

draft December 2015

Constant revolutionising Imploding capital and socialist prospects

by
Humphrey McQueen

For comrade Jim Sharp

CONTENTS

Introduction	Can capitalism collapse?
Part One
Chapter one	The Electronic Whip
Chapter two	The Communist Mode
Chapter three	Debates
Part Two
Chapter four	Booming to bust, 1942 to 1974
Chapter five	A cacophony of accords
Part Three
Chapter six	Beyond devalorisation
Chapter seven	Putting the social back into socialism
Thanks and suggestions

'We all know the workplace is changing and one of the big drivers is because the world itself is changing so profoundly.'

John Brumby, prize idiot, erstwhile Anti-labour Party premier of Victoria, and now chair of Centre for Workplace Leadership, SMH, 2-3 May 2015, Business, p. 10.

Thanks and suggestions

To say that everyone I know has contributed to this book is to say no more than is proclaimed in the case for socialism.

Peter Curtis

Walter Struve, Shirley and Winton, the late Bill Deller, 3CR

Ruth Blair, Dave Eden, Ross Gwyther,

Merilyn Bryce, Joe Collins, Steve Cooper, Liz Humphrys, Tom Waddell, Ian

Watson, Gary Werskey, the late Margaret Henry,

Derek Burke, John Rice,

Bruce McFarlane,

Frank Bongiorno, Les Louis, Peter Ellett, Our Capital reading group, Bill Tully,