

SEPTEMBER 21. A VISIT TO PASSMORE WILLIAMSON.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 18, 1855. I spent yesterday afternoon with my friend Passmore Williamson, in his cell in Moyamensing Prison.

JOHN KANE'S POPULARITY IN PENNSYLVANIA.—Judge Kane went to Media, Pa., some days since, and on his way back he was assailed by a mob of ignorant and lawless men.

DEATHS IN NORFOLK AND PORTSMOUTH.—The fever in Norfolk and Portsmouth is still raging with great violence. Many deaths have occurred.

THE PLAGUE IN NORFOLK AND PORTSMOUTH.—We learn from conversation with a physician just returned from Norfolk and Portsmouth, leaving the latter place on Friday last, that the yellow fever is now raging to a fearful extent.

THE PLAGUE IN NORFOLK AND PORTSMOUTH.—We learn from conversation with a physician just returned from Norfolk and Portsmouth, leaving the latter place on Friday last, that the yellow fever is now raging to a fearful extent.

THE PLAGUE IN NORFOLK AND PORTSMOUTH.—We learn from conversation with a physician just returned from Norfolk and Portsmouth, leaving the latter place on Friday last, that the yellow fever is now raging to a fearful extent.

Several persons, some of whom were said to be members of the Nebraska Legislature, recently arrived in Norfolk, Va., and were quarantined in the city.

A magnificent portrait of Washington, woven in silk, at the silk manufactory of Ponce, Philippe & Vibert, at Lyons, and superbly framed, at an expense of ten thousand dollars, was publicly presented to the city of New York.

At a wedding party near Danburyville, in Haywood county, Tenn., a few days ago, forty-five of the guests were poisoned.

The negroes found guilty of assaulting Colonel Wheeler, at the ferry-boat on the Potomac, were sentenced by Judge Kelley to one week's imprisonment and to pay a fine of ten dollars.

A former slave of General Washington, named Richard Campbell, lives at Urbana, Ohio, at the good old age of 108 years.

In the last fifty years, 13 persons have died in Boston, over 100 years old, the oldest in September, 1849, James Hayes, an Irishman, at 108.

General Pelissier, in an order of the day dated Aug. 17, says that the Russians lost in the battle of the 16th of August, more than 6,000 men, and left 2,200 wounded and prisoners in the hands of the Allies.

Private letters state that the loss of the Russian paper Nord says that the loss was only 60 killed, and that 1,800 guns still remain in position, and that the batteries are wholly unharmed.

Mr. J. B. Hoyt, the landlord of the Mountain House, on the western side of Lake Memphremagog, was drowned on Thursday morning, by the upsetting of a boat in which he was crossing the Lake.

Mr. Bourne, lady and daughter, of Kennebunk, Me., left Gen. House at Mr. Washington, at three o'clock, yesterday afternoon.

Several persons, some of whom were said to be members of the Nebraska Legislature, recently arrived in Norfolk, Va., and were quarantined in the city.

A magnificent portrait of Washington, woven in silk, at the silk manufactory of Ponce, Philippe & Vibert, at Lyons, and superbly framed, at an expense of ten thousand dollars, was publicly presented to the city of New York.

At a wedding party near Danburyville, in Haywood county, Tenn., a few days ago, forty-five of the guests were poisoned.

The negroes found guilty of assaulting Colonel Wheeler, at the ferry-boat on the Potomac, were sentenced by Judge Kelley to one week's imprisonment and to pay a fine of ten dollars.

A former slave of General Washington, named Richard Campbell, lives at Urbana, Ohio, at the good old age of 108 years.

In the last fifty years, 13 persons have died in Boston, over 100 years old, the oldest in September, 1849, James Hayes, an Irishman, at 108.

General Pelissier, in an order of the day dated Aug. 17, says that the Russians lost in the battle of the 16th of August, more than 6,000 men, and left 2,200 wounded and prisoners in the hands of the Allies.

Private letters state that the loss of the Russian paper Nord says that the loss was only 60 killed, and that 1,800 guns still remain in position, and that the batteries are wholly unharmed.

Mr. J. B. Hoyt, the landlord of the Mountain House, on the western side of Lake Memphremagog, was drowned on Thursday morning, by the upsetting of a boat in which he was crossing the Lake.

Mr. Bourne, lady and daughter, of Kennebunk, Me., left Gen. House at Mr. Washington, at three o'clock, yesterday afternoon.

Several persons, some of whom were said to be members of the Nebraska Legislature, recently arrived in Norfolk, Va., and were quarantined in the city.

A magnificent portrait of Washington, woven in silk, at the silk manufactory of Ponce, Philippe & Vibert, at Lyons, and superbly framed, at an expense of ten thousand dollars, was publicly presented to the city of New York.

At a wedding party near Danburyville, in Haywood county, Tenn., a few days ago, forty-five of the guests were poisoned.

The negroes found guilty of assaulting Colonel Wheeler, at the ferry-boat on the Potomac, were sentenced by Judge Kelley to one week's imprisonment and to pay a fine of ten dollars.

A former slave of General Washington, named Richard Campbell, lives at Urbana, Ohio, at the good old age of 108 years.

In the last fifty years, 13 persons have died in Boston, over 100 years old, the oldest in September, 1849, James Hayes, an Irishman, at 108.

General Pelissier, in an order of the day dated Aug. 17, says that the Russians lost in the battle of the 16th of August, more than 6,000 men, and left 2,200 wounded and prisoners in the hands of the Allies.

Private letters state that the loss of the Russian paper Nord says that the loss was only 60 killed, and that 1,800 guns still remain in position, and that the batteries are wholly unharmed.

Mr. J. B. Hoyt, the landlord of the Mountain House, on the western side of Lake Memphremagog, was drowned on Thursday morning, by the upsetting of a boat in which he was crossing the Lake.

Mr. Bourne, lady and daughter, of Kennebunk, Me., left Gen. House at Mr. Washington, at three o'clock, yesterday afternoon.

THE TWENTY-SECOND NATIONAL ANTI-SLAVERY BAZAAR, TO BE HELD IN BOSTON, MASS., DURING THE CHRISTMAS WEEK OF 1855.

This annual effort, having for its end the Abolition of American Slavery, has been so long before the eyes of the community, that we feel prolonged explanation in respect to it unnecessary.

We propose to do this through the medium of Newspapers, Lectures and Tracts, and we call upon all who fear God and regard Man to give us their sympathy and cooperation.

Those whose hearts are alive to the service of Humanity, who are interested for Freedom, and accustomed to telling in its behalf, will readily understand that all they can do to aid this Bazaar will be an efficient service to the cause which it aims to promote.

Those whose hearts are alive to the service of Humanity, who are interested for Freedom, and accustomed to telling in its behalf, will readily understand that all they can do to aid this Bazaar will be an efficient service to the cause which it aims to promote.

Those whose hearts are alive to the service of Humanity, who are interested for Freedom, and accustomed to telling in its behalf, will readily understand that all they can do to aid this Bazaar will be an efficient service to the cause which it aims to promote.

Those whose hearts are alive to the service of Humanity, who are interested for Freedom, and accustomed to telling in its behalf, will readily understand that all they can do to aid this Bazaar will be an efficient service to the cause which it aims to promote.

Those whose hearts are alive to the service of Humanity, who are interested for Freedom, and accustomed to telling in its behalf, will readily understand that all they can do to aid this Bazaar will be an efficient service to the cause which it aims to promote.

Those whose hearts are alive to the service of Humanity, who are interested for Freedom, and accustomed to telling in its behalf, will readily understand that all they can do to aid this Bazaar will be an efficient service to the cause which it aims to promote.

Those whose hearts are alive to the service of Humanity, who are interested for Freedom, and accustomed to telling in its behalf, will readily understand that all they can do to aid this Bazaar will be an efficient service to the cause which it aims to promote.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS. The undersigned, Treasurer of the Worcester County North Anti-Slavery Society, acknowledges the receipt of the following sums, since the last announcement:—

Table with names and amounts: Benjamin P. Rice, Worcester, $1.00; Caleb A. Wall, do, 1.00; Charles G. Anderson, do, to redeem pledge, 1.00; Sarah Foster, do, do, 1.00; Collection at Upton, quarterly meeting in July, 10.00; Collection at So. Millis, special meeting in Aug. 13.00; In Holliston, 1.00; in Wrentham, 4.12; in Gardner, Sept. 20th, 1.00; in Andover, 1.00; in Aberrille, (Mendon), 1.65.

PROGRESSIVE FRIENDS. The Michigan Yearly Meeting of Progressive Friends will be held at the Union Meeting-house, Livonia, Wayne County, Michigan, commencing at 10 o'clock, A. M., on Saturday, September 29th, and continue its sessions two or three days.

WOMAN'S RIGHTS CONVENTION. In accordance with a vote of the last National Woman's Rights Convention, held in Philadelphia, the next Convention will be held in Cincinnati, on the 17th and 18th of October next.

FOURTH ANNIVERSARY OF THE JERRY RESCUE. The first day of October, 1855, the 4th Anniversary of the memorable Jerry Rescue, is at hand. The spirit that defied oppression, and scorned as a filthy rag the enactment of a law-defying Congress intended to give oppression power and dignity, we thank Heaven, is an embodiment at Syracuse.

PLYMOUTH COUNTY. Wm. W. Brown, an Agent of the Old Colony Anti-Slavery Society, will lecture as follows:—

WANTED. Colored girls wanted for family work. An industrious girl can obtain a situation in an upholstery sewing department in a neighboring city. Apply to WM. C. NELL, 21 Cornhill.

SCIENTIFIC LECTURES FOR LYCEUMS. Wm. STRATTON BROWN, M. D., Professor of Anatomy and Chemistry in the New England Female Medical College, author of "Chemical Lectures," &c., &c., is prepared to receive applications for the delivery of his new lecture, "Transcendental Physiology," or for short courses of lectures on Chemistry and Physiology.

Wanted. Colored girls wanted for family work. An industrious girl can obtain a situation in an upholstery sewing department in a neighboring city. Apply to WM. C. NELL, 21 Cornhill.

Wanted. Colored girls wanted for family work. An industrious girl can obtain a situation in an upholstery sewing department in a neighboring city. Apply to WM. C. NELL, 21 Cornhill.

POETRY.

THE LITTLE CHILD.

In a little shad, bowery dell,
Where a streamlet sings waters fall,
And the sunlight played through waving trees,

THE LIBERATOR.

A DEATH-BED SCENE.

It is the afternoon of a glorious day in midsummer,
As I enter the gateway, and pass through the long Avenue of elms, whose branches aniling over my head of a moral and intelligent Being, who must necessarily be a Supreme Being, a God.

Third, I shall prove that this God is the Father of

HOW TO TREAT COLOSSAL WRONG.
We make the following extract from an admirable Discourse on 'Organized Wrong,' by WILLIAM H. FLEMING, constantly and recklessly violated by those who

pretend to know something about it.
In putting these resolutions on paper, we are but

A MODE TO A MURKLEER.
You wicked, bold, unscrupulous, why don't
You spare your little sun we reside

From the Anti-Slavery Standard.
TO THE POETS OF AMERICA.
At one of the private gatherings, got together at the time of the World's Anti-Slavery Convention, in London,

THE LIBERATOR.
I am glad to see that you are all well, and
that you are all still engaged in the noble

REPLY TO FRANCIS BARRY.
FRANCIS BARRY:
Six—THE LIBERATOR two days ago came to hand,

HOW TO TREAT COLOSSAL WRONG.
The editor of the New Jerusalem Messenger, in noticing President Mahan's late exposure of Spiritu-

constantly and recklessly violated by those who
pretend to know something about it.
In putting these resolutions on paper, we are but

A MODE TO A MURKLEER.
You wicked, bold, unscrupulous, why don't
You spare your little sun we reside

Barbs of Freedom's banished land!
Brothers, foremost of the free!
Ye who, with impassioned hand,

THE LIBERATOR.
I am glad to see that you are all well, and
that you are all still engaged in the noble

REPLY TO FRANCIS BARRY.
FRANCIS BARRY:
Six—THE LIBERATOR two days ago came to hand,

HOW TO TREAT COLOSSAL WRONG.
The editor of the New Jerusalem Messenger, in
noticing President Mahan's late exposure of Spiritu-

constantly and recklessly violated by those who
pretend to know something about it.
In putting these resolutions on paper, we are but

A MODE TO A MURKLEER.
You wicked, bold, unscrupulous, why don't
You spare your little sun we reside

Your Garrison has found the flame—
CHILD, CHAMPAIN, FEINERT, catch the fire;
And, round at Freedom's hallowed name,

THE LIBERATOR.
I am glad to see that you are all well, and
that you are all still engaged in the noble

REPLY TO FRANCIS BARRY.
FRANCIS BARRY:
Six—THE LIBERATOR two days ago came to hand,

HOW TO TREAT COLOSSAL WRONG.
The editor of the New Jerusalem Messenger, in
noticing President Mahan's late exposure of Spiritu-

constantly and recklessly violated by those who
pretend to know something about it.
In putting these resolutions on paper, we are but

A MODE TO A MURKLEER.
You wicked, bold, unscrupulous, why don't
You spare your little sun we reside

The minstrel cannot, must not sing!
When fetter'd slaves in bondage pine;
Man has no voice, the muse no wing,

THE LIBERATOR.
I am glad to see that you are all well, and
that you are all still engaged in the noble

REPLY TO FRANCIS BARRY.
FRANCIS BARRY:
Six—THE LIBERATOR two days ago came to hand,

HOW TO TREAT COLOSSAL WRONG.
The editor of the New Jerusalem Messenger, in
noticing President Mahan's late exposure of Spiritu-

constantly and recklessly violated by those who
pretend to know something about it.
In putting these resolutions on paper, we are but

A MODE TO A MURKLEER.
You wicked, bold, unscrupulous, why don't
You spare your little sun we reside

By all the joys that crown the free—
Love, honor, fame, the hopes of heaven—
Wake in your night, that earth may see

THE LIBERATOR.
I am glad to see that you are all well, and
that you are all still engaged in the noble

REPLY TO FRANCIS BARRY.
FRANCIS BARRY:
Six—THE LIBERATOR two days ago came to hand,

HOW TO TREAT COLOSSAL WRONG.
The editor of the New Jerusalem Messenger, in
noticing President Mahan's late exposure of Spiritu-

constantly and recklessly violated by those who
pretend to know something about it.
In putting these resolutions on paper, we are but

A MODE TO A MURKLEER.
You wicked, bold, unscrupulous, why don't
You spare your little sun we reside

THE LIBERATOR.
I am glad to see that you are all well, and
that you are all still engaged in the noble

THE LIBERATOR.
I am glad to see that you are all well, and
that you are all still engaged in the noble

REPLY TO FRANCIS BARRY.
FRANCIS BARRY:
Six—THE LIBERATOR two days ago came to hand,

HOW TO TREAT COLOSSAL WRONG.
The editor of the New Jerusalem Messenger, in
noticing President Mahan's late exposure of Spiritu-

constantly and recklessly violated by those who
pretend to know something about it.
In putting these resolutions on paper, we are but

A MODE TO A MURKLEER.
You wicked, bold, unscrupulous, why don't
You spare your little sun we reside

THE LIBERATOR.
I am glad to see that you are all well, and
that you are all still engaged in the noble

THE LIBERATOR.
I am glad to see that you are all well, and
that you are all still engaged in the noble

REPLY TO FRANCIS BARRY.
FRANCIS BARRY:
Six—THE LIBERATOR two days ago came to hand,

HOW TO TREAT COLOSSAL WRONG.
The editor of the New Jerusalem Messenger, in
noticing President Mahan's late exposure of Spiritu-

constantly and recklessly violated by those who
pretend to know something about it.
In putting these resolutions on paper, we are but

A MODE TO A MURKLEER.
You wicked, bold, unscrupulous, why don't
You spare your little sun we reside

THE LIBERATOR.
I am glad to see that you are all well, and
that you are all still engaged in the noble

THE LIBERATOR.
I am glad to see that you are all well, and
that you are all still engaged in the noble

REPLY TO FRANCIS BARRY.
FRANCIS BARRY:
Six—THE LIBERATOR two days ago came to hand,

HOW TO TREAT COLOSSAL WRONG.
The editor of the New Jerusalem Messenger, in
noticing President Mahan's late exposure of Spiritu-

constantly and recklessly violated by those who
pretend to know something about it.
In putting these resolutions on paper, we are but

A MODE TO A MURKLEER.
You wicked, bold, unscrupulous, why don't
You spare your little sun we reside