

Vol. 11 No. 28
THURSDAY, JUNE 1, 1968
P.O. Box 425000, Seattle, WA 98142
Publisher and Editor
L. A. W. G. R.

The Black Man Must Know The Truth!

FOUL PLAY?

A MESSAGE TO THE U. S. G.

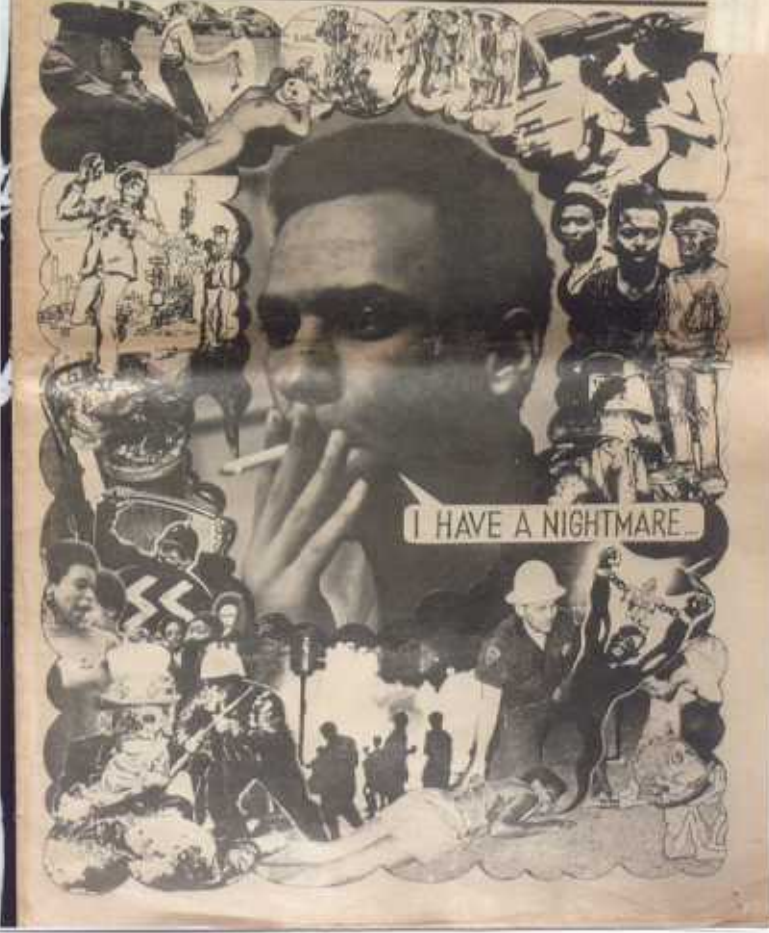

Illustrations show original segregationist and "white" or "anti-segregation" groups, the "Left" and "Right" and "anti-segregation" groups. A line can be drawn between the original segregationists and the "Left" in the case, those who have read and understood the message entitled "FOUL PLAY?" in the Northwest Journal have no doubt should be able to understand the growing political activity of a group and regard them as a white racist group of the black community that will not be good over the system. It is the "strange" that the major interest in black power came from "black" power and would have power, the "black" power because it is a black and later version of the idea. It is the "strange" that the major interest in black power came from "black" power and would have power, the "black" power because it is a black and later version of the idea. It is the "strange" that the major interest in black power came from "black" power and would have power, the "black" power because it is a black and later version of the idea.

The Black Community... In the case of the Black Community... This article discusses the political and social issues of the Black Community in the United States, touching upon the roles of various groups and the challenges they face.

...and as a result of... This section continues the discourse from the previous text, providing further context and analysis on the state of the Black Community and the impact of external forces.

Berkeley Barb

15' BAY AREA 20c ELSEWHERE

Berkeley Barb 1969 Honoring the Take off on Alcatraz Island

Afro-American Journal 1968 from the Black Community in Seattle