CAMERAMAN

THE aboriginal people in this State are scattered over a wide area, so far apart that many of them may never meet, but the magic camera can bring to us intimate glimpses of these people and enable us to become better acquainted with each other.

If you have photos at home, similar to those you see published in Dawn, send them along and thus add to, and maintain, the interest in your fellow men and women.

A young couple from La Perouse set out to do a day's shopping in the city.

All dressed up and somewhere to go! Little Esme Thomas and Ruth Hoskins, of Wallaga Lake.

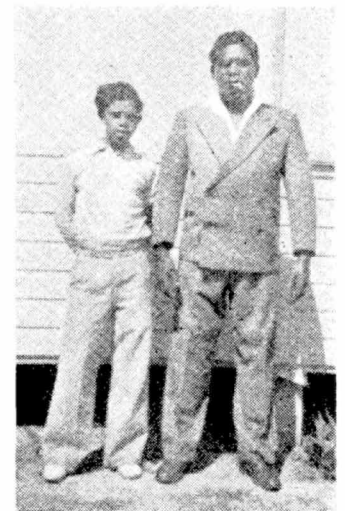

Three pretty girls and three big smiles! Helen, Marie and Beryl Andy, of Wallaga Lake.

"What goes on?" says young Trevor Passon, of Wallaga Lake, as he poses for the camera with his sister Janet, and Ruth Hoskings.

Valerie Masters, of Armatree, and her sisters, Shirley and Leslie.

Two men from the West! Alf Shillingsworth and Brian Barlow, of Condobolin.
