U.S. BANKRUPTCY COURT
DISTRICT OF NEW JERSEY

The Debtors and Debtors-in-Possession herein
(collectively the "Debtors") respectfully represent:

BACKGROUND:

1. On March 9, 1992 (the "petition date"), each of the Debtors filed a petition for reorganization under Chapter 11 of

5. Debtors believe it is in the best interest of the creditors and the Debtors for this Court to abstain from hearing personal injury claims. The Court in In re Republic Reader's Service, Inc., 81 B.R. 422 (Bankr. S.D. Texas 1987) set forth twelve factors to be considered by the Court in deciding whether to abstain from hearing a case. The Republic Reader's Court listed those factors as:

- 1) The effect or lack thereof on the efficient administration of the estate if a Court recommends abstention,
- 2) the extent to which state law issues predominate over bankruptcy issues,
- 3) the difficulty or unsettled nature of the applicable state law,
- 4) the presence of a related proceeding commenced in state court or other non-bankruptcy court,
- 5) the jurisdictional basis, if any, other than 28 U.S.C. Section 1334,
- 6) the degree of relatedness or remoteness of the proceeding to the main bankruptcy case,
- 7) the substance rather than the form of an asserted (core) proceeding,
- 8) the feasibility of severing state law claims from core bankruptcy matters to allow judgments to be entered in state court with enforcement left to the bankruptcy court,
- 9) the burden of [the bankruptcy court's docket],
- 10) the likelihood that the commencement of the proceeding in bankruptcy court involves forum shopping by one of the parties,
- 11) the existence of a right to jury trial,
- 12) the presence in the proceeding of non-debtor parties.

Id. at 429

Nearly all of the 12 factors cited in Republic Reader's, are applicable to this case. First, adversary proceedings relating to the personal injury claims will require an enormous amount of time and additional resources. The delay in resolving these disputes will greatly hinder the efficient administration of the estate. The personal injury claims involve issues dominated by state law rather than by bankruptcy law. Therefore, bankruptcy court is not the most expedient forum to hear such cases. Further, these claims are of such a nature that it would be quite feasible to sever these state law claims from core bankruptcy matters and allow judgment to be entered into state court and enforcement left to the bankruptcy court. Moreover, the claimants with personal injury causes of action may have a right to jury trials, which presently have an uncertain legal status in the Bankruptcy Court. Moreover, claims of this nature are not core proceedings.

6. A very recent case decided in the Western District of Missouri, addressed the issue of personal injury claims being heard in the Bankruptcy Court. See, In re Standard Insulations, Inc., 1992 WL 76762 (Bankr. W.D. MO.). In the Standard case the Court considered whether the Bankruptcy Court had jurisdiction to make threshold rulings allowing and disallowing personal injury and wrongful death claims. The Court found that the Bankruptcy Court could "conduct a threshold inquiry on the limited issue of whether personal injury claimants have allowable claims, so long as the court stops short of liquidating those claims it allows; ... eventually all allowable personal injury claims must be sent to District Court or the Court where the claim arose for liquidation, unless the parties agree otherwise." Id. The Court went on to state:

The jurisdiction of the bankruptcy court is governed by 28 U.S.C. Section 157. Bankruptcy judges have authority to hear and determine all cases arising under Title 11 and core proceedings. Section 157(b)(1). Core proceedings, defined in Section 157(b)(2)(B), include: allowance or disallowance of claims ... and estimation of claims or interests for the purposes of confirming a plan ... but not the liquidation or estimation of contingent or unliquidated personal injury tort or wrongful death claims against the estate for purposes of distribution in a case under Title 11.

All personal injury claims shall be tried in the district court in which the bankruptcy is pending, or where the claim arose. Section 157(b)(5). Title 11 does "not affect any right to trial by jury that an individual has under applicable nonbankruptcy law with regard to personal injury or wrongful death tort claims." 28 U.S.C. 1141(a). Id.

7. The Debtors also seek relief from the injunction imposed by 11 U.S.C. Section 524 to allow all personal injury and worker's compensation claims to proceed in the court of appropriate jurisdiction. Such relief is sought to further consummate the reorganization plan.

Section 524 must be viewed with the overall purposes of the Bankruptcy Code. One important goal is to expedite a reorganization plan. However, it is clear that plans are often confirmed before all contingent claims can be liquidated in various courts. Therefore, a modification or temporary lifting of the Section 524 injunction should be granted where it is necessary to consummate the plan. In re White Motor Credit v. White Motor Corp., 761 F.2d 270, 274 (6th Cir. 1985).

In the interest of orderly administration, it is requested that the modification of the stay be consolidated or the Debtor be permitted the full time under non-bankruptcy law to file appropriate responsive pleadings.

8. Debtors have reviewed all claims filed in these cases (the "claims"). The objections contained herein are based upon Debtors' review of the claims as compared with the Debtors' books and records and the knowledge of the Debtors' officers and employees. The objections are also based upon the terms of the confirmed First Amended Joint Plan of Reorganization.

9. Based on such reviews, the Debtors' object to the claims listed on the schedule annexed as Exhibit "A" for the reasons set forth therein.

10. By way of summary, the Debtors' motion for reduction or expungement of claims may be categorized as follows:

Category A: "Barred Claims" - These are claims filed after the bar date and which were listed on the Debtors' schedules as "contingent", "unliquidated" or "disputed". This category would include certain actions for personal injury which were not timely filed.

Category B: "Vendor Claims" - Pursuant to Order of the Bankruptcy Court dated March 9, 1992, the Debtors have paid certain "vendors" in the ordinary course of business. A review of the register of claims by the Debtors indicates that approximately 670 claims are claims filed by such vendors and the Debtor believes that it has paid these claims in the ordinary course of business. Post-petition claims arising in favor of these creditors as a result of continued patronage by the Debtors will be paid by the Debtors in the ordinary course of business pursuant to Article 3.01 of the Plan. If certain of the claims have not been paid, it is probable that they are claims which diverge from the amounts as indicated in the Debtors' books and records and therefore the Debtors object to payment on such grounds.

Category C: Claims which diverge from the amounts of the claims as indicated by the Debtors' books and records or as to which there is no adequate documentation.

Category D: "Personal Injury Claims" - These are timely filed claims that have been asserted against the Debtors for personal injuries or property damage arising out of alleged torts, or similar claims, which the Debtors dispute or as to which the claimant has obtained relief from the automatic stay on the ground that the claimant would make no claim against the assets of the Debtors, but solely against the insurance carrier. These claims also include "worker's compensation" claims. As previously referenced, this Motion is seeking an Order of this Court, characterizing the claims as disputed, but abstaining from hearing and determining disputes relating to timely filed personal injury claims pursuant to 11 U.S.C. Section 305 and 28 U.S.C. Section 1334.

Category E: "Executory Contracts" - These are claims that appear to have been filed in anticipation that the Debtors would reject executory contracts or unexpired leases. The Debtors are moving to expunge these claims on the ground that the subject executory contracts or leases have been assumed by the Debtors and will be paid in accordance with the terms of the contracts pursuant to the Debtors' First Amended Joint Plan of Reorganization.

Category F: "Employee Claims" - These are claims made by employees for wrongful termination, or in some cases for personal injury which the Debtor disputes. Some of these claims are subject to arbitration and others must be expunged and/or reduced, or their priority challenged in this Court.

Category G: "Bondholders' Claims" - These are claims apparently filed by bondholders who were not required to file claims pursuant to the "Order Pursuant to Rule 3003(c)(3) Setting a Final Date for Filing Certain Proofs of Claim and Interest,"; the allowance and treatment of these claims are governed by the terms of the Plan of Reorganization.

Category H: "Miscellaneous Claims" - This category includes claims which are not subsumed within prior categories. It includes certain "class action" claims against the Debtors that have been settled, as well as other miscellaneous claims.

Category I: "Insider Claims" - These are claims filed by Donald J. Trump and other individuals and entities affiliated with the Debtors. The Debtors will provide a more specific statement as to the nature of the disputes, if any, of these claims, however the Debtor is moving at this time to insure their characterization as "disputed". This category also includes certain miscellaneous claims related to insider liabilities.

11. The Debtors have filed this motion at this time because the First Amended Joint Plan of Reorganization may be interpreted as requiring the Debtors to pay in full on the effective date any creditors making a claim for liquidated sums if the claims have not been disputed by the Debtors as of the effective date. Therefore, the Debtors have undertaken to file the motion with respect to all such disputed claims prior to the effective date which is anticipated to be May 21, 1992 or sometime in the near future. As a result of the time pressure, certain claims may be listed in more than one category which might appear on its face as inconsistent.

12. The Debtors reserve the right to object to the claims which are the subject of this motion on grounds other than as stated herein and reserve all rights to object on any grounds as to all other claims filed herein. The within objection to claims shall be served upon the United States Trustees and any parties who have filed notices of appearance, and a copy of the notice substantially in the form of the notice annexed hereto as Exhibit "B" shall be served by first class mail on the claimant whose claims are subject to the objections to claims at the address listed on the respective proof of claim, or if no address is listed thereon, on the last known address of such claimant. A copy of this notice to be served on the personal injury claimants is attached hereto as Exhibit "C".

13. The Debtors respectfully request that this Court dispense with the requirement that a memorandum of law be submitted on the issue of expungement, reduction and/or modification of claims herewith in light of the fact that this motion presents no novel issues of law.

WHEREFORE, Debtors respectfully request that the Court enter an Order disallowing, reducing, and expunging the claims described herein and the annexed exhibits in accordance with this motion and that the Court abstain from hearing and determining disputes related to timely filed personal injury claims and granting such further relief as is just and proper.

abstaining from hearing and determining disputes related to timely filed personal injury claims listed on Exhibit "A", Category D to the Notice of Motion and granting those claimants and the Debtors relief from the stay imposed pursuant to 11 U.S.C. Section 524 and the Order of Confirmation to liquidate the claims in other appropriate forums on the grounds set forth therein.
