

NOTICE OF OBJECTIONS

Information Bulletin No. 12

INTRODUCTION

The Liquor Control Act 1988 (the Act) provides that where an application is required to be advertised, a right to object to that application is given. The Act also sets out who may object, how that objection may be dealt with, and the general grounds of objection (sections 73 and 74).

Objections may be lodged against most applications under the Act. The following applications are advertised for public information —

- the grant or removal of a licence, other than an occasional licence;
- extended trading permit (ongoing hours); and
- major alterations to licensed premises.

WHO MAY OBJECT?

Where an application is required to be advertised, any person may object to the application on any ground permitted by section 74 as appears here →

Where an objection is lodged on the ground that the grant of the application would not be in the public interest —

- the notice of objection shall be accompanied by a statement in writing setting out the reasons why the objector considers the objection can be made out and accompanied by evidence that supports the statements made. The onus is on the objector to validate the statements made ;
- if the Director so requires, the objector shall provide further particulars of the matters to which the objection relates.
- the Director may require that notice of any facts or grounds alleged or submission made be given to the applicant in a particular manner.
- an objector does not need to reside in the same locality to which the application relates, however the burden of establishing the validity of the objection lies on the objector (section 73 (10)).

Liquor Control Act 1988

Grounds for objection

No objection may be made unless it is on one or more of the following grounds —

- that the grant of the application would not be in the public interest; or
- that the grant of the application would cause undue harm or ill-health to people, or any group of people due to the use of liquor; or
- that, if the application were granted -
  - undue offence, annoyance, disturbance or inconvenience to person who reside or work in the vicinity, or to persons in or traveling to or from an existing or proposed place of public worship, hospital or school, would be likely to occur; or
  - the amenity, quiet or good order of the locality in which the premises or proposed premises are, or are to be, situated would in some other manner be lessened; or
- that the grant of the application would otherwise be contrary to this Act. (section 74).

GENERAL INFORMATION

The Director may require any objector to verify whether –

- the person has any direct or indirect pecuniary interest in the refusal of the application, or any expectation of such an interest;
- any person other than the objector is interested in the lodging of the objection and, if so –
  - the name of each such person; and
  - where the person is a proprietary company, the names of the directors and principal shareholders; or
- any other matter required by the Director, on oath or affirmation or by statutory declaration.

A person who lodges an objection must serve a copy of the notice on the applicant.

HOW DO I OBJECT TO THE APPLICATION

Applications, including the public interest submissions, can be viewed on the Department's website at www.rgl.wa.gov.au during the advertised period. Plans associated with the application can be viewed, without fee, at the Department during the advertised period.
