Mr. Garrison have been received, but they came too late for insertion this week.

Several editorial articles from Mr. Garrison have been received, but they came too late for insertion this week.

Several editorial articles from Mr. Garrison have been received, but they came too late for insertion this week.

Several editorial articles from Mr. Garrison have been received, but they came too late for insertion this week.

Several editorial articles from Mr. Garrison have been received, but they came too late for insertion this week.

Several editorial articles from Mr. Garrison have been received, but they came too late for insertion this week.

Several editorial articles from Mr. Garrison have been received, but they came too late for insertion this week.

Several editorial articles from Mr. Garrison have been received, but they came too late for insertion this week.

