

IMPORTANT VOLUNTARY PRODUCT RECALL INFORMATION

Six products recalled for impermissible levels of lead

DISCONTINUE USE OF TOYS IMMEDIATELY

Thank you for responding to the voluntary product recall by Mattel® Pty. Ltd.

A total of six toys are being voluntarily recalled in Australia, including five pet and furniture playsets sold under the Barbie® brand and one Fisher-Price® toy, due to impermissible levels of lead.

Consumers should immediately take the recalled toys away from children.

Surface paint on the toys may contain increased levels of lead, which if ingested, may have health ramifications.

There have been no reports of injuries involving the affected products in Australia or overseas.

The five Mattel® Barbie®-branded toys being recalled in Australia were sold between November 2006 and August 2007 and contain the following model numbers: K8606, K8607, K8608, K8609 and K8613.

NO Barbie® dolls are included within the recall.

Mattel® is also recalling the Fisher-Price® GEOTRAX™ Rail & Road System Freightway Transport™ toy, which contains the following model numbers: B4342 or H5705. The affected toy was manufactured between July 31, 2006 and September 4, 2006.

Please review the following images and descriptions affected by these recalls, indicating the total number of toys you own in the space below the image.

The value of your return will be carefully assessed. A refund to the value of the returned product will be sent to you. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact Mattel® via phone or email:
