Transcript:

What's up guys? I'm Joey Salad and a date rape is a big problem in today's society.

So I'm out here at a bar today and I'm going to figure out how easy it is to drug a girl.

Joey: What kind of drink you guys get?

Girl: Vodka.

Joey: Is it any good, do they watered down around here?

Guy in black shirt: No, mine is pretty heavy.

Girl: Have to go to toilet, watch my drink.

Thanks.

Guy in back shirt: No problem.

Joey: Don't drink that.

Girl: Why?

Joey: Because your friend wasn't watching I was able to slip a drug into your drink

Girl: Are you kidding me?

Joey: I didn't do it for real, we have cameras set up and we are doing an experiment to show how easy it is to drug a girl. So, because of your carelessness... I'll buy you another drink, don't worry.

Girl: Don't worry about it.

Joey: Now so you guys know to be careful in the future because date raping girl being drugged up is a big problem.

Girl: Thanks

Joey: Be careful next time

Guy in black: Thank are lot, man

Joey: I wouldn't drink that drink if I was you.

Girl: Why not?

Joey: Because I just put a pill in it.

Girl: What?

Joey: I'm filming a social experiment, we've got cameras all over the place and we are making a video to show how easy it is to drug a girl in a bar. And I just drugged you. I'll buy you a new one.

As you can tell from this experiment, it is pretty easy to drug a girl. Always hold onto your drink, put a lid on it or just never let a drink out of your sight. I'm Joey Salads, be safe.
