

OUR ROVING CAMERAMAN

THE aboriginal people in this State are scattered over a wide area, so far apart that many of them may never meet, but the magic camera can bring to us intimate glimpses of these people and enable us to become better acquainted with each other.

If you have photos at home, similar to those you see published in Dawn, send them along and thus add to, and maintain, the interest in your fellow men and women.

One of the best known identities of Wallaga Lake is Ned Hoskins, station handyman.

Rather doubtful about the camera. Little Maria Knight of Condobolin manages a wistful smile.

This attractive young lass is Pam Avery, of Pacific Highway, Urunga.

Alike as three peas in a pod. Len, Tom and Henrie Butler, of Ulladulla.

Mrs. Enid Zimmler, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Henry Carr, both of Wellington.

This young man is Fred Briar, of Condobolin.

Dawn's Cameraman caught Mrs. Betty Johnson, of Murrin Bridge, taking her lovely daughter, Patricia, for a walk.
