

Letter from the Editor.

New-York, May 7, 1844.

Dear Sir, I have just received your letter of the 5th inst., in relation to the proposed meeting at New York, on the subject of the abolition of the slave trade. I have no objection to your publishing the substance of the conversation, but I would have you understand that I do not assume to speak for any body but myself. I have no objection to your publishing the substance of the conversation, but I would have you understand that I do not assume to speak for any body but myself.

As I have expressed to you my opinion on the subject, I shall not say more. I shall not say more. I shall not say more. I shall not say more. I shall not say more. I shall not say more. I shall not say more. I shall not say more.

Yours, in great haste, Wm. Lloyd Garrison.

Letter from David L. Child.

Washington, May 5, 1844.

Dear Sir, I have just received your letter of the 3rd inst., in relation to the proposed meeting at New York, on the subject of the abolition of the slave trade. I have no objection to your publishing the substance of the conversation, but I would have you understand that I do not assume to speak for any body but myself.

Yours, in great haste, Wm. Lloyd Garrison.

...the territory would afford a ready refuge to the slaves of Louisiana and Arkansas, and hold out an encouragement to runaway slaves, who manifestly would flock to them in thousands. This committee asking commentary on the offer and gravely reiterated assertions, that the slave Mr. Updegraff would be permitted to cross the river into the free territory, and that he would be allowed to settle there as he pleased, and that he would be permitted to cross the river into the free territory, and that he would be allowed to settle there as he pleased, and that he would be permitted to cross the river into the free territory, and that he would be allowed to settle there as he pleased.

Letter from Edward Search.

New-York, London, England.

Dear Sir, I have just received your letter of the 3rd inst., in relation to the proposed meeting at New York, on the subject of the abolition of the slave trade. I have no objection to your publishing the substance of the conversation, but I would have you understand that I do not assume to speak for any body but myself.

...the territory would afford a ready refuge to the slaves of Louisiana and Arkansas, and hold out an encouragement to runaway slaves, who manifestly would flock to them in thousands. This committee asking commentary on the offer and gravely reiterated assertions, that the slave Mr. Updegraff would be permitted to cross the river into the free territory, and that he would be allowed to settle there as he pleased, and that he would be permitted to cross the river into the free territory, and that he would be allowed to settle there as he pleased.

Letter from Edward Search.

New-York, London, England.

Dear Sir, I have just received your letter of the 3rd inst., in relation to the proposed meeting at New York, on the subject of the abolition of the slave trade. I have no objection to your publishing the substance of the conversation, but I would have you understand that I do not assume to speak for any body but myself.

...the territory would afford a ready refuge to the slaves of Louisiana and Arkansas, and hold out an encouragement to runaway slaves, who manifestly would flock to them in thousands. This committee asking commentary on the offer and gravely reiterated assertions, that the slave Mr. Updegraff would be permitted to cross the river into the free territory, and that he would be allowed to settle there as he pleased, and that he would be permitted to cross the river into the free territory, and that he would be allowed to settle there as he pleased.

Letter from Edward Search.

New-York, London, England.

Dear Sir, I have just received your letter of the 3rd inst., in relation to the proposed meeting at New York, on the subject of the abolition of the slave trade. I have no objection to your publishing the substance of the conversation, but I would have you understand that I do not assume to speak for any body but myself.

...the territory would afford a ready refuge to the slaves of Louisiana and Arkansas, and hold out an encouragement to runaway slaves, who manifestly would flock to them in thousands. This committee asking commentary on the offer and gravely reiterated assertions, that the slave Mr. Updegraff would be permitted to cross the river into the free territory, and that he would be allowed to settle there as he pleased, and that he would be permitted to cross the river into the free territory, and that he would be allowed to settle there as he pleased.

Letter from Edward Search.

New-York, London, England.

Dear Sir, I have just received your letter of the 3rd inst., in relation to the proposed meeting at New York, on the subject of the abolition of the slave trade. I have no objection to your publishing the substance of the conversation, but I would have you understand that I do not assume to speak for any body but myself.

...the territory would afford a ready refuge to the slaves of Louisiana and Arkansas, and hold out an encouragement to runaway slaves, who manifestly would flock to them in thousands. This committee asking commentary on the offer and gravely reiterated assertions, that the slave Mr. Updegraff would be permitted to cross the river into the free territory, and that he would be allowed to settle there as he pleased, and that he would be permitted to cross the river into the free territory, and that he would be allowed to settle there as he pleased.

Letter from Edward Search.

New-York, London, England.

Dear Sir, I have just received your letter of the 3rd inst., in relation to the proposed meeting at New York, on the subject of the abolition of the slave trade. I have no objection to your publishing the substance of the conversation, but I would have you understand that I do not assume to speak for any body but myself.

...the territory would afford a ready refuge to the slaves of Louisiana and Arkansas, and hold out an encouragement to runaway slaves, who manifestly would flock to them in thousands. This committee asking commentary on the offer and gravely reiterated assertions, that the slave Mr. Updegraff would be permitted to cross the river into the free territory, and that he would be allowed to settle there as he pleased, and that he would be permitted to cross the river into the free territory, and that he would be allowed to settle there as he pleased.

Letter from Edward Search.

New-York, London, England.

Dear Sir, I have just received your letter of the 3rd inst., in relation to the proposed meeting at New York, on the subject of the abolition of the slave trade. I have no objection to your publishing the substance of the conversation, but I would have you understand that I do not assume to speak for any body but myself.

