1 Proceedings 2 THE COURT: Anything before the jury comes in? MR. GOLDMAN: I don't know if that's a witness or a 3 4 potential witness. 5 THE COURT: No, that's not a witness. MR. GOLDMAN: Okay. THE COURT: Your schedule at this point is that Mr. 7 Trump will be here when? 8 MR. ITKOWITZ: Well, depending on how efficient we are this morning, it could be this afternoon. 10 11 THE COURT: This afternoon? Mr. Ross, yes, come on 12 up, please come. MR. GOLDMAN: Your Honor, when we discussed this 13 14 yesterday, it was Mr. Trump is planning on being here at 15 2:15 because we anticipated that we would be able to be efficient and complete Mr. Ross by the 12:40 break. He is 16 on call. I suggest maybe at some time we take a break at 17 18 10:00 or 11:00, we see where we are, and I don't know what the protocol would be for him, you know. 19 20 THE COURT: Okay. 2.1 (Whereupon, the witness resumes the stand.) 2.2 (Whereupon, the jury enters the courtroom and the 23 following transpired:) 24 THE COURT: Good morning, jurors. Please be seated 25 everyone. I apologize. The Court was late this morning, so that's the reason why we're a little delayed. Something I had to finish before I could come down here.

                   With that, you're continuing your examination. I don't know what to call it, but your examination.
                   MR. GOLDMAN: Your Honor, upon reflection this evening, I have no more questions for Ms. Glosser.
          you.
                   THE COURT: Okay. Any redirect?
                   MR. ITKOWITZ: No, Your Honor.
                   THE COURT: Very good. Call your next witness.
10
11
                   (Whereupon, the witness exits the stand.)
12
                   MR. ITKOWITZ: George Ross.
13
                   THE COURT: Come up while we're waiting for Mr.
14
          Ross.
15 (Whereupon, an off-the-record discussion was held at the bench among the Court and counsel.)
                   THE COURT: All right.
17
18
                   Sir, who are you calling?
19
                   MR. ITKOWITZ: Mr. Ross.
20
                   THE COURT: Mr. Ross, please come up.
21
                   (Whereupon, the witness takes the stand.)
                  H. ROSS, called as a witness, having been

1 Ross - Plaintiff - Direct (Mr. Itkowitz) 2 THE COURT CLERK: Thank you. And your home address, please. 3 4 THE WITNESS: 10 Thixton, T-H-I-X-T-O-N, Drive, Hewlett Harbor, New York. 5 THE COURT CLERK: Zip code? 7 THE WITNESS: 11557. THE COURT CLERK: Thank you. Counsel, your witness 8 is sworn. 9 10 MR. ITKOWITZ: Thank you. 11 DIRECT EXAMINATION 12 BY MR. ITKOWITZ: 13 THE COURT: Mr. Ross, you don't have a middle 14 initial, do you? 15 THE WITNESS: H. I don't usually use it, but I like it. 16 THE COURT: Okay, H is for you. Go ahead. 17 18 Q Mr. Ross, what is your occupation? Α I'm a lawyer. 19 20 And how long have you been a lawyer? 0 Sixty years. 21 Α Sixty years? 22 Q 23 Sixty years. It would be sixty years this year. Α 24 0 And you work at Mr. Trump's offices? 2.5 THE COURT: You have to speak up, sir. You work at Mr. Trump's offices? 26 0

1 Ross - Plaintiff - Direct (Mr. Itkowitz) Yes, I do. 2 Α 3 And how long have you been working in Mr. Trump's 0 4 offices? 5 Α On this last one, 17 years; on a four day a week basis. Okay. And you primarily work for Mr. Trump, correct? 7 Α At this time, yes. And for the last 17 years primarily you work for Mr. 8 Q 9 Trump? 10 Α Well, I have my own practice, but primarily still for Mr. Trump, yeah, you could say that. 11 12 And prior to working for Mr. Trump, you were a partner in a law firm? 13 14 Α Oh, yes. 15 0 And what law firm was that? Dreyer & Traub. 16 Α And how long were you a partner there? 17 Q 18 Α Twenty years. And as a partner at Dryer & Traub, what was your role? 19 Q 20 Well, I was one of the senior partners in charge of Α running the firm and handling all of the lawyers that work for 21 22 us, and representing clients. Now, at Dreyer & Traub, that was a real estate firm 23 24 primarily? 25 Α Oh, yes. And in your experience as a lawyer, you have a lot of 26 Q

1 Ross - Plaintiff - Direct (Mr. Itkowitz) 2 experience in real estate; do you not? 3 Oh, yes, that's my forte. I would think so. 4 0 Okay. Now, when you were working for Mr. Trump in 2004 you became aware, did you not, that Mr. Trump was seeking to 5 license his name? 6 7 Yes, that's true. And, in fact, in connection with that he had entered into a memorandum of understanding with ALM, correct? 9 10 Α That came to my attention, yes. 11 MR. ITKOWITZ: At this time, I would show the 12 witness Exhibits 1 and 2. 13 (Documents handed to witness.) Now, Exhibit 1, sir, is a memorandum of understanding, 14 0 15 correct? That is correct. 16 Α Now, when that memorandum was executed, that 17 18 memorandum -- that was executed in September of '03, correct? 19 That's right, yeah. It says, entered into September 25, 2003. 20 21 0 And at the time that this was executed, you were working for Mr. Trump? 2.2 23 That is correct. Α 24 But you were not involved with this document, correct? 25 Α Not at all. And when did you start to become involved with the 26 0

Ross - Plaintiff - Direct (Mr. Itkowitz)
marketing of Mr. Trump's name?

A In 2004.

- Q And when was that, about February would you say?
- A I don't recall the exact date, but Mr. Trump was interested in marketing his name, thought that he ought to do it directly; and that he started to do it and told me what he was planning on doing. And also advised me to do this agreement in existence and asked me to look at it.
- Q Now, there came a time when this agreement was extended, correct?
- A That's correct.
- Q And that was in Plaintiff's Exhibit 2, which was an extension agreement?
- A That's correct.
- O And were you involved in that document?
- 17 A No, I was not.
- 18 O And what was the date of that extension?
- 19 A It's January 13, 2004.
 - Q Now, looking at Exhibit 1, when you were -- since that time, since let's say January of 2004, you have had time to acquaint yourself with these two documents, correct?
 - A Absolutely.
 - Q And the original memorandum of understanding had a number of requirements for ALM to meet before it could get a fee, correct?

- 1 Ross - Plaintiff - Direct (Mr. Itkowitz) 2 Α That's correct. 3 And among those was it had a provision called the 0 4 acceptable license requirement, correct? 5 Α Absolutely. And that acceptable license was a high bar, correct? 7 Α It was a what? 0 High bar? It was what they agreed upon. I don't know whether it 9 Α was high or low. It was what they agreed on. 10 11 So you don't recall ever saying -- noting that it was a 0 12 very high bar? 13 No, never. This is what was agreed upon. It was signed, they both signed it. I wasn't privy to it. This is 14 15 what they agreed to and what the parties would be bound by. Now, that bar that they had to meet was a license term 16 0 of seven years and it had to be $25 million, correct? 17 18 Α That's -- whatever the agreement says, that's what it 19 was. 20 You want to take a look? 0 Well, that's it, yeah. 21 Α That's what it says, correct? 2.2 0 23 Α That's fine.
 - Q Now, it also provided that ALM would have to have a significant role in negotiations, correct?

26 A I agree. Provided they would be the exclusive agent,

Ross - Plaintiff - Direct (Mr. Itkowitz) 1 2 yes. 3 Right. 0 4 But I don't know that that's the role, was in 5 negotiations or not. Whatever the agreement says, that's what 6 it says. Well, you said you acquainted yourself with it, right? 7 0 I read the agreement, yes. 8 And it required -- let's turn to page 2 -- that an 9 Q acceptable deal had to be seven years? 10 11 Α Yeah. 12 0 There had to be $25 million in guarantee? 13 Α Right. And there had to be a minimum license fee royalty rate 14 0 15 of ten percent? 16 Α Right. 17 And if all those requirements were met, ALM would get a 18 fee of 22.5 percent, correct? 19 Correct, that's what the agreement says. Α 20 Now, when you became involved with this, you learned 0 that Mr. Danzer was working for ALM, correct? 21 When? What point in time? 2.2 Α 23 Well, let's say as of February '04. 24 No, no, I don't think at this point -- I don't recall when I first met Mr. Danzer. I don't recall, but it was -- it 25 was in '04, yes. I don't remember the exact date. 26

1 Ross - Plaintiff - Direct (Mr. Itkowitz)

- Q I'm not asking you the exact date. I'm asking you generally when you became involved in this project, because prior to that you weren't, you were doing other things?
 - A That's correct.
- Q When you started to immerse yourself -- did you immerse yourself in this?
 - A Did I immerse myself in what, in the contract?
 - Q In the marketing program.
 - A Oh, yeah.

- Q So at that point you became aware that ALM was working on trying to get leads, correct?
 - A At that point, I was aware of the agreement; and I don't remember when I first met Danzer, but he indicated, yes, that at some point he came into the picture at that point and said yes, he was working to make deals.
 - Q Right. And at that point that you had interaction with Mr. Danzer, you learned that Mr. Danzer was the point person for ALM, correct?
 - A He indicated he was, yes. I didn't know that to be a fact, but he indicated he was the point person.
- Q And he was the person that you were dealing with, correct?
- A On behalf of ALM, absolutely, correct.
 - Q Now, there came a time -- now, Mr. Danzer was working with a couple of different -- on a number of different leads,

Ross - Plaintiff - Direct (Mr. Itkowitz) 1 2 correct? That's what he said. I didn't know it to be a 3 Α No. 4 fact. 5 Well, that's what he told you, right? 0 Α Yes. He told you he was working on different deals, correct? 7 0 At one point in time he did, yes. Α And there came a point where he said I have a good lead 9 0 with a company called Phillips-Van Heusen; is that correct? 10 11 Α Phillips-Van Heusen, at one point he indicated that he 12 had a connection with Phillips-Van Heusen, yes. 13 And he advised you, did he not, that he thought Phillips-Van Heusen would be a very good prospect for this 14 15 project? He didn't tell me that at that point, but they had a 16 reputation and, yes, they would be a good prospect, and he 17 18 indicated that he could control Phillips-Van Heusen. And you said, "he could control;" what does that mean? 19 20 Effectively means he made it clear to me that if we 21 didn't work through him and pay him what he wanted, he would kill the Phillips-Van-Heusen deal. Made it clear. 2.2 23 And he told you that before --24 Α He didn't know. He didn't say --25 Excuse me, excuse me, let me finish the question, Q 26 please.

Ross - Plaintiff - Direct (Mr. Itkowitz) 1 2 He told you that at the outset, before he brought them to the table? 3 4 Α Yes. 5 So how did that conversation go; he said, by the way, I 0 have Phillips-Van Heusen who's interested and if you don't -- if 7 I don't like the way you're handling things, I'm going to kill the deal? That was the conversation? 8 No, that's not the conversation, but that's your Α 10 interpretation. 11 Excuse me, excuse me. If I ask you a question that calls for a yes or no answer, I would appreciate your answering 12 13 yes or no. 14 Α Fine. I have no problem with that. 15 Now, in the spring of 2004 Mr. Danzer told you that he was working on a lead with Phillips-Van Heusen; is that correct? 16 17 That's correct. Α MR. GOLDMAN: Your Honor, objection. 18 19 THE COURT: It has been asked and answered. 20 MR. GOLDMAN: Also hearsay. THE COURT: I'm not so sure about that. You can 21 2.2 only answer if you know something personally. So if you don't know something personally, you have to tell us you 23 24 don't know. 25 THE WITNESS: Okay.

Now, there came a time when he said I'd like to set up

Ross - Plaintiff - Direct (Mr. Itkowitz) 1 a meeting with Phillips-Van Heusen, correct? 2 3 Α Yes. And prior to that, he had talked to you about other 4 0 companies, correct? 5 He mentioned other companies, yes. Right. And when he mentioned the other companies, did 7 0 he say, by the way, if I don't like any of those potential arrangements I can kill those deals too? 9 There were never any deals to kill. 10 Α So I'm just trying to understand how the original 11 12 conversation went when he brought up Phillips-Van Heusen. THE COURT: Just ask him what the conversation was. 13 Ask him what the conversation was. 14 15 Do you recall your first conversation with Mr. Danzer about Phillips-Van Heusen? 16 17 Α Yes. 18 And it's your testimony, is it not, that during that conversation he said I have Phillips-Van Heusen as a lead, I'd 19 20 like you to meet with them; did he say that? 2.1 Α He wanted us to meet with Phillips-Van Heusen, yes. And during that conversation he said, and if I don't 2.2 like the way you conduct yourself I'll kill the deal? 23 24 No, he never said it at that conversation, no. 25 So when he told you about Phillips-Van Heusen, he told 0 you that he wanted to set up a meeting with you and Phillips-Van

1	Ross - Plaintiff - Direct (Mr. Itkowitz)
2	Heusen?
3	A That's correct.
4	Q And you were an agent of Mr. Trump, correct?
5	A I was yeah. Yes, that's correct. I didn't say an
6	agent is the right word. I was the lawyer in charge of the
7	transaction, yes.
8	Q Well, it's admitted in this case that you were an agent
9	of Mr. Trump?
LO	A I wouldn't say agent, at this point.
L1	MR. GOLDMAN: Objection.
L2	THE COURT: Objection. I'm going to overrule. I'm
L3	going allow that question but, you know, come on up.
L 4	(Whereupon, an off-the-record discussion was held
L5	at the bench among the Court and counsel.)
L6	Q Now, I show you what's been marked as Exhibit 28.
L7	THE COURT: 28 is in evidence. I don't think we
L8	have 28.
L9	MR. WILTENBURG: I have it right here.
20	THE COURT: It's in evidence, but it's not been
21	shown.
22	(Document handed to witness.)
23	Q This indicates that a meeting was set up with you and
24	PVH for June 24th, correct?
25	MR. GOLDMAN: I'm sorry, I didn't hear the
26	question. I apologize.

1	Ross - Plaintiff - Direct (Mr. Itkowitz)
2	Q I said, this indicates that a meeting was set up
3	between you and Mr. Danzer and PVH for June 24, 2004, correct?
4	A No, that's not correct. It doesn't say the date. It
5	says, effectively, I want to thank you.
6	MR. GOLDMAN: Objection.
7	A It doesn't say the date.
8	THE COURT: Sir, he asked the question. You know
9	that this is a form of cross examination, right?
LO	THE WITNESS: Right.
L1	THE COURT: So you have to answer the question
L2	either yes or no, all right, or I can't answer.
L3	A The answer is no.
L4	Q All right. This oh, wait a second, I meant 92.
L5	Sorry, that's the problem.
L6	THE COURT: Wait a second, he gave you the wrong
L7	document.
L8	MR. ITKOWITZ: Excuse me, I made a mistake. As L9	Gilda Radner used to say, never mind. We're going to go to
20	92.
21	THE COURT: What do you want shown? What number
22	are we talking about?
23	MR. ITKOWITZ: 92.
24	THE COURT: Okay. You didn't tell the Court.
25	MR. ITKOWITZ: I said it, but I didn't speak loud
26	enough, Your Honor. Ninety-two.

1	Ross - Plaintiff - Direct (Mr. Itkowitz)
2	THE COURT: 92 is what we're looking at that has
3	been admitted into evidence also. All right.
4	MR. ITKOWITZ: 92 is in evidence, I believe.
5	THE COURT: Yes, right, I said that.
6	(Document shown to witness.)
7	Q Mr. Ross, this indicates that a meeting was set up by
8	Mr. Danzer with PVH and yourself for Thursday, June 24th at
9	10:00 a.m., correct?
10	A That's correct.
11	Q And that meeting occurred, correct?
12	A I don't recall if it occurred on that date, but it did
13	occur.
14	Q Well, it occurred in June, in late June of 2004,
15	correct?
16	A I would think so.
17	Q And at that meeting you recall what was discussed?
18	A We discussed the possibility of an agreement with PVH
19	where they would be a licensee of the Trump name, as far as
20	shirts and ties were concerned.
21	MR. ITKOWITZ: Okay. Just one second, I've got to
22	find something here.
23	THE COURT: The former document that you were
24	looking at, can we have that back.
25	THE WITNESS: Sure.
26	MR. ITKOWITZ: Just one second.

1	Ross - Plaintiff - Direct (Mr. Itkowitz)
2	THE COURT: You want a few minutes to do that, then
3	we can come back? We can take a break.
4	Q Isn't it a fact, sir, that at that meeting in June you
5	basically came to an agreement with PVH?
6	A That's not a fact.
7	Q That's not a fact. So at the meeting you discussed the
8	potential licensing?
9	A Yes.
10	Q And was that something that you were interested in?
11	A Yes.
12	Q And was PVH interested in?
13	A Yes.
14	Q And it was a positive meeting?
15	A Yes.
16	Q And at the conclusion of that meeting, was it not the
17	case that you and PVH indicated to each other that you wanted to
18	continue to explore this possibility?
19	A Yes.
20	Q And you were interested in this particular company
21	because it was a leading shirt manufacturer in the United
22	States, if not the world, correct?
23	A Yes.
24	Q This was a great opportunity for the Trump
25	Organization, correct?
26	A We thought it was appropriate. How great it was only

Ross - Plaintiff - Direct (Mr. Itkowitz) 1 2 time would tell. 3 But this was something you were excited about? 4 Α Oh, absolutely. 5 And this was a deal that you thought should be done if Q it could be done? 6 7 Α Yes. Now, just looking for something here I want to ask you Q about. 9 At your Examination Before Trial, did you not say words 10 to the effect that at that June meeting many of the essentials 11 12 of a deal were pretty much agreed upon? 13 MR. GOLDMAN: Objection. THE COURT: No, I'll allow that. 14 15 It depends on what I call the essentials, but there were a lot of things were basically agreed upon. 16 So basically --17 18 MR. GOLDMAN: Objection. Can we approach? 19 THE COURT: Yes. 20 (Whereupon, an off-the-record discussion was held at the bench among the Court and counsel.) 21 THE COURT: Jurors, I'm going to give you a little 2.2 23 morning break. That doesn't mean you don't get a second 24 break, but please don't discuss the case amongst yourselves; 25 no comments as to anything that's going on, keep an open mind. See you back here about five minutes, which makes it

1	Ross - Plaintiff - Direct (Mr. Itkowitz)
2	10:20. All right.
3	(Whereupon, the jury exits the courtroom and the
4	following transpired:)
5	THE COURT: All right, Mr. Ross, you can step down.
6	(Whereupon, the witness exits the stand.)
7	(Whereupon, a brief recess was taken.)

       DIRECT EXAMINATION
       BY MR. ITKOWITZ:
10
                 I started to ask you about the June 24 meeting but 11
       I want to backtrack --
12
                       THE COURT: I can't hear you, sir.
       BY MR. ITKOWITZ:
15
                 I want to backtrack to the memorandum of 16 understanding.
                       The memorandum of understanding did not have
       what lawyers would call a merger clause, correct?
19
                 A what clause?
20
                 A merger clause.
                       THE COURT: If you want to look it over, look 21
22
            it over.
23
                 There's nothing that talks about a merger clause,
           Didn't have it.
                 It didn't have a merger clause?
26
            Α
                 No.

2	Q Now, a merger clause is a particular clause that
3	lawyers in particular use in agreements on a regular basis,
4	correct?
5	A Depends on the agreement.
б	Q And a merger clause, what it does is says that an
7	agreement can't be modified unless it's modified in writing
8	and signed by the person against whom the writing is going
9	to be charged; isn't that correct?
10	MR. GOLDMAN: Objection.
11	THE COURT: I'll allow it.
12	A You're talking general law at this point?
13	Q Yes.
14	A General law, where parties agree on something and
15	they decide what the agreement is going to say, how it's
16	said, and what clauses it will have. I was not privy to the
17	agreement. Would I have drawn it this way? No. Would I
18	have been let it happen? It happened not by me.
19	Q Sir, I think you're going way beyond my question.
20	My question is simple. You stated you're very experienced
21	in real estate transactions, correct?
22	A Yes.
23	Q It's a standard clause in a real estate

5	Go on.
6	Q Is it not a merger clause basically says that,
7	an agreement can't be modified unless it's in writing and
8	signed; isn't that correct?
9	MR. GOLDMAN: Objection. I'll allow it. He
10	is a lawyer, I will allow it.

17	Q When it does have that shape, you can't modify the
18	agreement unless it's in writing, correct?
19	MR. GOLDMAN: Objection.
20	THE COURT: I will allow it.
21	A You're giving me a hypothetical clause, a
22	hypothetical merger clause
23	THE COURT: Sir, this is not a parlor event,
24	okay, this is a trial. This is where we do rules of
25	evidence, and right now you're on the witness stand.
26	There's a question asked. If it's a yes or no question

2	you answer it yes or no. And if you can't answer it
3	because you don't understand the question you tell us
4	so. But if you understand the question, the answer is
5	either yes or no.
6	Q The purpose of a merger clause is to make sure an
7	agreement can't be modified unless it's in writing and
8	signed by the parties; isn't that correct?
9	THE COURT: Yes or no.
10	A Yes.
11	Q Now, when there's a merger clause you can't change
12	it unless it's in writing, correct?
13	MR. GOLDMAN: Objection, your Honor.
14	THE COURT: Asked and answered. Let's go.
15	BY MR. ITKOWITZ:
16	Q Now, did your memorandum of understanding from
17	did Mr. Trump's memorandum of understanding, that you had
18	nothing to do with, did that have a merger clause, yes or
19	no?
20	MR. GOLDMAN: Objection.
21	Can we go on the record in the back?
22	THE COURT: No.
23	I'm going to sustain the way it's phrased.

In fact, that was one of the arguments that were raised, and it was said that as to the merger clause, you rejected the defendant's argument that that unsigned writing is to be disregarded because it didn't have a merger clause. However, you ruled that that unsigned writing, if it contains all the material terms and is referable to the two signed writings, could be considered a modification, albeit unsigned to the two signed writings. A Absolutely.
Q Now, let's go back to exhibit the exhibit
that's referred to in the deposition, which is Exhibit 93, trial exhibit. And Exhibit 93, is it not, is an e-mail fro Debbie Bonilla on behalf of Kenneth Wyse.
Do you recall who Kenneth Wyse was?
A Yes.
Q Who's Kenneth Wyse?
A He was the PVH president of licensing.
Q So he was an important person?
A Well, he's a person, he was who he was. How important he was I don't know.
Q And you said this is an e-mail from his secretary saying, attached please find the agenda for the Donald Trump meeting tomorrow, Thursday, June 24th.
Now, the next page on this is the agenda. Do you see that?
A Yes.
Q And it shows business overview Donald Trump, overview opportunity, distribution, consumer profile and Donald Trump marketing participation.
Now, it also anticipates who's going to be attending this meeting, Mark Weber.

1	Ross - by Plaintiff - Direct
2	He was the president of PVH, right?
3	A That's what it says.
4	Q Allen Sirkin. He was the vice chairman of PVH

6	A Correct.
7	Q And Kenneth Wyse, president of PVH licensing and
8	public relations?
9	A Yes.
10	Q George Ross EVP, that means executive vice
11	president of Trump Organization, right?
12	A Right.
13	Q And Jeff Danzer, executive vice president ALM
14	International?
15	A Yes.
16	Q So on June 24th, then, to sum up, you met with the
17	PVH and you basically came to the essentials of an
18	agreement. That's what you said at your deposition,
19	correct?
20	A Yes.
21	Q Now, there might be changes that would be made,
22	but if both parties were willing to go forward you were
23	going to get a deal, and you knew that on June 24th,
24	correct?
25	A There would ultimately be a deal submitted, yes.
26	Q And that's a deal you wanted to make?
	Donna Evans, Official Court Reporter

Ross - by Plaintiff - Direct 1 It's a deal we wanted to make if it was 2 3 acceptable, sure. Well, if it's acceptable. You're not meaning --4 Q 5 your meaning acceptable in the common parlance of the word, 6 correct? 7 Α No, I mean acceptable that we entered into an agreement which was binding upon both parties which covered 8 9 all aspects of the licensing agreement. 10 Q Right. A formal agreement based on an agreed set of 11 Α 12 facts. 13 Q Now, when you used the word acceptable, you 14 weren't talking about acceptable in terms of the definition 15 of acceptable license in the memorandum of understanding, 16 are you? 17 Α No. 18 Q And in fact, you knew in June and thereafter, shortly thereafter, certainly, that this agreement was not 19 20 going to meet the rigorous requirements set out for an 21 acceptable license as stated in a memorandum of 22 understanding, correct? 23 MR. GOLDMAN: Objection to the form. 24 THE COURT: Do you understand the question, 25 yes or no? 26 THE WITNESS: Yes, I understand the question.

1	Ross - by Plaintiff - Direct
2	THE COURT: I'll allow it to be answered.
3	A I my understanding of it was the agreement with
4	PVH would not meet the criteria set forth in the memorandum
5	of understanding.
6	Q And you knew that the deal was not going to get
7	completed by June 30th?
8	A Yes, I knew it would not be completed by
9	June 30th.
LO	Q And you knew there was a three month period, a
L1	tail period in the memorandum of understanding, correct?
L2	A Yes.
L3	Q And so you knew that after this meeting a number
L 4	of things had to happen, correct?
L5	A Number of things had to happen? Yes, that's true.
L6	Q So among those things that had to happen was that
L7	you had to finalize the details and reduce it to a written
L8	agreement binding on both parties, correct?
L9	A That's correct.
20	Q And also, you knew that you were going to have to
21	renegotiate the commission that ALM would otherwise be
22	entitled to, correct?
23	MR. GOLDMAN: Objection.
24	THE COURT: Sustained on that. There's no
25	background on that.

That's what he said. I didn't know that to be a 17 Α 18 fact. 19 Well, you knew that he arranged the meeting? Q 20 Α Yes. And you didn't know anybody from PVH prior to this 21 22 meeting, did you? 23 Α No. 24 So you knew he arranged the meeting, he brought 25 you to a meeting, and at that meeting you agreed on the 26 essentials of what turned out to be a license, correct? A Yes.

Q Now, it says proposal re Coty and it says, Dear Cathy. It was great meeting with you, Donald and George today. Good luck in your new position. It's going to be fun working with you to build a Trump life-style brand. As discussed, attached is a letter of interest from -- it says form -- Coty. The letter spells out Coty's interest in acquiring a license for Trump fragrence and gives you a broad stroke view of stage one of Trump fragrance detail --

Q Trump fragrance deal. Obviously, there is a lot of work yet to be done, and I will be meeting with Coty tomorrow to hash out phase two of the deal. They have promised to do everything necessary to get you five-year numbers, proposed advances and guarantees by Friday.

THE COURT: Deal. You said detail.

Regarding our deal, as it pertains to the

Coty deal, Mark and I discussed Donald's offer of 10 percent, as well as his suggestion to try and get a

Donna Evans, Official Court Reporter

Ross - by Plaintiff - Direct higher percentage from Coty to justify a higher percentage for ALM. Mark and I thought about how to make this a win win situation for everyone and have come up with the following proposal. Then it goes forth and it sets forth a proposal for Coty for what the percentages would be. And it shows, to shorten this, that if Coty signs at 5 percent and Trump's net is 4.5 percent ALM's fee would be 10 percent. And if Coty signs at 6 percent ALM's fee would be 15 percent. And if Coty signs at 7 percent ALM's fee would be 27 percent. Now, this was a proposal that ALM was making to Trump; is that correct? That's what it says. (Continued on next page.)

Donna Evans, Official Court Reporter

- O That's what it is, is it not?
- A This is an e-mail letter. If it's a proposal, it's a proposal. It is what it is. It's an e-mail letter indicating what they said was discussed at the Coty meeting.
 - Q Well, it says that Donald offered ten percent, correct?
- A That's what it says.
 - Q Is that accurate?
 - A I don't know. I wasn't there.
- 10 Q You don't remember?
 - A Not that I don't remember. Donald -- that's not Donald's style. Donald doesn't offer a percentage.
- Q I just asked you if you remember. I didn't ask you for anything else. So I would ask you to just restrict yourself to my questions.
 - A All right. Will you repeat the question, please?
 - Q Okay. Were you there at this meeting?
- 18 A No.

- Q So Jeff Danzer said in this e-mail that Donald offered ten percent. Now, that indicates that at that time the issue of how much ALM would be getting for deals that it was going to be bringing to the table was being negotiated; is that correct?
- A No, being discussed. I wouldn't call that a negotiation.
 - Q Discussed. Okay. So you knew bringing it back to PVH that PVH was also being discussed at this time, correct?

1	Ross - Plaintiff - Direct (Mr. Itkowitz)
2	A I didn't know being discussed at the time, yes, but
3	not as a result of the meeting with Coty.
4	Q Right. But at or about the same time
5	A Yes.
6	Q you were discussing a percentage with ALM, correct?
7	A I was discussing a percentage with ALM? No.
8	Q Donald was discussing a percentage?
9	A I don't know that to be a fact.
10	Q So you were never present when Donald mentioned the
11	word ten percent to ALM?
12	A That's correct.
13	Q Is that correct?
14	A That's correct, I was never present then.
15	Q All right.
16	MR. ITKOWITZ: At this time, I'd like to introduce
17	Exhibit 100.
18	THE COURT: Is that in evidence or is that
19	identification?
20	MR. ITKOWITZ: I believe it is in evidence, but it
21	hasn't been introduced. It hasn't been discussed.
22	MR. GOLDMAN: Your Honor, it's in evidence and it's
23	the same as Defendant's M. Both are the same document.
24	THE COURT: Okay.
25	Q This is a proposal that was sent by Jeff Danzer to
26	Donald Trump on August 3rd, correct?

- A That's what it appears to be, yes.
- Q And that was sent on the same day as this e-mail which I just showed you, which is Trial Exhibit 115, which discussed the Coty deal, correct?
 - A Yes.

Q Now, in this particular document Jeff Danzer writes,
"Donald," he says, "regarding our deal as it pertains to any licensing deal ALM brings to the Trump Organization, Mark and I discussed your offer of ten percent as well as your suggestion to try and get a higher percentage from potential licensees to justify a higher percentage for ALM."

And then it goes through a similar formula as that set forth. Actually, an identical formula as that set forth in this e-mail which was sent to Cathy Glosser, except this one was sent directly to Donald Trump, correct?

- A That's correct.
- Q Now, do you recall anytime from August 3, 2004 to August 23rd of 2004 ever having a discussion with Mr. Trump about a different percentage for ALM than that set forth in the memorandum of understanding?

- A The answer is we never discussed the percentage. There again, I never discussed that with Mr. Trump.
- Q Okay. Now, you did discuss it with Mr. Danzer though, correct?
- 26 A Yes.

- Q And there came a point, did there not, when you reached an agreement with Mr. Danzer that if the PVH deal would come through that they would get ten percent, correct?
 - A No, that's absolutely false.
- Q That's absolutely false. You got the -- on August 23rd Mr. Danzer sent a proposal to you and to Cathy Glosser -- not a proposal, its actually a statement -- as to what was discussed between you and Mr. Danzer, and that's Plaintiff's Exhibit 6.

I would ask that -- excuse me, Plaintiff's Exhibit Trial 72, and I would ask that it be shown to the witness.

(Document handed to witness.)

THE COURT: In evidence.

- Q Now, do you recognize this document?
- A Yes.

 - Q So you didn't look at any documents before coming in to testify today?
 - A I looked at the ones the stock holder -- the agreement that you had, and it says memorandum of understanding. I looked at that and the one, the extension of the time. And the answer

- is, yeah, I looked at those. 2
 - So you've looked at the documents that I've shown you 0 today?

- 12 And you didn't look at this particular document in the Q last two weeks?
 - Α The last two weeks, I might have looked at that time.
 - 0 You might have?
- Yeah, I might have. 16 Α
 - Okay. Now, in this document Jeff Danzer writes to you essentially, and I'm just going to -- it says, "Dear George, I'm happy we have been able to come to terms regarding our deal as it pertains to bringing licensing deals to the Trump Organization. As we've agreed, ALM's fee for any introduction of a potential licensing partner to Donald Trump and/or any other entity associated with Donald Trump which evolves into a licensing deal and any subsequent renewal thereof shall be ten percent of all royalties or such other fees, advances -- i.e. advances, sign-on bonuses, marketing fees, et cetera paid to

1	Ross - Plaintiff - Direct (Mr. Itkowitz)
2	Trump. ALM's fee shall be paid to ALM or any other entity it so
3	chooses within 15 days from when Trump receives payment from the
4	licensing partner."
5	That's what he wrote to you on that day, correct?
6	A That's correct.
7	Q Now, this was three days before you were going to have
8	a critical follow-up meeting to your June 24th meeting, correct?
9	A Three days before? I don't remember the exact dates,
10	but it was before.
11	Q Well, I'll show you what's been marked as Plaintiff's
12	Exhibit 27 so we get the chronology, and I also ask that you be
13	shown Exhibit 73.
14	THE COURT: What's the first one?
15	MR. ITKOWITZ: 27 and 73.
16	THE COURT: That's been shown already.
17	MR. WILTENBURG: According to my records, it has
18	not been.
19	THE COURT: Show 73. 73 is in evidence.
20	(Documents shown to witness.)
21	Q So let's get the context here, sir.
22	On August 23rd Danzer writes you and states what he
23	says he negotiated with you is going to be the deal, right?
24	A He doesn't talk about negotiation. He says, as we've
25	agreed.
26	Q That's right. He says he writes to him, he says to

Ross - Plaintiff - Direct (Mr. Itkowitz) 1 2 you --3 That we've agreed. That's what he said. But we didn't Α 4 agree. 5 That's right. Excuse me. Q Α We didn't agree. 7 Q I didn't ask you that question, sir, and I really appreciate if you just answer my question. I asked you --THE COURT: Mr. Ross, please. I said to you before I don't want to have to become sharp. You are here to 10 11 answer questions and not to add anything else. 12 THE WITNESS: Okay. 13 THE COURT: That last portion is stricken and it is 14 to be disregarded by the jury and it's not part of this 15 action. THE WITNESS: I'm sorry, Your Honor, I didn't mean 16 to do that. 17 18 So again, Trial Exhibit 72 e-mailed to you from Jeff Danzer, August 23rd, Jeff Danzer says, George, this is our deal, 19 20 correct? That's correct. 21 Α 22 This is what we negotiated. He says, this is what we've negotiated? 23 24 He says this is what we've agreed. 25 That's right. This is what we've agreed? 0 26 Α Yes.

Q On August 25th, two days later, he says, "Hi, George, it was good speaking with you. I'm looking forward to a productive meeting tomorrow with Van Heusen. I e-mailed you an agreement letter detailing ALM's new deal with the Trump Organization. I would appreciate it if you could please sign it and fax it back to me before our meeting tomorrow. I've attached a copy to this e-mail for quick reference."

And in that there's an attachment to that e-mail, which is the same -- which is a letter which states the exact same words as to what the deal was in the August 23rd letter, but it's in a letter format to you; is that correct?

- A It indicates what he understood the deal to be, yes.

 THE COURT: No. Is it a letter format to you, sir?

 THE WITNESS: Is it a letter format, yes.
- Q And in that letter format he states, just as he stated on August 23rd, "I'm happy we've been able to come to terms" -- I'm just skipping a couple of words -- "as we've agreed, ALM's fee for any introduction of a potential licensing partner," et cetera, "which evolves into a licensing deal," et cetera, "shall be ten percent of royalties or other fees paid to Trump. ALM's fee shall be paid to ALM or any other entity it so chooses within 15 days from when Trump receives payment," correct?
 - A Correct.

Q So on the 25th, two days later, he sends you another e-mail saying, "Hey, we're meeting tomorrow in advance of the 1 Ross - Plaintiff - Direct (Mr. Itkowitz) meeting. By the way, again here's a reminder this is the deal 2 3 we've negotiated. This is the deal we've agreed to. Here it is, please sign it." Correct? 4 5 Α That's what he says. Now, turn to Plaintiff's Exhibit 31. 7 THE COURT: Thirty-one? MR. ITKOWITZ: Excuse me. Twenty-seven, excuse me, 8 which is a deposition, Exhibit 31. My mind keeps going to 9 the bottom instead of the top. 10 11 Trial 27, look at that. That's the agenda for the 12 Donald Trump meeting on August 26th, correct? 13 Yes. And that indicates that attending this meeting was 14 0 15 Donald Trump himself, you, Cathy Glosser, Jeff Danzer and Mark Weber, president of PVH; Alan Sirkin; Ken Wyse, president of 16 17 licensing; and Lynn Flynn, correct? 18 Α Yes. 19 Q That meeting occurred? 20 Α Yes. 21 0 You were at that meeting? 2.2 Α Yes. 23 Okay. So just to set the stage again, August 23rd Jeff Q 24

Q Okay. So just to set the stage again, August 23rd Jeff tells you what the deal was as he agreed to with you. He restates that on August 25th and reminds you about your meeting with PVH tomorrow. At the PVH meeting the next day, Donald

1	Ross - Plaintiff - Direct (Mr. Itkowitz)
2	Trump comes.
3	Now, that was a very successful meeting; was it not?
4	A I don't know how you qualify a success. The answer wa
5	the basis of dealing with PVH, that they would be a good
6	licensee, yes.
7	Q And Donald Trump emerged from that meeting very happy
8	about the meeting; isn't that correct?
9	A Absolutely, yes.
10	Q And, in fact, when Donald Trump left that meeting he
11	gave instructions to his team and that included Jeff Danzer?
12	A No.
13	Q He didn't give instructions?
14	A Jeff Danzer was not part of his team. Cathy Glosser
15	and I were the team.
16	Q Okay. So Jeff Danzer wasn't interested in making the
17	deal happen?
18	A Oh, I didn't say he wasn't interested. He was looking
19	for a commission, of course he was interested.
20	Q And his commission was based on bringing the deal to
21	the table for Donald Trump?
22	A He was entitled to get paid something for bringing the
23	deal to the table, yes.
24	Q Can I have my question read back?
25	THE COURT: Plead read it back.
26	(Whereupon, the last question was read back by Ross - Plaintiff - Direct (Mr. Itkowitz) 1 2 the court reporter.) MR. ITKOWITZ: I would move to strike the answer. 3 4 THE COURT: The motion is -- your objection is 5 overruled. I am going to strike the answer. The answer required a yes or no. Please answer. 7 Α Yes. Now, according to Cathy Glosser's handwritten notes, which are in evidence as Exhibit 11 in this case, Cathy Glosser 9 noted, as per Donald, make the deal happen. 10 11 That was an accurate statement as to what Donald's 12 intentions were following this meeting, correct? 13 Yes. And I show you what's been marked as Exhibit 74. 14 0 15 (Document handed to witness.) Go ahead. 16 Α Okay. Now, this is an e-mail from Mr. Danzer, and he 17 18 says, "I want to thank you and George" -- he's writing to Cathy -- "for bringing Donald up to PVH. We had a fantastic 19 20 meeting. Now you and I have been charged to make it happen." So obviously Jeff Danzer knew that Donald wanted this 21 deal to happen as a result of the outcome of this meeting, 2.2 23 correct? 24 Α That's correct. 25 And he was certainly incentivized to make it happen, 26 correct?

Ross - Plaintiff - Direct (Mr. Itkowitz) 1 2 Α Yes. Because he didn't get paid unless this deal went 3 0 4 through, correct? 5 Α That's correct. And, in fact, you knew, did you not, that if ALM wasn't 7 getting paid there was no point of them doing any of this work, correct? 8 Yeah, they get paid. I never had objection -- the 9 10 answer is yes, they get paid. 11 Now I want to show you Plaintiff's Exhibit 31. Q 12 (Document handed to witness.) 13 Now, this is another e-mail from Jeff Danzer to you dated August 30th, just four days after the PVH meeting, and he 14 15 says, "Again, this will confirm that you have agreed to terms outlined in my letter of August 23rd." 16 17 THE COURT: Read the whole thing. 18 MR. ITKOWITZ: Excuse me? THE COURT: Read the whole thing. 19 20 "Dear George, as per our conversation on Thursday, this 0 21 will confirm that you have agreed to terms outlined in my letter 2.2 of August 23rd and that based upon your agreement we have proceeded and introduced you to PVH. I look forward to working 23 24 with you." 25 Did you receive that? 26 Α Yes.

1 Ross - Plaintiff - Direct (Mr. Itkowitz) 2 So you knew that -- now, let me ask you something. At any time up until August 30th, did you ever write back to Jeff? 3 4 He now sends you three communications stating explicitly what he 5 says you agreed to. At any time during that period of time, did you write 6 7 back to him and say no? I never wrote back to him, no. 8 And you knew that this was a critical stage of bringing 9 10 the deal together, correct? 11 Α Yes. 12 Now, at some point -- now, Jeff Danzer is the one who arranged for PVH to send its proposal, its formal proposal, 13 14 correct? 15 Α No, that's not true. That's not true? 16 0 17 No, he didn't arrange it. Α 18 Q So he set up the meeting, right? 19 Α Yes. He urged you to bring Donald Trump? 20 Q 21 Α Yes. 2.2 0 He organized the meeting? 23 Α No. 24 He didn't organize? 25 Well, he organized the people that were there, but he Α didn't run the meeting.

1 Ross - Plaintiff - Direct (Mr. Itkowitz) I didn't say he ran the meeting, I said he organized 2 3 the meeting. 4 He organized the people that were going to be there, 5 yes. You organized the June meeting? 7 Α Yes, yes. And he had contacts at PVH that brought PVH into the 8 mix with Donald Trump? 9 10 That's correct, he indicated that. Α 11 And following that, a proposal came from PVH to Donald 0 12 Trump, correct? 13 That's correct. 14 And at some point in September you or Cathy Glosser or 0 15 somebody said, you know what, it would be more effective to get this deal done for PVH to send its proposal directly to Trump, 16 17 correct? 18 Α Yes. And you thought that the deal would get done faster, 19 20 correct, if it was done that way? 21 Α Absolutely. And you were in charge of the deal on the Trump end, 2.2 0 23 correct? 24 Α That's correct. 25 Now, how many deals -- prior to this time, how many Q deals did you negotiate, approximately; thousands? 26

Ross - Plaintiff - Direct (Mr. Itkowitz) 1 2 Α Are we talking about licensing or talking generally? 3 Anything. 0 4 Α Thousands. 5 Thousands. So you know how to get a deal done? Q Beg your pardon? Α You know how to get a deal done? 7 0 Oh, sure. Α Now, on November 29, 2004 an executed agreement 9 0 occurred, that's Trial Exhibit 3. Can I show the witness trial 10 Exhibit 3? 11 12 (Document handed to witness.) 13 Α Yes. 14 And did you know whether or not anybody sent a copy of 0 15 that agreement to Mr. Danzer at ALM? Probably did. I don't know. I didn't send it, but it 16 Α may have been sent. 17 18 And there came a time when you started getting -- you started getting -- the deal went into production, the shirts 19 20 went into production and they started selling the shirts, and lo 21 and behold in July or August you got your first commission check, correct, you got your first royalty check? 22 23 Α Yes. 24 At that time you became aware, did you not --25 THE COURT: One second. Do you need a break, folks? Okay. All right, so we're going to take a break 26

2	right now and in the middle of your sentence you'll pick it
3	up. So please don't discuss the case amongst yourselves.
4	Keep an open mind. We'll see you back here in ten minutes,
5	at 11:30.
6	(Whereupon, the jury exits the courtroom and the
7	following transpired:)
8	THE COURT: You may step down, sir.
9	(Whereupon, the witness exits the stand.)
LO	(Whereupon, a brief recess was taken.)
L1	MR. GOLDMAN: Your Honor, before we get to
L2	scheduling.
L3	THE COURT: I was going to ask how long.
L4	MR. GOLDMAN: We're just now getting to 2005, and I
L5	assume we're going to go through the papers and letters and
L6	communications.
L7	THE COURT: I thought the whole point of taking so
18	much time with the other woman was that you said you weren't
L9	going to take so much time today.
20	You know what, Mr. Ross, you can stand outside, you
21	don't need to listen to this.
22	(Mr. Ross exits the courtroom.)
23	MR. GOLDMAN: Let's wait for Mr. Ross to leave.
24	THE COURT: Yesterday when we talked about Mr.
25	Ross, you said that, gee, most everything was done through

Ms. Glosser, and we spent the whole day on Ms. Glosser, but

Ross - Plaintiff - Direct (Mr. Itkowitz) 1 2 everything was basically done. Mr. Ross was going to take, 3 according to your words, a maximum of one and a half hours, 4 a maximum. Now we've already been at it since, well, we 5 were late this morning, 9:45. I'm sorry? MR. GOLDMAN: 9:45. THE COURT: 9:45, 10:45, 11:45, basically two and a 7 half hours have gone by and you are nowhere near done. Am I correct, nowhere near done? 9 10 MR. ITKOWITZ: I would think honestly there's a shot that I can get this done before 12:45, but I'm 11 12 notoriously bad at estimating. 13 MR. GOLDMAN: Apparently. 14 THE COURT: Oh, yes. Have you ever done trials 15 before? MR. ITKOWITZ: Yes, I've done many trials. 16 THE COURT: So how come you can't figure out how 17 18 long a witness is going to take? MR. ITKOWITZ: Because sometimes depends on what 19 20 the witness says and how this witness reacts. 21 THE COURT: Look, if you knew Mr. Ross, and you did 2.2 his deposition and you read his deposition, you could come 23 to the conclusion that Mr. Ross is not going to be the most 24 amenable witness, he's not going to be quick, you're going 25 to have to pull things out of him, right?

MR. ITKOWITZ: I knew that.

1	Ross - Plaintiff - Direct (Mr. Itkowitz)
2	THE COURT: Right. So you told me an hour and a
3	half yesterday. That's what you told me.
4	MR. ITKOWITZ: I said I think we can get Mr
5	THE COURT: You're playing with this Court.
6	MR. ITKOWITZ: No, no, no, I'm not playing.
7	THE COURT: You're playing.
8	MR. ITKOWITZ: Believe me, Judge, let me tell you
9	something. Honestly, I would like this trial to be over as
0	quick as possible. I am not interested
L1	THE COURT: You should have taken the settlement.
L2	MR. ITKOWITZ: I am not interested no, I
.3	disagree with that, but I am not interested in prolonging
L4	the trial.
L5	THE COURT: You think you can get it done
L6	MR. GOLDMAN: Before lunch?
L7	THE COURT: before lunch?
L8	MR. ITKOWITZ: I'm going to give it my best effort.
L9	It might be almost done, but I think it's going to be done.
20	THE COURT: I think you're outrageous, I really do.
21	This is the kind of thing you're playing with the jury,
22	you're playing with me.
23	MR. ITKOWITZ: I will try and move it as fast as I

And let me tell you something, if I were an ADA and estimated the way you estimated, I would have not been an ADA much longer. Not been an ADA because, guess what, the judges didn't permit that kind of behavior. You said to the judge I'm going to put on this witness, that witness is going to be approximately an hour for direct, and the judge would say how long for cross, okay, we could put two on in the morning. 20	A Yes.
21	Q And Mr. Danzer from ALM wrote to the Trump
22	Organization and said I am glad to hear you got your
23	commission check your royalty check, when can I get my
24	commission check, right?
25	A I don't have that information.
26	Q Do you have any memory of it?
	Donna Evans, Official Court Reporter

Ross - by Plaintiff - Direct 1 I don't remember him -- he certainly never 2 3 mentioned it to me. Do you remember having any discussions with 4 5 anybody in the Trump Organization in July or August of 2005 6 about whether ALM and Mr. Danzer were entitled to get paid? A 7 Yes, I remember. I discussed it with Cathy Glosser. 8 9 0 10

Now, I show you what's been marked as Plaintiff's Exhibit 39. I direct your attention to the bottom e-mail in that chain where it says -- it's from Jeff Danzer to Kathy Glosser with a cc to you. Do you see that?

Α Yes.

- It says, Thanks, Cathy, I'll miss you, have a good trip and a great weekend. On a separate note, the addressed information for ALM has changed, please send the first commission check regarding the PVH Trump deal to, and it gives an address, correct?
 - Α Correct.
- Now, Kathy Glosser wrote back to him and says in the next e-mail up there in the chain says, Jeff is the below address correct --

25 THE COURT: That's not what it says.

> Is the below address your new office address? I Q Donna Evans, Official Court Reporter

1	Ross - by Plaintiff - Direct
2	assume you have checked with Mark Hager and he is
3	comfortable with the check going to your attention. Please
4	advise, correct?
5	A I don't see what you're referring to.
6	THE COURT: There's a series of e-mails,
7	okay? So you have the first one here down there you
8	just read. The answer is the next one up, okay?
9	(Pause.)
10	THE COURT: Do you see it now?
11	THE WITNESS: Yes, I see it.
12	Q You see there's some handwriting on this document?
13	A Yes.
14	Q The testimony in the case is that that's Kathy
15	Glosser's handwriting.
16	A Yes.
17	Q So Kathy Glosser says she made a notation when
18	she got this e-mail, says, wait to hear back from George
19	before processing?
20	A Correct.
21	Q As you sit here now, do you recall whether Kathy
22	Glosser contacted you on or about July 15th with respect to
23	sending a commission check to ALM?
24	A She spoke to me.
25	Q She spoke to you?
26	A Yes.
	Donna Evans, Official Court Reporter

1	Ross - by Plaintiff - Direct
2	Q And you okayed that first commission check, did
3	you not?
4	A I okayed a check, I didn't okay
5	THE COURT: Up, up. You just say yes or no.
6	You okayed the check?
7	THE WITNESS: I okayed the check.
8	Q So when she wrote George okayed on 7/20/05 she was
9	being accurate, correct?
10	A Absolutely.
11	Q Now, you also okayed for her to send out royalty
12	statements to ALM, correct?
13	A I never okayed it. I never knew about it.
14	Q You never new about it?
15	A No.
16	Q Did it come to your attention in August of 2005
17	that there was an issue as to whether there was a signed
18	agreement with respect to ALM's entitlement to payment of a
19	commission?
20	A Yes.
21	Q And in fact, Kathy Glosser
22	MR. ITKOWITZ: Withdrawn.
23	Q Jeff Danzer had sent an invoice to Kathy Glosser
24	for that first commission check on or about August of 2005,
25	correct? On August 8th?
26	A I don't have any knowledge of that. I assume he

21	However, the second e-mail from the top you

THE COURT: Dated 8/8/2005 at 1:34 p.m.

MR. ITKOWITZ: Yes.

THE COURT: Do you see that?

THE WITNESS: Yes.

Q So Kathy Glosser is asking for the ALM Trump executed agreement, correct?

A Yes, that's what she's asking.

Jeff Danzer writes the following at the top on August 9th: Dear Kathy, as you know Trump and ALM entered into a memorandum of understanding dated September 25, 2003 that was extended through June 30th, 2004. During the course of the performance of its obligations and services Mr. Trump requested that ALM continue its efforts past June 30th, 2004 at a reduced rate of 10 percent for any licensing deal originated by ALM. In this connection, ALM introduced PVH to the Trump licensing opportunity on May 14th, 2004 that resulted in Trump entering into a licensing agreement for dress shirts, tuxedo shirts and neck wear with royalties of 8 percent and 3 percent for closeouts. ALM's agreement to receive reduced fee of 10 percent is set forth in various e-mails dated August 23, 2004, August 25, 2004 and August 30th, 2004, which were acknowledged to have been received by Mr. Ross. If you have any questions please do not hesitate to let me know. All

3	Now, that's when Jeff wrote that back,
4	Jeff was referring to the three e-mails that I previously
5	read with you that you just testified about, correct?
6	MR. GOLDMAN: Objection.
7	THE COURT: Poorly worded. Rephrase it.
8	MR. ITKOWITZ: Okay.
9	Q The e-mails excuse me. ALM's agreement to
LO	receive the reduced fee was set forth in various e-mails
L1	dated August 23, 2004, August 24 25th, 2004 and
L2	August 30th, 2004, all of which were forwarded to you
L3	correct, directed to you?
L4	MR. GOLDMAN: Objection to the form.
L5	May we approach? I don't want to
L6	THE COURT: Come on up.
L7	(Whereupon, there's a sidebar discussion off
L8	the record, out of the hearing of the jury.)
L9	BY MR. ITKOWITZ:
20	Q Mr. Ross, do you recall getting the three e-mails
21	dated August 23, 2004, August 25, 2004 and August 30, 2004,
22	that are referred to in this e-mail?
23	A Yes.
24	Q Now, I'm going to direct your attention to trial
25	Exhibit 81.
26	THE COURT OFFICER: Eighty-one in evidence.
	Donna Evans, Official Court Reporter

2 BY MR. ITKOWITZ:

Q At the bottom -- let's go to the third page of this document, which actually if you go to the bottom of the second page indicates this is an e-mail from Jeff Danzer to Kathy. Says, Hi Kathy --

THE COURT: Put the date in.

Q Dated August 22nd, 2005. 10:30 a.m.

It says: Hi Kathy, good morning. I haven't heard from you since my last e-mail concerning ALM's first invoice for semi-annual earned commissions on the Trump PVH deal. The payment is now overdue. Please let me know when we can expect to receive payment.

She writes back on August 22nd, 2005, at 5:39 pm. She says: Jeff, since we do not have paper on the deal, George has asked that we quickly draw up a letter stating the verbal deal. Could you draft one pager and send it my way? I will then see to it that you receive payment. Thanks very much.

Do you see that?

A Yes.

Q Was Kathy Glosser accurate when she said George asked that we quickly draw up a letter?

A Yes.

Q Now, skipping ahead to the first page of this exhibit, Kathy Glosser writes on August 23rd: Jeff, I have Donna Evans, Official Court Reporter an e-mail but accounting told me that they need the actual deal in order to process an invoice. I believe George did check his file and that was when he determined that he didn't have a signed paper from ALM. If you think it will be too tricky for your lawyer to quickly draw something up, let me know and I will ask George.

Do you see that?

A Yes.

Q Then Jeff writes back on September 6th: Hi, Kathy, how are you? I hope you had a fun filled holiday weekend. I just wanted to follow up with you regarding the signed agreement you need for your accounting department in order for us to start getting paid. Please let me now if your attorney is in the process of drafting an agreement or if I need to have mine do it. Thanks and all the best, Jeff.

You see Kathy writes back at the top on September 22, 2005? She says: Jeff, George is drafting something. I don't know what his timing is but I will get something to you as soon as I can get it.

Do you recall telling Kathy Glosser that you were going to draft something up?

A I never told her I was going to draft something up

I told her --

Q Sir, excuse me, I asked you -
Donna Evans, Official Court Reporter

1	Ross - by Plaintiff - Direct
2	A I don't recall.
3	Q You don't recall?
4	A No.
5	Q So you don't recall means you don't remember or
6	you don't recall means she was being inaccurate?
7	A No, she was not inaccurate. I don't recall.
8	Q Now, that e-mail that she wrote on September 7 at
9	9:54 a.m., do you see that, Trial Exhibit 81?
10	A Yes.
11	Q I have an e-mail here I direct your attention to,
12	Trial Exhibit 122.
13	THE COURT: This hasn't been marked in
14	evidence yet or it has?
15	MR. ITKOWITZ: It has, Judge. 122.
16	Q Have you familiarized yourself with the document?
17	A Yes.
18	Q So contained in Exhibit 122 is an e-mail from
19	Kathy Glosser to you dated September 7, 2005. Do you see
20	that?
21	A I don't see anything here that talks about that
22	date. I have an e-mail from Kathy Glosser dated November 6,
23	2005.
24	THE COURT: Right down below the original
25	message. Do you see that?
	Donna Evans, Official Court Reporter

1	Ross - by Plaintiff - Direct
2	THE COURT: What date is that?
3	THE WITNESS: September 7, 2005.
4	THE COURT: What time?
5	THE WITNESS: 10:01 a.m.
6	Q Going back to trial Exhibit 81, her e-mail, Kathy
7	Glosser's e-mail saying George is drafting something up,
8	that was written on September 7 at 9:54 a.m., correct?
9	A That's correct.

Ross - Plaintiff - Direct - (Mr. Itkowitz)

Q So six minutes, seven minutes later she writes you, and she writes and she says the following: "George, I received yet another e-mail from Jeff Danzer regarding their outstanding payment. I let him know that you are drafting a letter and we will get it to him as soon as we can. I know we briefly discussed a while back that ALM may expect that they should benefit from the sportswear deal. I don't know that he even knows that we did a sportswear deal, but we should probably specify in the letter that they get a percentage of dress shirt and neckwear royalties."

Do you see that?

A Yes.

- Q So does this refresh your recollection that you had told Cathy Glosser that you were going to draft a letter to Jeff Danzer with your signature on it?
- A I never told her I would draft a letter.
- 18 O You never told her?
- 19 A No.
- 20 Q So she was making it up?
- 21 THE COURT: Do you have something else?
- A At that point I told her I would resolve the matter, but I was never drafting a letter.
 - Q So Cathy Glosser's e-mails, these two e-mails in which she says that you're going to draft a letter, are completely inaccurate?

Ross - Plaintiff - Direct - (Mr. Itkowitz)

A That's not true.

- Q Well, you've just said that you were not going to draft a letter?
- A No, I said I was going to resolve the situation, but I was not going to do it by drafting a letter.
- Q I understand that's what you said, but she said to Mr. Danzer that you were going to write a letter, didn't she?
 - A That's what she said.
- Q And when she wrote to you, she was telling you what to put in the letter that you were going to be drafting, correct?
- A What to put in a letter that I was drafting, yes, that's correct.
- Q All right. Now, let's talk a second about the sportswear deal. The sportswear deal is a separate deal from the original license agreement that was set forth in November of 2004, correct?
- A I don't know. I don't know how the sportswear deal, how it was separated out. It's not to my knowledge.
- Q Well, Cathy Glosser is saying here, sir, is she not, that she's concerned that she had discussed with you that ALM may expect to benefit from a sportswear deal?
- A That's what she said. She didn't say she discussed it with me. She wrote what she wrote.
 - Q She said I know -- look at the third sentence here. "I know we," we being you and Cathy Glosser, correct, that's who

Ross - Plaintiff - Direct - (Mr. Itkowitz) 1 2 the "we" refers to? 3 Α Okay. 0 Is that correct? 5 Α That's -- I would be we, yeah. So it says, "We briefly discussed a while back that ALM 7 may expect that they should benefit from the sportswear deal." Does that refresh your recollection that there was an 8 issue that you and Cathy Glosser were concerned that ALM would 9 10 seek to benefit from a sportswear deal which was separate and 11 apart from the neckwear and the shirt deal that was signed in 12 November of 2004? 13 It doesn't refresh my recollection at all. 14 So you just don't remember? 0 15 Α I don't recall. So you don't recall whether there was a separate sports 16 0 deal -- sportswear deal in May of 2005 between PVH and Trump; 17 18 you just don't recall that? 19 MR. GOLDMAN: Objection. 20 THE COURT: Overruled. 21 Α I don't. To my knowledge, there was never a separate deal made with PVH on sportswear. 2.2 23 So, to your knowledge, there was never a separate deal 24 made, there was never an issue in which ALM would be entitled to 25 its commission on sportswear royalties, correct?

To my knowledge, that didn't exist.

Α

1 Ross - Plaintiff - Direct - (Mr. Itkowitz) 2 And so, therefore, is it your knowledge that ALM was 3 paid money on the sportswear deal? 4 Α I don't know that. I have no recollection, no knowledge of that fact at all. 5 Now, Cathy writes you on September 7th saying that 6 you're going to write a letter. She's written Jeff Danzer that 7 you're going to write a letter. 8 And then you say you're going to -- and now you're 10 testifying that you were going to resolve it without writing a 11 letter, correct? 12 Α That's correct. 13 0 You knew ALM -- withdrawn. The way you resolved it --14 THE COURT: Did he resolve it? 15 Q Did you resolve it? 16 Α No. So just as far as you are sitting here now, you left 17 18 the whole thing hanging? 19 Α Yes. 20 So you don't recall saying to Cathy Glosser that ALM was entitled to payment? 21 I told entitled to a payment, yes. 2.2 23 Q To payment, not a payment? 24 Α No, to a payment. 25 One second. Do you recall having a discussion with Q Cathy Glosser about any of the three e-mails that we've referred 26

                 Ross - Plaintiff - Direct - (Mr. Itkowitz)
 2 to that Jeff Danzer sent you stating what he said was the deal
      between you and him?
               Would you repeat the question, please?
               Yes. Do you recall having ever had any discussion with
          Q
      Cathy Glosser about Jeff Danzer's statements as to what deal he reached with you as articulated in the three e-mails he sent you in August of two thousand --
               Yes, I had a discussion with Cathy Glosser.
          Α
               You discussed that with Cathy?
10
11
          Α
               Yes.
12
               Now, Ms. Glosser testifies -- I asked Ms. Glosser the 13 following question on deposition and she gave the following 14 Question -- and now I'm reading from -- answer.
                   THE COURT: Wait a second.
                   MR. ITKOWITZ: Page 71.
17
                   THE COURT: Come up on that.
18
                   MR. ITKOWITZ: You know what, let me just shorten it.
20
               Do you recall telling Cathy Glosser to see that ALM --
               What?
21
          Α
               Do you recall telling Cathy Glosser to make sure ALM
22
23 got paid?
24
          Α
               Got a payment, yes.
25
               Just one payment?
26
          Α
               Yes.

Ross - Plaintiff - Direct - (Mr. Itkowitz) 1 2 Q You told her to make one payment? 3 Α I only knew she was making one payment. 4 0 How much was that payment that you told her to make? My recollection is somewhere in six, seven thousand 5 Α 6 dollars. So your testimony is that you told Cathy Glosser to 7 0 make one payment of six or seven thousand dollars in connection 8 with ALM bringing PVH to the table to make this multi-million 9 10 dollar deal with Donald Trump; is that your testimony? 11 Α My testimony is that I --12 Is that your testimony, yes or no? Q 13 THE COURT: Yes or no? 14 Α Yes. 15 0 And you authorized no other payments? That's correct. 16 Α Did you ever put that instruction in writing? 17 Q 18 Α No. With the earlier e-mails I showed you when Jeff Danzer 19 sent an invoice, did you ever look at the invoice that he sent? 20 21 Α No. Is it not a fact that you directed Cathy Glosser to 2.2 send royalty statements to ALM? 23 24 I don't recall. You don't recall. So if Cathy Glosser testified that 25 0 you directed her to do that, you're not quarreling with that, 26

Ross - Plaintiff - Direct - (Mr. Itkowitz) 1 2 correct? 3 No, I'm not quarreling with that. Α 4 0 And you knew, did you not, that the royalty statements would be used to invoice Trump, correct? 5 I didn't know that. Α You have no idea about that? 7 0 I didn't know that. Α And you had no idea of that? 9 Q 10 Α I had no idea royalty statements were going to be used to make a payment to ALM. 11 12 Now -- hold on a second. Did you ever confirm --13 withdrawn. Did you ever tell -- did you ever confirm to Cathy 14 15 Glosser that ALM should be paid ten percent? 16 Α Never. So if Cathy Glosser testified to that, she's lying? 17 18 Α No, that's not true. Well, are you aware of the fact that Cathy Glosser has 19 20 testified to the fact that George confirmed to her that they should be paid ten percent? 21 Could be ten percent on the first payment. That's how 2.2 it was arrived at, yes, but not forever. 23 24 So your testimony is that ALM, you authorized her and 25 confirmed to her, that they should be paid ten percent on the first payment and that's it? 26

Ross - Plaintiff - Direct - (Mr. Itkowitz)
          Α
               No, I agreed --
               Yes or no?
          Α
               They could be -- it's not ten percent. I agreed on an amount.
               I ask that the question be read back to the witness.
                   THE COURT: Please read it back.
                   (Whereupon, the last question was read back by
          the court reporter.)
10
                   THE COURT: Yes or no?
11
          Α
               No.
12
               Well, Cathy Glosser testified that you confirmed to her that ALM should be paid ten percent and she, upon that 13 confirmation from you, she went to accounting and told 14
      accounting that they should be paid ten percent.
               Did you ever learn that?
               That's her testimony. The answer is yes.
17
18
               And you're not disagreeing with her testimony, right?
               No, not at all.
20
               So if Cathy Glosser testified that she understood, on the basis of conversations with you, that ALM was to be paid ten 21 percent of royalties on a continuing basis, you're not arguing 22
      with that either?
24
                   MR. GOLDMAN: Objection, that's not what the 25 testimony was.
                   THE COURT: Well, if you're going to quote

1 Ross - Plaintiff - Direct - (Mr. Itkowitz) testimony, quote from the trial record. 2 MR. ITKOWITZ: The record will reflect what the 3 4 testimony is. THE COURT: Come up. 5 (Whereupon, an off-the-record discussion was held 7 at the bench among the Court and counsel.) Now, sir, in order for a check to be issued by Trump, a 8 process has to be set up, correct? 9 10 Α Yes. 11 And that process would include setting up a vendor 12 account, correct? 13 Yes. 14 And after a vendor account is set up, when an invoice 0 15 comes in it gets approved by a person in authority at the Trump Organization, correct? 16 17 Α Yes. 18 0 And so if after July or September or October of 2005 ALM every single quarter for 11 consecutive quarters sent an 19 20 invoice for commission based upon royalties, that would have had to go through the accounting department, correct? 21 Α 2.2 Yes. 23 And before any such check would be issued, it would 24 have to be approved by somebody in authority at the Trump 25 Organization, correct?

That's correct.

Ross - Plaintiff - Direct - (Mr. Itkowitz) 1 2 Q And Cathy Glosser was a person with such authority, 3 correct? 4 Α Yes. 5 And Cathy Glosser testified -- withdrawn. Q Ordinarily -- withdrawn. 7 In order for accounting to set up a vendor account to approve invoices, accounting would have to get appropriate 8 documentation from somebody in the Trump Organization that it's 9 okay, right? 10 11 I would assume so. I don't know how accounting handles 12 it in detail. 13 Well, you've been in the Trump Organization for how 14 many years? 15 Α Seventeen. Is it your understanding that checks on a regular basis 16 0 get issued by the accounting department without authorization 17 18 from somebody in authority? No, always gets authorized. Always gets authorized. 19 20 And you would have had that authority and Cathy would 0 have had that authority, correct? 21 I would have had the authority. Cathy would have had 2.2 the authority as far as ALM was concerned, yes. 23 24 And now, Cathy Glosser testified in deposition that you 25 authorized for a vendor account to be set up?

MR. GOLDMAN: I'm going to object. We need the 16	MR. WILTENBURG: The Court has two.

17	THE COURT: I have a copy here.
18	MR. ITKOWITZ: All right.
19	THE COURT: This is what you're talking about, the
20	deposition?
21	MR. ITKOWITZ: Yes, deposition of Cathy Glosser.
22	THE COURT: Okay. You want the witness to look at

4	MR. GOLDMAN: Okay.
5	BY MR. ITKOWITZ:
6	Q So Kathy Glosser testified to the following. I'm
7	going to ask you I'm going to read it to you and ask you
8	if you remember it or if you don't remember it. Not the
9	testimony but what she's stating, okay? Do you understand?
10	A I think so.
11	Q 194, line 22:
12	"Q So you knew at that time that ALM was
13	expecting 10 percent, correct?
14	"A I knew ALM was expecting 10 percent.
15	"Q And you knew and George knew that, correct?
16	You discussed that with George?
17	"THE WITNESS: Yes.
18	"Q What?
19	"A Yes.
20	"Q So George knew they were expecting
21	10 percent, correct?
22	"A I believe so, yes."
23	Q And when George knew they were expecting
24	10 percent, George told you pay them, notwithstanding that I
25	don't have a signed document here, correct?
26	THE COURT: That's not what it says.

2	Notwithstanding that I don't I'm sorry, it does say
3	that.
4	BY MR. ITKOWITZ:
5	"Q Notwithstanding that I don't have a signed
6	document here, correct?
7	"A George said they would do something.
8	"Q Did George say pay them; yes or no?
9	"A He said pay them.
10	"Q And pay them meant 10 percent, correct?
11	"A At that time it did mean 10 percent."
12	Do you disagree with that?
13	A No.
14	Q Okay, skipping ahead now.
15	(Pause.)
16	Q Now, there came a time in 2008 when Mr. Trump
17	inquired about payments to ALM; is that correct?
18	A That's correct.
19	Q And Mr. Trump said don't pay them anymore,
20	correct?
21	A Yes, that's basically correct.
22	Q Now, when that happened, you wrote an e-mail,
23	which is Exhibit 49.
24	Now, you wrote the following e-mail excuse
25	me.
26	What happened was that Mark Hager wrote you
	Donna Evans, Official Court Reporter

Ross - by Plaintiff - Direct an e-mail on June 25, 2008.

THE COURT: That's on the second page. At the bottom of the first.

- Q It says, Hi, George, please let me know ASAP when we should expect your payment for commission due for Trump royalties from PVH for period 0108. By that 0108 he was referring to the first order of '08, correct?
 - A Yes, I assume so.

Q And you wrote back to him, Mark, I've been in contact -- the next e-mail starting June 25th at 2008 at 12:13, you wrote back to him, Mark, I've been in contact with Jeff, I think that the payments which you received were paid in error. I had told Jeff that you were entitled to some reasonable compensation for whatever you did in connection with the PVH but I never agreed to a percentage forever. Until Jeff can show me something from the Trump Organization agreeing to the deal he claims was made we will not make any further payments, George.

Then Mark Hager wrote back, George, we have provided to you the documentation that shows the agreement of the Trump Organization to pay the royalty payment for the term of the license with PVH, the course of conduct between the parties underscores that agreement. You're after the fact claim that prior payment was made in error is unbecoming. We expect the Trump Org we will abide by it's agreement, we will strongly urge you to reconsider and pay us at once.

You wrote back: Mark, on August 25th, 2004 -- when you wrote back on June 30th, by the way, at the top. On August 25th, 2004 Jeff sent me an e-mail referring to his prior e-mail setting forth what he called a new deal with ALM. He asked me to sign this new deal and fax it back to him. If you will send me something with my signature of some other authorized signatory for the Trump Organization agreeing to those terms that will end the matter. recollection is that I never agreed to a flat 10 percent but told Jeff that he was entitled to some reasonable payment for his participation in the PVH transaction. Any dealings after August 25th were with Kathy Glosser, who Jeff led to believe that I had agreed to the 10 percent, and she authorized payments based on that erroneous assumption. This entire situation came to light when Donald Trump questioned the payments to you and thought they were exorbitant. When I learned that you have been paid almost 300,000 to date I agreed with Donald.

Now, this e-mail that you wrote was not correct, was it?

- A That's not -- that's not the end of the e-mail.
- Q You want me to read the end?
- A Yeah, read the end.

1	Ross - by Plaintiff - Direct
2	Q Okay.
3	I think a Judge would apply the theory of
4	quantum meruit and reduce the amount you received
5	accordingly. We will no longer pay you 10 percent of all
6	monies received from PVH, but I am willing to discuss any
7	suggestions you have to resolve this dispute, George.
8	Now, you say you never agreed to a flat
9	10 percent and that Kathy Glosser acted on some kind of
LO	erroneous understanding that she received from Jeff Danzer.
L1	Is that correct?
L2	A That's correct.
L3	Q That's not true, is it?
L 4	A What's not true, that she
L5	Q That she paid out this money because of what Jeff
L6	Danzer told her?
L7	A Well, Jeff Danzer told her we had a deal
L8	Q Excuse me, I'm asking you a question that calls
L9	for a yes or no answer. Please respectfully answer yes or
20	no.
21	A What's the question, please.
22	MR. ITKOWITZ: Can I have it read back?
23	THE COURT: Please read it back.
24	(Record read.)
25	BY MR. ITKOWITZ:
26	Q Yes or no?
	Donna Evans, Official Court Reporter

Ross - by Plaintiff - Direct 1 Yes. 2 Α 3 Q But that's not correct, is it? 4 That she paid out the money because of -- because Α 5 of what Jeff told her? 6 Q You wrote in this letter or this e-mail in June of 7 2008, you're writing to Mr. Hager, you're saying this was all a big mistake, Jeff convinced Kathy Glosser to send this 8 9 money and it was sent out by mistake? Α 10 Yes. That's what you wrote, correct? 11 Q 12 Α Yes. 13 0 But that's not true, is it? 14 Α No, it is true. 15 It is true. Q 16 I thought you just said in your earlier testimony, the record will reflect it, that Kathy Glosser 17 18 got authorization to pay this money based upon directions 19 from you? 20 Α To pay -- make one payment, yes. 21 Q Oh, to make one payment? 22 Yes. Α 23 So she completely misunderstood what you said, 24 correct? I don't know how completely. She misunderstood 25 Α 26 it. Donna Evans, Official Court Reporter

- Q If you authorized one payment and she made 11 payments, she either misunderstood or disobeyed what you told her?
 - A She never disobeyed. She misunderstood.
 - Q She misunderstood.

So in other words, it's your testimony, you're telling the members of this jury that you authorized one payment of approximately $6,000 for this multi-million dollar deal to ALM and that you directed Kathy Glosser to go to accounting and set up a vendor account for a one time payment of $6,000; is that what you're telling us?

- A No, set up a vendor account not for the one time payment.
- Q So you set up a vendor account and she's going to do all that trouble for one payment that you authorized correct? That's your testimony?
 - A For one payment -- the answer is yes.
- Q So in order to do that, she's testified she had to go to the controller, set up a vendor account, get a tax ID number sent for one $6,000 payment?
 - A She set up the account.
- Q And your testimony is that if Kathy Glosser continued to approve checks she was completely acting on her own without your approval?
 - A That's correct.

Q Now, going back to the e-mail, preceding one on Exhibit 49, where you say I think the payments which you received were paid in error. And then you said I had told Jeff that you were entitled to some reasonable compensation for whatever you did in connection with PVH but I never agreed to a percentage forever. Let's focus on I never agreed to a percentage forever. Okay?

It's not uncommon in licensing when somebody brings -- puts together a license for them to get a commission as long as the agreement is in effect; is that unusual?

A I had no knowledge at that point, this is the first license agreement I ever did.

Q So this is the first licensing agreement you ever did so, therefore, it seems odd -- it seemed odd to you as you were writing this letter -- this e-mail four years later, it seemed odd to you that somebody would have an expectation that they would continue to get commissions for the life of the agreement, correct?

A He could have whatever expectation he wanted.

Q So let's go to the memorandum of understanding. That memorandum of understanding, which was agreed to by Mr. Trump prior to your involvement, that was dated September 25th, 2003, correct?

A Correct.

Q And that particular agreement said:

Hold on a second.

Turn to paragraph 3 of that agreement which is on page 3?

THE COURT: What was that? What number?

of Exhibit 1.

Q I would direct your attention to the second sentence and ask you if this original memorandum of understanding provides for commissions to be paid during the course of any renewal; yes or no?

A Yes.

Q So the original agreement that Mr. Trump executed in 2003 provided for any renewals it provided for commission to be paid. Correct, yes or no?

A Yes.

Q Now, fast forward to June of 2004. You're in the process -- you have that June 24 meeting and you reach the essential elements of a transaction with PVH. You know, A, that that agreement is not going to meet the threshold set forth for the original memo of understanding. You know that Mr. Trump is -- you and Mr. Trump are going to want to negotiate downward the 22.5 percent commission provision in there. So clearly negotiations were going to follow before a deal got done as to some of the terms of the original

Ross - by Plaintiff - Direct 1 memorandum of understanding, correct? 2 3 MR. GOLDMAN: Objection to the form, it's a compound question. 4 5 THE COURT: I'll allow it. 6 If you understand the question, answer it. 7 You've got to read back the question, it was a Α long question. 8 9 THE COURT: Read back the question. 10 (Record read.) Yes or --11 Q 12 Α Yes. 13 And then fast forwarding after that. So when 14 Mr. Danzer wrote to you on August 23rd, August 25th and 15 August 30th and reiterated that he had reached an agreement 16 with you that the commission was going to be reduced to 10 percent, to any deal brought to the table, and that it 17 18 would include any renewals, the any renewals portion was not 19 a foreign concept, was it? 20 Α No. The any renewals was just a reiteration of what 21 22 was in the memorandum of understanding, correct? 23 That's correct. 24 So when you wrote that you never agreed to a 25 percentage forever, you weren't being entirely accurate, 26 were you?

Ross - by Plaintiff - Direct 1 2 Oh, I was being entirely accurate. 3 You made it sound like the idea of agreeing to a percentage forever was somewhat absurd? 4 5 Α Yes. 6 Q But how absurd could it have been if it was in the 7 original memorandum of understanding signed by Mr. Trump himself? 8 9 Α Because the original understanding, there was a threshold that had to be met, if the threshold was met then 10 you covered it. The threshold here wasn't met. 11 12 obviously didn't comply with the threshold, so therefore 13 another deal had to be struck as to what would be paid. 14 So in other words, what you're saying, if you met 15 the 25 million threshold and you had a 22.5 percent 16 commission, the 22.5 percent commission would go on forever. 17 That's okay, right? 18 Α It would go on during the terms of the renewal, 19 not forever. 20 Through each renewal? 0 But that's not forever. And it assumes --21 Α 22 Nothing is forever, correct? Q 23 Nothing is forever. 24 When we say forever, we're talking in context in 25 terms of the original memo of understanding, if you got 26 25 million, and you got 22.5 percent commission, the

2	22.5 percent commission would go on for each and every
3	renewal that followed the original agreement. That's what
4	it said, correct?
5	A Assuming that you met the threshold, yes.
6	Q So now, there's a renegotiation because they're
7	not going to meet the threshold?
8	THE COURT: Look at the time. We're going to
9	have to pick this up after lunch.
LO	MR. ITKOWITZ: Okay.
L1	THE COURT: Jurors, I'd like you to have a

THE COURT: Anything before we start? 7 MR. GOLDMAN: Can we approach for a second? THE COURT: Yes, Mr. Goldman. (Whereupon, an off-the-record discussion was held 10 at the bench among the Court and counsel.) 11 (Whereupon, the witness resumes the stand.) 12 (Whereupon, the jury enters the courtroom and the 13 following transpired:) THE COURT: Good afternoon, jurors. Please be 14 15 seated, and we are continuing Mr. Itkowitz's examination of Mr. Ross. 16 THE COURT: Go ahead, Mr. Itkowitz. 17 18 CONTINUED DIRECT EXAMINATION BY MR. ITKOWITZ: 19 20 Mr. Ross, before the break we were talking about certain changes that needed to be made in the memorandum of 21 understanding or amendment that needed to be made in the 2.2 23 memorandum of understanding. One, we agreed that the threshold 24 wasn't going to be made by the PVH deal; and so basically since the threshold wasn't going to be made, there was going to be a renegotiation of certain terms to amend the original agreement;

Ross - Plaintiff - Direct (Mr. Itkowitz) 1 2 isn't that correct? 3 That's the way -- your characterization, I can't say it 4 was correct, no. 5 Okay. All right. Basically, the memorandum of Q 6 understanding called for a 22 and a half percent commission, 7 correct? That's correct. Α And it called for a 22 and a half percent commission 9 Q 10 based upon a $25 million contract over seven years, correct? 11 Correct, for seven years. Α 12 So 25 million threshold was not going to be made by the 13 PVH deal? 14 Α Correct. 15 THE COURT: Please speak up. You wanted to do the PVH deal? 16 0 Α Yes. 17 18 O And ALM wanted to do the PVH deal, correct? Of course. 19 Α 20 All right. And so in order for ALM to get a Q 21 commission, that threshold provision had to be amended, correct? No. Under the threshold provision you're entitled to 2.2 23 nothing. 24 Right. And we can agree that ALM was not in it to work 25 for nothing, correct? 26 Α We can agree to that.

1 Ross - Plaintiff - Direct (Mr. Itkowitz)

Q So ALM needed to amend that provision that was contained in the memorandum of understanding in order for ALM to get paid, correct?

A No. When you say amended, at that point that agreement is gone. That agreement was never going to be in existence and they were never going to get paid anything under that agreement, because they were entitled to nothing.

MR. ITKOWITZ: I move to strike that. All that answer is unresponsive to my question, which called for a yes or no.

THE COURT: I want to hear the question again.

(Whereupon, the last question was read back by the court reporter.)

THE COURT: I'm going to allow it in.

- Q All right. The other thing that needed -- well, whether you call it an amendment or a change, you needed to change the agreement or have a different agreement, correct?
 - A A different agreement is correct.
 - O Let's call it a different agreement.

And the other requirement -- so you weren't going to pay a 22 and a half percent commission if the deal wasn't going to be 25 million, correct?

- A No. That's correct, we weren't paying a commission.
- Q And it was your testimony you would have been happy to pay a 22 and a half percent commission for every renewal for a

2 $25 million deal?

- A No, never willing to pay. Never was not a deal that we were going to pay that. They never performed and they would not be entitled to it unless they did perform.
- Q Sir, I just asked you this question. I asked you would you have been happy to pay a 22 and a half percent commission on a deal that netted 25 million, as provided for in the memorandum of understanding, for every renewal that occurred thereafter; would you have been happy with that?
 - A I don't think we'd have been happy, we'd have done it.
- Q Now, the other thing that needed to be changed is was the fact that the deal wasn't going to get done at the end of June, correct?
- A When you say changed, we knew the deal wasn't going to be done by the end of June.
- Q Right. In fact, in August you knew the deal was not likely to get finished or might not get finished before the end of September, correct?
 - A That's correct.
- Q But you wanted the deal to get done and ALM wanted to get the deal done, correct?
- 23 A Yes.
- Q Now, you stated that when Cathy Glosser came to you in August of 2005 that you told her you approved one check,

Ross - Plaintiff - Direct (Mr. Itkowitz) giving the following answers:

2.2

"QUESTION: So it's your testimony that at no point in August of 2005 did Cathy Glosser discuss with you what ALM was entitled to receive?

"ANSWER: No. She may have discussed with me at this time that ALM was going to get some money somewhere along the line, which I agreed to, but certainly not on the basis of ten percent.

"QUESTION: In other words, your testimony is she did not come to you and speak to you and ask you whether ALM was entitled to ten percent of the license fee?

"ANSWER: She may have asked me at that point, and I said early on, before this one, that the answer was no. When he wrote the memorandum to her on August 9th, at that point she believed what he wrote. He said the deal was ten percent, and we agreed to it. She trusted him. He lied. He lied.

"QUESTION: She didn't have a discussion with you?

"ANSWER: He lied. If she told me before she sent out the check, he never would have gotten the first check.

"QUESTION: So, in other words, just to make it very plain and simple, in August of 2005 Cathy Glosser did not have a discussion with you about what ALM was entitled to as a result of the PVH deal in August of 2005?

"ANSWER: I don't recall whether she had a discussion or not.

1 Ross - Plaintiff - Direct (Mr. Itkowitz) "OUESTION: Excuse me? 2 "ANSWER: I don't recall whether she had a discussion 3 4 or not. All I know --5 "QUESTION: With you? "ANSWER: With me, I don't know. If in fact --"QUESTION: I'm not asking you to speculate. If you 7 don't recall, you don't recall. 8 "ANSWER: I don't recall. "QUESTION: If you do recall, I'm happy to have your 10 11 recollection. I don't want your speculation. 12 "ANSWER: I understand. I don't recall." Did you give those answers to those questions? 13 14 Α Yes. 15 0 Okay. Now, let's turn back to August of 2004 where Jeffrey Danzer sent you those e-mails on August 23rd, August 16 17 25th and August 30th outlining what he said was an understanding 18 he reached with you. 19 You've already said that you never wrote him back? 20 Α That's correct. Now, you've previously testified in deposition, did you 21 Q not, that each time he wrote you those e-mails you called him up 2.2 23 and you said I don't agree with this characterization; is that 24 correct? 25 Α That's correct. And you recall I asked you on your deposition -- in 26 your deposition why you didn't write back to him, right; do you

3 recall that?

- A I don't recall, but you may have asked it.
- Q And do you recall stating words to the effect that you didn't write back to him because you thought that if you wrote back to him disputing his characterization of what the deal was that he made with you that he could kill the PVH deal; do you recall that?
 - A Absolutely. That's correct.
- Q So it's your testimony, and I want to understand this, it's your testimony that you thought that as you called him up on the telephone and said, Jeff, this is not the deal, I don't know where you're getting this, this is not the deal, that Jeff would go forth and make the deal happen; but if you put it in writing somehow that would disturb him so that he would go out and kill the deal? Is that your testimony?
- A No, that's -- again, you're characterizing it.

 Characterizing --
 - Q Excuse me, is that your testimony?
- A No.
- Q Did you not testify in the past that if you wrote him he could kill the deal?
- A He said he could kill the deal, yes.
 - Q No, but you -- when you testified you didn't say what he said he could do.

      these answers:
13
                   "QUESTION: Did it occur to you that you should write him a note whether it be" --
15
                   MR. GOLDMAN: That's not -- 16
                   THE COURT: Wait one second. Are you starting at line 12?
18
                   MR. ITKOWITZ: Yes, starting -- sorry about that.
               "QUESTION: Did it occur to you that you should write
20 something to him in e-mail or letter saying -- let me finish my 21 question. Did it occur to you that you should write him a note, whether it be e-mail or letter saying, you know what, you're not entitled to ten percent?
23
24
               "ANSWER: The answer is there was no question in my 25 mind that if I wrote that type of a letter he had the ability to kill or he indicated to me that he could kill the PVH deal; and therefore, I didn't want to kill the PVH deal because it was a good deal, and I thought it ought to be made. As to how much he's going to get paid, that's different.

1 Ross - Plaintiff - Direct (Mr. Itkowitz)

So rather than entering into e-mails back and forth saying yes, yes, sending self-serving e-mails every time I got one, I spoke to him. He asked me to sign, and I refused to, and I told him why. I said, Jeff, I'm not going to sign it at that point, we'll work out a deal later on, but I'm not paying you ten percent. Then he wrote me another one and the same thing; no, I'm not saying -- I am not saying the ten percent. I didn't want to put it in writing for the express purpose of later on that it might have created a situation where he would kill the PVH deal, and I thought he was devious enough to do that."

Now, it's your testimony, as you sit here now, that you're calling him up and telling him you're not going to pay him, that wasn't going to cause any reaction, but if you would have put it into writing, whoa, if you would have put it into writing then, of course, you risk the deal; is that what you are telling us?

A No, I never said I want going to pay him. I never said at this point we're going to pay him, but a reasonable amount.

Q You said in this testimony, you said that if you wrote back and disagreed with what he said, okay -- and, by the way, let's go back to what he said. He said basically three things in his e-mails to you. He said our deal is now ALM gets ten percent, ALM gets its percentage on the renewals, and we have on any deal it brings to the table.

That's what he wrote to you on September 23rd, September 25th and September 30th; isn't that correct?

THE COURT: Objection is going to be sustained, because what you have to do is you actually have to go with the exact language. I think that you have to do it exactly.

MR. ITKOWITZ: Okay. All right.

Q Let's read -- let me read to you what Jeff wrote to you. Jeff Danzer wrote to you on August 25, 2004, which is page two of Plaintiff's Exhibit 26.

"Dear George, I'm happy we've been able to come to terms regarding our deal as it pertains to bringing licensing deals to the Trump Organization. As we've agreed, ALM's fee for any introduction of a potential licensee partner to Donald Trump and/or any other entity associated with Donald Trump which evolves into a licensing deal and any subsequent renewal thereof shall be ten percent of all royalties or such other fees, i.e. advances, sign-on bonuses, marketing fees, et cetera, paid to Trump. ALM's fee shall be paid to ALM or any other entity it so chooses within 15 days from when Trump receives payment from the licensing partner."

He wrote that to you on August 25th, correct?

- A Correct.
- Q And he wrote the same thing to Cathy Glosser, which you

Ross - Plaintiff - Direct (Mr. Itkowitz) were copied on on August 23rd; is that correct?

- A Possibly. I don't recall the dates.
- Q All right. Well, the record will reflect that.

Just with respect to this, you didn't write back and contradict this e-mail because you've just testified, and you testified on deposition, that if you wrote back Jeff could have killed the deal and you were afraid he would kill the deal, correct?

A Correct.

- Q But it's your testimony that if you called him up and said the same things on the telephone, you didn't run that risk; is that what your testimony is?
- A The testimony is at this point that it didn't warrant a telephone call. It didn't warrant a writing. But the effective part that I told him when I made the telephone call was effectively we would work out a deal. He was entitled to get paid something, but we never agreed to the terms.
- Q He's writing you on August 25th. On August 26th you are going to have the penultimate meeting, Mr. Trump is going to be there, you're going to be there, the heads of PVH are going to be there, the deal is going to be finally put to bed in principle, if it wasn't already done so on June 24th, as you've previously testified.

So it's the day before this meeting, you're saying you called him up and you said I'm not agreeing to this, but you

Ross - Plaintiff - Cross (Mr. Goldman) 1 2 didn't put it in writing; is that what you're telling us? 3 Α Yes. 4 0 And your testimony is that if you put it in writing he could have killed the deal, but if you called him up you didn't 5 run that risk; is that what you're telling us? Yes or no? 7 that what you're telling us? Α 8 No. MR. ITKOWITZ: I have no further questions. THE COURT: All right, cross examine. 10 MR. GOLDMAN: I do have an extra witness exhibit 11 12 book for the witness of the exhibits of mine that are already in evidence. So if I can give you that. 13 THE COURT: No. I prefer that you do it one at a 14 15 time, because that way we have it as exhibits actually shown to the witness. 16 MR. GOLDMAN: All right. I'll give you a book. 17 18 THE COURT: Okay, that's fine. MR. GOLDMAN: Your Honor, I believe I may have a 19 20 book already. I have a book and I'll give the witness a book, and I can just go to tab C and we'll do it one at a 21 time. 2.2 23 THE COURT: No, I want it given out. All right. 24 MR. GOLDMAN: No problem. 25 CROSS-EXAMINATION BY MR. GOLDMAN: 26

- Q Mr. Ross.
- A Yes.

2.2

- Q I'd like to take you back to early 2004. Do you recall any conversations with Mr. Danzer in early 2004?
 - A Yes.
- Q And do you recall how it came to be that you even got to speak to Mr. Danzer?
 - A Yes.
 - Q Okay. Tell us how it came to be?
- A He, Jeff Danzer, called me, okay, and indicated that he had found out in the trade that Mr. Trump was planning on doing the licensing himself and that this effectively constituted a breach of what he considered the exclusive license agreement where we would forestall -- effectively forestall their ability to make the commission that they thought they were entitled to under the agreement.
- Q Now, with respect to that statement by Mr. Danzer to you, do you recall approximately what month that was?
- A I don't recall the approximate -- it was -- no, I don't recall the approximate, but it was very early on.
- Q Now, what did you say to him in response to that statement?
- A No. In response to that statement I said, we never did anything or will do anything which violates the terms of the agreement. I said, they don't understand; in all the period of time you had, you didn't come up with one proposal, you didn't come up with one situation that was even rejected by Mr. Trump. Instead, you sat all this period of time, did absolutely nothing, and then all of a sudden when you find out or think that you say that you find out that now Mr. Trump is ready to do deals directly himself, all of a sudden there's a flurry of supposed activity.

- Q Now, with respect to that conversation, did Mr. Danzer agree or disagree with your statement that Mr. Trump was free to do his own deals?
 - A He never disagreed with it at all.
- Q Now, what was Mr. Danzer's response to your statement that he hadn't done anything in months?
- A Well, his response was made a lot of excuses and said they were working very hard. That's what he said. I didn't know that, nor there weren't any deals that came up, but he said he was working very, very hard in doing it, and he was really being frustrated by what was going on, he said, in the industry.
- Q Okay. Now, when you say or when you said you told Mr. Danzer that ALM wasn't doing anything, just can you explain what the basis for that statement was?
- A Yeah. The basis for the statement, very clear, when Mr. Trump was involved with doing a deal on his own, he said he remembered having some type of an agreement with ALM and asked me to look at the agreement, which I did. I looked at the agreement, which I had never prepared, and I looked at the extension and read it over; and then what came up when I heard from Mr. Danzer and asked him, I said, in all the period of time, I examined the entire file, there's not one evidence of something that you did that's constructive that Mr. Trump would be interested in.

Mr. Trump had the right to reject it if he wanted to. He never had an opportunity to look at it, because there was never anything. So I said, you got the agreement, it's got a short fuse, you did absolutely nothing, and I can't see ever working with you.

Q Now I'm going to show you Defendants O and P in evidence. Now, Defendant's O is a letter dated April 1, 2004 from you to Mr. Danzer and references the memorandum of understanding.

It says, "Dear Jeff, this will confirm that until June 30, 2004 ALM International Corp. is authorized to be the sole and exclusive licensing agent for Trump high quality apparel utilizing the Trump brand. We have no written agreement with any other party to perform a similar function." And then you signed your name to the letter.

Do you recall why you wrote that letter dated April 1, 2004?

- A Yes, I do.
- 26 Q Please tell us why.

A He told me -- Jeff told me that he couldn't get any credibility in dealing with any people in the industry unless he had some authorization to act; and that since they thought or learned what Mr. Trump was doing directly, they thought he didn't have the authorization. So they wanted to -- in order to get him in the door, he needed the authorization. And I wrote this letter saying he's got the authorization. This was his calling card.

- Q And this calling card came seven or eight months after the initial memorandum of understanding in September of 2003?
 - A Yes, absolutely.

Q Now, if you could look at Defendant's P in evidence. It's a letter dated April 5, 2004, a few days after the Defendant's O, addressed the same way, referencing the memorandum of understanding. And it says, Dear Jeff, in furtherance of my letter of April 1 -- April 1st, while we have had discussions with several parties concerning the licensing of the Trump name for High Quality Power this will confirm that said discussions have not been finalized now has any written agreement been executed.

Was that a truthful statement when you sent this letter to Mr. Danzer on April 5?

- A Absolutely.
- Q And why did you send this letter on April 5 after you had already sent the letter on April 1st?
- A Because Jeff said to me that he understood that there was another company that was going to make suits, and they were coming up with a sample line and they must have had a deal, and therefore they wouldn't do all of that work unless they had a written deal. And he didn't believe that they didn't have a written deal, and I said they don't. To clarify he was dealing with companies that manufactured suits, he wanted to bring in another company, I think

because they thought it was a competitor. I wrote to clarify, I wrote, no, we don't have a written agreement with anybody. And it was truthful.

Q Now, in April, from the point of time of April 5, 2004 through April 30 of 2004, did you get any proposals from -- I'm going to use Mr. Danzer as a representative of ALM, from Mr. Danzer?

A No.

Q Now, let's turn to May of 2004.

MR. GOLDMAN: If I can show the witness Defendant's Q in evidence.

Q Now, this is a letter from you to Mr. Danzer dated May 27, 2004. It says: Dear Jeff, please let this letter serve to represent that Mark Burnett's wife has absolutely nothing to do with licensing for Mr. Trump or the Trump brand. Your letter was the first we ever heard of such a situation. As you may not be aware Mark Burnett was recently divorced and is currently not married. Mr. Trump does not even know Mr. Burnett's ex wife.

Before I read the rest of the letter, can you tell the Court and the jury what prompted you to write this to Mr. Danzer on May 27th of 2004?

A Probably Mr. Danzer said to me that as part of the Donna Evans, Official Court Reporter everything going on in the industry, that Mark Burnett's wife also had some inside track to get the license -- to get licensing agreements and that this was -- he didn't believe what I wrote in the prior letter, what we discussed that we hadn't done with anybody else. This was evidence, he said, what you said is not basically true, Mark Burnett's wife is making statements.

Q Did you believe Mr. Danzer when he told you that?

MR. ITKOWITZ: Objection.

THE COURT: I'll allow it.

- A Did I believe what he told me that --
- Q That he could not get other deals done because of Mark Burnett?

A Not at all. Now, I'm going to read the second paragraph that you have in front of you that's Q in evidence.

As far as other manufacturers or distributors of the clothing, they are calling us all the time, but we will have no interest in pursuing any of these deals until after your license expires on June 30, 2004.

- Q Now, that's the June 30, 2004 exclusive period that was in the signed writings?
 - A Yes.
- Q And it's your understanding from having read it that if they brought you somebody by June 30, but the deal Donna Evans, Official Court Reporter

1	Ross - by Plaintiff - Cross
2	was not finalized by the end of the tail, which would be
3	September 30, that they would get they being ALM, would
4	get no commission?
5	A Nothing at all.
6	Q Next paragraph: I have not heard anything
7	concrete from you and are somewhat disappointed that you
8	have not been able to obtain any definitive proposal during
9	your option period. However, you still have one month to go
LO	and I hope you are able to bring us someone with a sincere
L1	proposal which we will find acceptable to make a deal with
L2	you.
L3	Now, when you mentioned the one month, was
L4	that the June 30 date that you were talking about?
L5	A Yes.
L6	Q Then in your last sentence you say: Again, and
L7	sadly, you have not produced anything of real value to date.
L8	Do you recall writing that letter?
L9	A Absolutely.
20	Q And as of May 27, 2004, had you you or
21	Mr. Trump received any proposal from anybody?
22	A No.
23	Q Now, there came a time in
24	MR. GOLDMAN: Withdraw that for a second.
25	If I can see I believe it's Exhibit 23.
26	(Pause.)
	Donna Evans, Official Court Reporter

Ross - by Plaintiff - Cross 1 2 MR. GOLDMAN: Hold on a second, I may be 3 mistaken. (Pause.) 4 5 MR. GOLDMAN: Eighty-eight. I apologize. 6 Eighty-eight. 7 THE COURT: Eighty-eight. BY MR. GOLDMAN: 8 9 Do you want to take a moment to look at it? 0 10 Α Yes. Just tell me when you're ready, Mr. Ross. 11 Q 12 (Pause.)? 13 Α Okay. 14 0 You've read it? 15 Α Yes. 16 Q Now, let me read the first paragraph to you from Mr. Danzer on June 8 of 2004. Dear George, thank you for 17 18 your letter clarifying the situation with Mark Burnett's ex 19 wife. I have passed this information along to Ken Wyse at 20 Phillips Van Heusen and continue to push for their proposal. 21 Now, in that sentence the letter they are 22 talking about is your May 27, 2004 letter? 23 Α Yes. He goes on to say: To address the other points in 24 25 your letter, I am also extremely disappointed in the lack of 26 results from me and ALM pertaining to this project. As you Donna Evans, Official Court Reporter

1	Ross - by Plaintiff - Cross
2	know, I have been working diligently with Mark Hager at ALM
3	to bring deals to the table for Trump Apparel.
4	Let me take that sentence: As you know, I
5	have been working diligently with
6	MR. ITKOWITZ: Objection. He just read it.
7	He's going to read it again?
8	THE COURT: He's going to ask a question
9	about it.
-0	I'll allow it.
.1	Q Did you know that Mr. Danzer has been working
.2	diligently to bring deals to the table?
.3	A No. No, absolutely not.
.4	Q He then goes on to say: We got close several
.5	times only to be turned down and disappointed by the
.6	companies we were so certain would come to the table with
.7	viable proposals.
.8	Were you aware prior to receiving this lette:
9	how close and how viable any proposal was that Mr. Danzer
20	had ever gotten?
21	A No. There were no deals that I know of that got
22	close or even proposed.
23	Q Now, he's going to go on to explain and he put
24	it in all caps: WHY we have been unable to do so.
25	Does he say in the letter that he believes,
26	through the industry, what I'll quote, word and deed, close

1	Ross - by Plaintiff - Cross
2	quote, that there was some deal promised to Marcraft. Do
3	you see where he says that?
4	A Yes.
5	Q As of June 8, 2004, was any deal promised to
6	Marcraft?
7	A No.
8	Q Were there discussions with Marcraft?
9	A Yes.
10	Q And under the signed memorandum of understanding
11	and under the signed extension of memorandum of
12	understanding, was Donald free to do his own deals?
13	A Absolutely.
14	Q Now, at some point in time, did you enter into a
15	contract with Marcraft?
16	A Yes. With PVH.
17	Q No, with Marcraft, did you enter into a contract
18	with Marcraft for suits?
19	A Yes, I'm sorry.
20	Q And were you shown samples of the suits before you
21	ever entered into that contract?
22	MR. ITKOWITZ: I'm going to object on
23	relevancy. It has nothing to do with the direct, it's
24	way beyond the scope.
25	THE COURT: Come up.
26	Give me an offer of proof on this.
	Donna Evans, Official Court Reporter

MR. GOLDMAN: Okay.

(Whereupon, there's a sidebar discussion off the record, out of the hearing of the jury.)

THE COURT: Let me have you in the back, please.

(The following was heard in the robing room.)

THE COURT: Let me have an offer on this.

MR. GOLDMAN: Sure.

nothing but excuses, number one, from Mr. Danzer.

Number two, that there were no deals being done and Mr. Danzer's response is, the reason I have not been able to do any deals for you is because of, I'll call it the Marcraft issue. And there are writings in evidence. This document is already in evidence that speaks to, at least as of June 8th, this allegation that they or ALM and Danzer have been unable to do anything effectively by virtue of that.

I believe Mr. Danzer will testify -- I'm sorry, Mr. Ross will testify, and it is part of my case, that based upon their perception of the work that ALM had done, ALM/Danzer had done, there is no way that they were going to enter into what has been characterized as an August 23 modification that is not PVH specific, and that only refers to any deal that they ever bring at 10 percent with no termination period. That is a component of what I will be arguing to the jury as to why they never would have agreed to what it is that he is proposing, which is a general modification of the signed writing.

MR. ITKOWITZ: Your Honor, with all due respect, not only is it way outside of the direct case, but this kind of inquiry is just -- only serves to prolong unnecessarily the trial. Because --

MR. GOLDMAN: That's a pot.

MR. ITKOWITZ: Wait a second, because now he is going to talk -- he wants to talk about Marcraft, now my client is going to want to talk, I can guarantee, my client is back there, he'll say start talking about Peerless.

THE COURT: Look, the point he's trying to make is this, all right? He's trying to make that because of the relationship that Danzer had with Ross, that Ross would never have entered into a general contract with Danzer. In other words, the idea that nothing would be in writing or would have been verbal or something like that, that goes out the window when there was so much previous problems with the relationship. That's what he's trying to prove.

MR. ITKOWITZ: I understand that, but you Donna Evans, Official Court Reporter

know also, the evidence is in the case that there were two deals cooking in August, one was Coty and one was PVH. Now, if he wants to start talking about what a bad job we were doing with respect to other companies, he's opening the door for me to have my client and Jeff Danzer testify extensively about how Trump breached --was in breach of its agreement by pursuing Marcraft without involving us, and by refusing, by the way, to go with Peerless, who they ultimately did a deal with in 2012, who was the premiere suit maker, who my client could have brought a deal to. So we're going to go down this road now, and I don't think it's germane to the primary issue in this case, which is whether this deal got made.

MR. GOLDMAN: Just very briefly, on the issue of credibility it is all about what happened in August of 2004 and what one's motives would have been to either tell the truth or not tell the truth, number one.

Number two, a quote, a famous jurist, what happened with Peerless eight years later is of no consequence because Mr. Trump was free to do his own deals at any point in time, regardless. So you withdrew your claim for Marcraft on the eve of trial because you chose that it wasn't worthy of merit. That doesn't mean that Marcraft, with documents in evidence, goes out the door. You chose not to sue for it. you can make all hey you want, you're not suing for it. It goes to credibility.

THE COURT: The problem that you have -- the only problem I really see with this is, you say it goes to credibility but he is your witness. He was called by him, as is often done in civil cases as a hostile witness. He remains --

MR. GOLDMAN: Adverse, I prefer adverse. wasn't hostile. But he attacked his credibility, and I'm entitled not to wait days to rehabilitate his credibility. I have every right to examine him on credibility issues as to what he created.

THE COURT: But let me ask you this question. Like everything else is there is another way to skin this cat, and that is instead of getting into the Marcraft issue, is there another way that you could redo the same thing without getting into this letter and the next letter.

What I suggest I will do is MR. GOLDMAN: based upon -- what I would want -- rather than getting into details based upon what Mr. Danzer was saying to you about the Marcraft, was there an impression as to the truthfulness of that. I just need to get his

Ross - by Plaintiff - Cross 1 2 impression of Danzer's allegations concerning that and 3 what impact, if any, it had on his decision-making. That's all I want. 5 THE COURT: Let's limit it to that and for 6 that I'll allow it. 7 MR. GOLDMAN: Okay. 8 (The following was heard in open court.) 9 THE COURT: All right. Please continue. 10 MR. GOLDMAN: Thank you. Getting into -- you read that exhibit in evidence? 11 Q Yes. It's a letter of June 8. 12 Α 13 0 Right. 14 With respect to the allegations that 15 Mr. Danzer made regarding Marcraft, based upon what you knew 16 about Marcraft, what was your impression of Mr. Danzer's comments in this letter to you about Marcraft? 17 18 Α Well, my impression was that he was angling to get something from the Marcraft deal even though he was not the 19 20 party that made the deal, or the agent. Mr. Trump made it direct himself. We didn't have an outside agent. 21 22 indicated to me that Danzer was angling to get paid if the 23 Marcraft deal got made. 24 Q And the Marcraft deal did get made, did it not? 25 Α Yes, it did. 26 And isn't it true that Mr. Trump was sued for the Q

2	Marcraft deal, is it not?
3	A Is what?
4	Q Isn't it true that Mr. Trump was sued
5	THE COURT: That I'm going to sustain.
6	Q What he said about the Marcraft deal in this
7	letter, was it truthful or untruthful?
8	A It was untruthful.
9	Q He says in the letter, I quote: By definition,
10	the Trump Organization has no right to enter into or
11	initiate any deal, even in principal, during the exclusive
12	period to be effected and executed upon the expiration of
13	ALM's agreement on June 30, 2004.
14	Is that a truthful statement or untruthful
15	statement?
16	A It's an untruthful statement.
17	Q Now, in the third paragraph of this June 8, 2004
18	letter, Mr. Danzer writes: At our initial meeting on
19	March 24, you mention that the Trump Organization had lost
20	faith in ALM.
21	Is that a truthful statement?
22	A Oh, yes.
23	Q And he then goes on to say: And because of this
24	had, quote, taken matters into their own hands to secure a
25	deal for Trump Apparel, close quote.
26	Now, did you say, quote, taken matters into
	Donna Evans, Official Court Reporter

Ross - by Plaintiff - Cross

their own hands to secure a deal for Trump Apparel, close quote. Is that an exact quote, what was said?

A I don't know if it's exact by any means but the concept is there.

- Q Tell us, what is it that you had said?
- A I had said to him that there was nothing in the agreement that prohibited Mr. Trump from doing deals directly. He couldn't hire another agent but he could do it directly, and that is what the agreement didn't prohibit.
- Q There's another sentence in which he writes, quote -- on page 2, second line: The fact is ALM was working very hard to successfully live up to its end of the bargain while you believed that we were stagnating.

Let me take that sentence in two parts. Did you believe ALM and Jeff Danzer were stagnating?

A Yes.

- Q Were you aware or did you have any knowledge of the fact of how hard or successful -- or how hard that ALM was working?
- A I had no -- other than what they said, I had no knowledge that that was, in fact, true.
- Q Now, further on in that first paragraph in Mr. Danzer's June 8, 2004 letter, he writes: Unfortunately, when I wrote to you and asked for your assistance in the matter, my request was met with resistance. Yes, you did write the letters attesting to the fact that, quote, ALM was the exclusive licensing agent, close quote, for the deal, and that, quote, no deal had been agreed to or signed, quote, but you refused to work -- all cap -- WITH -- end, all cap -- me as requested in my letters to you and subsequent conversations with you in order to bring the best deal to Mr. Trump.

Did you at any point in time, through June 8 of 2004, refuse to work with Mr. Danzer on any potential deal?

A No.

Q He then says: Granted, you had no, quote, obligation to work with me, as you stated during one of our calls. However, I was most disappointed when you refused to meet with Ronnie Wurtzburger, the president of Peerless to allay his concerns and discuss the project.

It is truthful that you refused to meet with Peerless, is it not?

- A Yes, it's truthful.
- Q And isn't it truthful that you wanted a proposal before you would meet with Peerless?
- A That's true as to Peerless and any other prospective licensee.
- Q And isn't it true that Peerless didn't want to give you a proposal until you met with them first?

 Donna Evans, Official Court Reporter

A That's correct.

Q And then as Mr. Danzer writes, I'm quoting: Unfortunately there was a catch 22 that went nowhere.

That would be a fair statement with respect to Peerless?

- A Yeah, that's a fair statement.
- Q Did -- would it -- at some point in time after the June 8, 2004 letter, after you received that letter, and before the PVH meeting in the end of June, you and Mr. Danzer spoke?
 - A Yes.
- Q Did you speak about the letter that you had just gotten with respect -- the June 8 letter? Did you talk to him about the June 8 letter?
 - A Yes, absolutely, we talked about that.
- Q In some substance, can you tell us what you said to Mr. Danzer, having received the June 8, 2004 letter?
- A I already told him basically this is what he said he did. I don't have any evidence that he did. We don't have any proposals, I don't have any faith in his ability to deliver something, and my personal feeling, I told him, was that in my mind -- I didn't tell him this, but in my mind the purpose of the letter that he had was to set up a potential lawsuit for interference with his contract. That was in my mind.

Q Now, there did come a time that you met with PVH, you were asked questions about this on June 24, 2004, correct?

A Correct.

- Q And at that meeting Mr. Trump was not there. Is that correct?
 - A That's correct.
 - Q Putting aside for the moment -
 MR. GOLDMAN: Withdrawn.
- Q You did just mention that you didn't want to meet with Peerless unless they had given you a proposal, correct?
 - A Correct.
- Q Now, you did meet with PVH without a proposal. Is that correct?
- A That's correct.
 - Q Can you tell us why you met with PVH without a proposal but would not meet with Peerless unless you had a proposal?
 - A Yes, because Peerless was talking about men's suits and we were talking to Marcraft at the time, so I didn't think it was appropriate to start negotiations with Peerless if, in fact, we didn't have a proposal. PVH was there primarily for shirts and ties and they had the reputation, that was an entirely different transaction and we were interested in them.

Q At the June 24, 2004 PVH meeting, some of the -- I think you testified on direct that some of the terms were discussed that would lead to the PVH deal?

- A Yes. Loosely that's true.
- Q Now, ultimately -- and at the conclusion of that meeting, did you, within a week or a couple of weeks within June 24 to early July, did you get any proposals from PVH at that point?
- A I don't remember a proposal coming. There was a substantial delay until we did get a written proposal.
- Q Now, is it fair to say that the June 24 meeting with PVH was six days before the exclusive period under the signed writings was to expire, correct?
 - A Yes.

- Q And it was your understanding that having brought PVH in six days before, that had ALM ultimately satisfied the signed writings, the requirements of the signed writings over -- and over the next 30 days -- I'm sorry, over the next 90 days, through September, had there been a deal signed by the end of September they, ALM, would have gotten a fee?
 - A Yes.
- Q And the fee would have been whatever the signed contract was, which was 22.5 percent or -- on a 25 million minimum, et cetera?

A That's correct.

Q And I believe you testified in response to counsel's questions that they would be entitled to zero under the signed writings even if they brought PVH to the table before June 30, if the agreement was signed in November and still satisfied the acceptable license requirements they would get zero, because it wasn't by September 3rd?

 $$\operatorname{MR}.\ \mbox{ITKOWITZ:}\ \mbox{Objection, calls for speculation.}$

MR. GOLDMAN: No, it doesn't.

MR. ITKOWITZ: Yes, it does.

THE COURT: I'm going to sustain the objection. The question is too complex.

MR. GOLDMAN: I'll try to make it simpler.

Q Would it be fair to say under the agreement that you were questioned extensively by plaintiff's counsel this morning, under that agreement, had PVH -- PVH came to Mr. Trump on June 24, it ultimately got negotiated and a deal was signed on November 30, which is two months after the tail period, under the signed writings if the PVH agreement satisfied the acceptable license requirements but was after the tail period, would ALM be entitled to a fee?

MR. ITKOWITZ: Objection.

THE COURT: I'm going to sustain that Donna Evans, Official Court Reporter

1	Ross - by Plaintiff - Cross
2	objection.
3	MR. GOLDMAN: We'll go backwards.
4	Under what circumstances could ALM get a fee
5	under the signed writings?
6	A If they produced a proposal which met the
7	threshold questions.
8	Q What was the period between the exclusive period
9	and the tail period? What was to happen under that period
10	of time?
11	A Under that time you had to get a signed agreement
12	that was acceptable to Mr. Trump meeting those
13	qualifications.
14	Q And if there was no signed agreement during the
15	tail period, the signed agreement only occurred after the
16	tail period, if there was no signed agreement during the
17	tail period does ALM get a fee?
18	A No.
19	MR. ITKOWITZ: Objection.
20	MR. GOLDMAN: Can we approach so I don't get
21	interfered with, can we please approach?
22	THE COURT: That was an uncalled for remark.
23	If you want to approach just ask.
24	MR. GOLDMAN: May we approach?
25	THE COURT: Yes.
26	And Mr. Ross, every time they come up.
	Donna Evans, Official Court Reporter

(The following was heard in the robing room.)

MR. GOLDMAN: You permitted him to extensively examine this witness on the tail, what was required, if he'd be happy with 22.5. We spent time and time --

THE COURT: I agree with you.

MR. GOLDMAN: And notwithstanding my objection, which I believe was incredibly valid, that he improperly asked question after question about a merger clause that's not even in the agreement and that has nothing to do with this case. I'm simply now asking him questions about how ALM would be entitled to a fee under the agreement or not entitled to a fee under the agreement, and I am being objected to every time to that question. That's just not proper. I know why he wants to do that but I'm entitled to ask those questions, and it's not beyond the scope of direct in quotes, it's exactly what he did.

THE COURT: Yes, but you see your problem is this, okay? Your problem is that you're not really cross examining the witness, which is what you are doing, and there's been no objection so I've not said anything, but it is not really up to you to cross-examine this witness. You are to examine this witness. There's a very fine line but you have been doing only cross, only.

No objection so you get away with it, okay? So that's the problem. But the problem with what you're saying, how you're asking it is you're asking through this convoluted question, which is rather convoluted.

MR. GOLDMAN: The first one was I agree with you.

THE COURT: The second was a little less, but nevertheless it had its points. You're asking him in the end do you agree with me, and the answer is yes. And the point is the problem with that is that you're asking him for an opinion. Now, you objected to his asking for opinions and when he makes that objection I think that you're in trouble with that, too.

MR. GOLDMAN: Let me just say I did not ask him for his -- so the record is clear, at no time did I ask him do you agree with me, I said would this happen, would they get a fee, I didn't say isn't it true.

THE COURT: You're very suave as a lawyer, I have to congratulate you, but nevertheless, the bottom line to what you're doing is indeed an attempt to use this witness to have him interpret the language of that particular letter.

MR. GOLDMAN: The agreement, that's what he Donna Evans, Official Court Reporter did.

THE COURT: But you see the difference is, there is a difference here, and that is that this is your witness. This is not -- this is not an adverse witness, it is your witness. And as such you really should be conducting more of a direct examination, despite the fact that you're doing it on cross, I understand that. But you should be doing more of a direct examination, letting him form his opinions.

MR. GOLDMAN: I don't think any question was leading, all I said was if the agreement was signed after November 30 -- after September 30 are they entitled to a fee. The answer is I didn't put an answer into his mind. That couldn't be a more direct question, under the agreement are they entitled to a fee?

THE COURT: But I think the problem is that you have to say that in your opinion, because you see here's the problem, he is not -- he is not -- well, you pointed out to me he may be a lawyer but he's not an expert.

MR. GOLDMAN: Oh, expert on -- I don't think any lawyer is an expert on merger clauses.

MR. ITKOWITZ: What are you talking about, he's a real estate guy. I bet you every single deal he Donna Evans, Official Court Reporter does has a merger clause.

MR. GOLDMAN: It wasn't the issue, it's a folly.

MR. ITKOWITZ: May I be heard? Here's my problem with his line of questioning. I can tell you from experience that certain contractural clauses, while they may be on their face are not necessarily enforceable. In other words, take an option clause, you could have a lease that says very simply, I'm sure Mr. Goldman would understand this, you can have a lease that says you have to exercise an option by such and such a date or you lose it. You go to court, courts don't enforce that provision.

THE COURT: You don't know that.

MR. ITKOWITZ: I do know that.

MR. GOLDMAN: Come on.

MR. ITKOWITZ: Courts will give a liberal interpretation. So if he says -- I'm telling you if there was a 25 million-dollar fee, okay, and it got executed on November 30th, if there was a 25 million deal, 25 million-dollar deal, I think that would well be a litigated issue.

MR. GOLDMAN: I'm sure it would be with your client, yes.

MR. ITKOWITZ: With any client.

1	Ross - by Plaintiff - Cross
2	MR. GOLDMAN: Okay, that has nothing to do
3	with your question.
4	MR. ITKOWITZ: Then what would happen is a
5	Judge would decide. So you're asking him essentially
6	for a legal conclusion.
7	THE COURT: But he has the right to have
8	look he was indeed you did, so I think there is an
9	opening of the door. But I think you have
10	MR. GOLDMAN: I will ask direct questions.
11	I'm not going to ask leading questions. Let me just
12	say I do not think if an agreement was signed after the
13	tail period would they be entitled to a commission,
14	that's not leading, that's not putting an answer in
15	his it doesn't say do you agree with it, fair to
16	state that?
17	MR. ITKOWITZ: I'm going to go back
18	THE COURT: He's going to go back and
19	reoffer.
20	MR. ITKOWITZ: I'm trying to
21	MR. GOLDMAN: You're not trying to make
22	anything quicker here. Please. Please don't say that
23	again.
24	THE COURT: That is really outrageous. You
25	have been the slowest human being I've ever heard as a
26	litigant. Please.

Proceedings

2.2

THE COURT: Okay. What we are going to do right now is take a -- let's give it a ten-minute break for this afternoon. Please don't discuss the case amongst yourself. Keep an open mind. Ten minutes from now will make it -- well, not quite ten minutes. It's a nine-minute break, all right.

Don't discuss the case. Keep an open mind, please. I forgot to tell you that.

(Whereupon, the jury exits the courtroom and the following transpired:)

(Whereupon, a recess was taken.).

MR. GOLDMAN: Mr. Ross is not going to be able to be here tomorrow, because he has a doctor appointment. I'm not looking to waste time. I don't see any prejudice to take Mr. Trump out of turn.

THE COURT: Would that be okay? As long as status quo stays. Just because we're going to have Mr. Trump doesn't change the potential.

MR. GOLDMAN: I don't know how long the potential is going to be there for, but it won't change it between now and tomorrow.

THE COURT: Okay. I'm not going to telling that to the jury until tomorrow. I'm going to tell them we're continuing tomorrow, that's all.

MR. GOLDMAN: Okay. Mr. Ross, we're going to keep you in the status quo right now.

Proceedings

THE COURT: All right. Thank you, jurors. Please be seated. Jurors, there are occasions during the course of a trial that legal issues develop that require the judge to make legal decisions, and as I told you at the very beginning those decisions are always made outside the presence of the jury. And you may say, well, what's happened, why can't I know what's going on. Well, in fact, you can't, okay. So that's the end of that. That is what we were doing before I sent you out. We had these issues that we had to deal with.

So what I'm going to ask you tonight is to go home, rest up and guess what? Now, anybody have a cat? Anybody has a cat? Not one cat? You have a cat.

THE JUROR: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: I thought you have a dog, two dogs.

THE JUROR: I have two dogs and a cat.

THE COURT: A person after my own heart. But the cat is going to say to you tonight meow, meow, meow; isn't that what the cat says? What are you going to say to that cat? You're going to say to that cat, no, I can't tell you anything about it, because you made me promise I'm not going to tell you anything about it. Despite the fact that we had to wait for nothing this afternoon, I'm not even going to tell you that, okay.

1	Proceedings
2	So keep an open mind, please, and come back
3	tomorrow. We'll try to get started at 9:30. I'm working
4	tonight, so that's what I'm going to do. So, thanks again.
5	Open mind, don't talk about the case with anybody. Don't
6	forget.
7	(Whereupon, the jury exits the courtroom and the
8	following transpired:)
9	THE COURT: Okay. You may step down, Mr. Ross, and
10	good luck tomorrow. All right, let's go in the back.
