Blackmores is a market leader in developing and marketing products and services throughout Australasia that deliver a more natural approach to health. We are passionate about delivering high quality products and services and we always seek to employ people who share this vision.

As part of the Creative Solutions team, the primary function with this role is to provide in-house graphic design support ranging from design of print communications, packaging, POS, digital/social assets to image retouching.

Ideally you will have had exposure to facets of Digital design including social media and EDM campaigns.

A secondary function is to provide basic copy writing support for in-house communications, advertorials and below the line initiatives. A creative flair is essential and if you have additional creative skills such as photography, videography, are an illustrator, awesome at designing impactful PowerPoints we'd love to know! The creative projects are very diverse at Blackmores.

Working as part of the Creative Solutions Team and reporting to its' Leader, you will liaise with a broad range of internal contacts while also having extensive exposure to external contacts such as label printers; printers; external graphic designers and communications agencies.

The ability to communicate clearly and concisely is a must in this role as you will liaise across a broad range of stakeholders.

On offer is the chance to gain entry into an exciting, progressive and rewarding professional environment. You will be working with a company that is at the forefront of the health and wellbeing community on the Internet, with a strong customer focus and real passion in all we do.
