U.S. COPYRIGHT OFFICE NEWSNET

NewsNet is the Copyright Office's free electronic mailing list. NewsNet issues periodic email messages that alert subscribers to hearings, deadlines for comments, new and proposed regulations, new publications, and other copyright-related subjects of interest. A complete archive of NewsNet messages is available at www.copyright.gov/newsnet.

Subscribers may sign up for six topics of information. They are:

- ▶ What's New at the Copyright Office, which alerts subscribers to general copyright-related news
- ▶ Licensing, which provides updates on regulations and procedures for compulsory and statutory licenses
- ▶ Legislative Developments, which informs readers about copyright-related bills introduced in Congress or enacted into law
- ▶ Copyright eService Maintenance and Updates, which gives readers the latest information regarding the Office's online registration system
- ▶ Copyright Matters, which provides information on digitization and the public access blog
- ▶ Copyright Royalty Board News, which issues alerts on hearings, deadlines for comments, new and proposed regulations, and more

Subscribers may indicate preferences regarding delivery of their messages, including frequency of delivery. They may also suspend delivery until a set date and receive messages through a personalized RSS feed.

NewsNet is not an interactive discussion group.

TO SUBSCRIBE TO NEWSNET: Go to the Copyright Office website at www.copyright.gov. Select News to choose subscription offerings from the Library of Congress, including the Copyright Office. You will receive a standard welcoming message indicating that your subscription to NewsNet has been accepted.
