

OUR ROVING CAMERAMAN

THE aboriginal people in this State are scattered over a wide area, so far apart that many of them may never meet, but the magic camera can bring to us intimate glimpses of these people and enable us to become better acquainted with each other.

If you have photos at home, similar to those you see published in Dawn, send them along and thus add to, and maintain, the interest in your fellow men and women.

Young Colin Holten is only three but he already shows every indication of being a real footballer.

How many girls would love to have their own kangaroo for a pet. Well, this lucky lass is nine-year-old Barbara Masters of Armatree.

This little lass is the youngest at Cootamundra. She is Coral Edwards (aged 19 months) from Tingha. Coral has been at Cootamundra now for 15 months.

A happy party of ex-Kinchela and ex-Cootamundra lads and lasses at Luna Park.
