

Colleen admiring Andrew

Two children were born to them, Mamie and Phillip.

Ena later married Robert Methven. They had one boy, Caleb, who died as a baby.

Robert came from the South Coast and the couple lived at South West Rocks.

Many people came to the funeral to pay their last respects to a lovely lady.

God bless all Christian mothers, His best gift to mankind.

►Mrs Marie J. Currey of Stuart Town has sent in a photo of her foster daughter, Katrina, who is part-Aboriginal. Katrina is now nineteen months old and has been with Mrs Currey since she was 6 days old. Needless to say, the whole family idolizes the little girl, shown below.

►The Harden-Murrumburrah Police-Citizens Boys' Club has now by far the strongest Aboriginal group of boxers in the southwest part of the State. In the last half of 1970 they participated in tourna-

