

Class of KidsPost Questionnaire 2016-17

Attention teachers and schoolkids: Would you like to be featured as the Class of KidsPost? Each month of the school year, KidsPost will publish the opinions of a class of students. Here's your chance to be heard!

All you have to do is fill out this questionnaire. (It's available for download at kidspost.com). We would prefer that teachers submit a questionnaire from each student. We also need a hi-res photograph of the class. This can be a group shot or something taken during a particularly interesting activity. Cellphone photos are fine.

Questionnaires and photos must be sent only by a teacher, principal or other school representative. E-mail them to kidspost@washpost.com and put "Class of KidsPost" in the subject field or send them to KidsPost, The Washington Post, 1301 K St. NW, Washington, D.C. 20071.

Thanks for participating; we can't wait to share your opinions. Classes that are featured will receive a Chesapeake Bay KidsPost poster and KidsPost pencils and bookmarks for all students. Teachers who have questions can e-mail us at kidspost@washpost.com.

Name of school:

7. Food you would like to eat on your birthday?

Grade and name of teacher:

8. If you could have a superpower, what would it be?

Number of students:

1. Who is your favorite author, and what is your favorite book?

9. What kinds of stories would you like to see in KidsPost? (circle one)

- A. Stories about animals
 - B. Stories about books
 - C. Stories about history
 - D. Stories about (fill in the blank)
-

2. Who is your favorite singer or musician?

3. What is your favorite game, sport or hobby?

10. What do you want to be when you grow up?

4. What person, living or dead, do you admire most? Why?

11. What is the biggest problem in the world today?

5. What is your favorite Web site?

6. If you could take a trip anywhere, where would you go?

12. What can kids do to help solve the problem?