

Enrol to vote or update your details as a prisoner in Victoria

AEC

Australian Electoral Commission

Who can use this form?

You can use this form to enrol if you are:

- 18 years of age or older, and
- an Australian citizen or a British subject who was on a Commonwealth roll on 25 January 1984*, and
- serving a full-time prison sentence.

* For Victorian electors only, you are eligible to enrol and vote if you were a British subject enrolled between 26 October 1983 and 25 January 1984 inclusive.

If you were already enrolled when you started serving your sentence, by completing this form you are advising us that you are absent from your enrolled address and will not be removed from the roll while you are in prison.

Note: You are not eligible to enrol or remain on the roll for Victorian state elections if your prison sentence is five years or more.

You can check whether you are currently enrolled on the AEC website at www.aec.gov.au or call 13 23 26.

Is it compulsory to enrol and vote?

Yes, if you are 18 or older it is compulsory to enrol and vote for federal and state elections and referendums. However, you can only vote in federal elections if you are serving a full-time prison sentence of less than three years.

It is compulsory to enrol and vote in Victorian state elections if you are serving a prison sentence of less than five years.

In which division/electorate can you enrol?

For federal elections, you must enrol for the address where:

- A you were last eligible to be enrolled (this will generally be the place where you last lived for at least one month), or
- B one of your next of kin is currently enrolled if you have not previously been eligible to enrol, or
- C you were born, if neither of the above apply, or
- D you have the closest connection if none of the above apply.

For Victorian state elections you can only be enrolled for the address where you were living at the time of your conviction.

Within three weeks of receiving your enrolment form the AEC will confirm your enrolment. We may seek further information from you and confirm your enrolment using any of the contact details you provide.

What are your voting options?

You can register as a general postal voter to have ballot papers automatically sent to you when a federal or Victorian state election or referendum is called. You can register by crossing the 'Yes' box at question 7.

If you do not register as a general postal voter a mobile polling team may visit your prison or you will need to apply for a postal vote for the relevant election.

What happens when you are released?

After your release you must complete a new enrolment form to advise us of your new address so that we can update the electoral roll. You can get an enrolment form at any Australia Post outlet or at www.aec.gov.au

Who has access to your enrolment information?

The Commonwealth of Australia

The Australian Electoral Commission (AEC) is authorised under the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918 (CEA) to collect and verify the information you have been asked to complete on this form. The information provided will assist the AEC to maintain electoral rolls.

The AEC may disclose electoral information to persons or organisations in accordance with the CEA. This may include:

- access to the publicly available electoral roll (containing names and addresses) which may be inspected at electoral offices
- state and territory electoral authorities
- Members of Parliament, Senators, registered political parties, and candidates for the House of Representatives
- approved medical research and public health screening programs
- any agencies, persons or organisations prescribed in the Electoral and Referendum Regulation 2016.

The State of Victoria

Under the Victorian Electoral Act 2002, enrolment information is available to:

- Members of Parliament, registered political parties and election candidates. This information includes name, address, date of birth and gender.
- The AEC and the Victorian Electoral Commission (VEC) exchange electoral information under a joint roll arrangement to update the electoral roll. As part of the roll update activities the VEC may disclose your name to other people living at your enrolment address.
- The electoral roll can be inspected at the office of the VEC. Only names and addresses are provided, though the addresses of silent electors are not disclosed on the publicly available roll.
- The Juries Commission under the Juries Act 2000 and local governments under the Local Government Act 1989.
- Other organisations – in limited circumstances. However, before releasing enrolment information, the Victorian Electoral Commission must weigh up public interest arguments with privacy considerations and consult with the Privacy Commissioner. A full list of agencies receiving enrolment information is available from www.vec.vic.gov.au and the VEC.
