

to surrender this office to an extreme fringe liberal who is incapable of administering justice for all King County residents.

Today, my appeal to you is simple. Please allow us this great chance to elect a capable, visionary leader in Dan Satterberg to County on the legacy of Norm Maleng in the Prosecutor's Office. Dan was Norm's Chief Deputy Prosecutor for 17 years and has the experience necessary to ensure justice for our great county.

Your generous contribution of $1000, $250, $100 or $35 will help turn out Republicans to vote in this incredibly important Election Cycle.

There is a lot at stake here in a low turnout year, and it is absolutely essential to turn out the Republican vote in support of Dan Satterberg. We have an aggressive voter outreach strategy that will include phone calls, mailings, doorbelling and new voter registrations, all designed to make sure that every Republican and Independent voter in King County knows the right choice for King County Prosecutor.

In addition, Councilmember Jane Hague is running to retain her seat on the King County Council in the 6th District. She has an opponent whose gadfly tactics need a proper and sustained response. Please allow us to give her the support she needs to be victorious this November with your kind donation.

It has been some time since we have had as great an opportunity as we now have to clean up the entrenched bureaucracy that is in the King County Assessor's office. Jim Nobles is the right person for that job and has a great vision for this very strategic and important office. Your donation of whatever amount will go a long way in supporting his effort to unseat a 16-year incumbent who is everything but a true taxpayer's advocate.

My friends, 2007 is just too important to sit back and wait for the excitement of the Presidential Cycle. King County is in a precarious position and our full-fledged response is vital.

Would you consider being a part of the Get-Out-The-Vote effort that could change the shape of this county for years to come? Will you join with us in the most important off-year election this county has seen in decades?

The Presidential Cycle will be here before we know it. Before that comes, however, we have serious work to do.

Continuing Norm Maleng's legacy in the King County Prosecutor's office depends on our vigilance and willingness to make 2007 the best year for Republican turnout possible.

In my time as Chairman, I have never felt more passionate about defending a seat in county government as I do this one. It is crucial that we maintain control of the Prosecutor's office. If we do not, justice will not be served to the citizens of our county. Folks, there is a reason Republicans have been elected to pursue justice in this county for six decades running, and it is up to us to remind voters why.

Please take this urgent request to heart and consider joining forces with the King County Republican Party to make 2007 the year Republicans turn out to protect our county's future.

Your support at this decisive moment in King County history will help ensure victory this year. Please consider a one-time donation of $1000, $250, $100 or $35 to continue Norm Maleng's distinguished legacy with the election of Dan Satterberg to the County Prosecutor's office.

I sincerely appreciate your commitment to the values of our great party and look forward to working with you to elect Republican candidates to public office.

Thanks for your time.

Best Regards,
