

OUR ROVING CAMERAMAN

THE aboriginal people in this State are scattered over a wide area, so far apart that many of them may never meet, but the magic camera can bring to us intimate glimpses of these people and enable us to become better acquainted with each other.

If you have photos at home, similar to those you see published in Dawn, send them along and thus add to, and maintain, the interest in your fellow men and women.

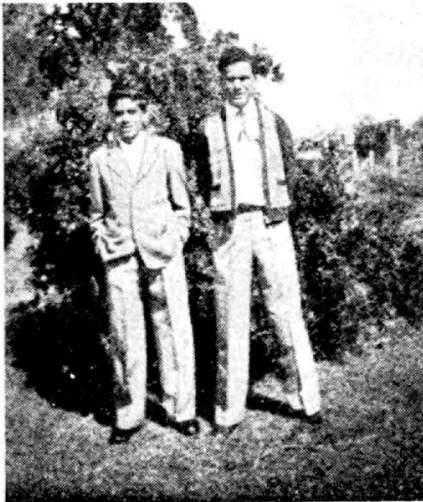

Mrs. Eileen Knox of Garah and her healthy looking daughter Janice.

The little lass with the coy smile is Beatrice Waters of Boggabilla.

Judith Slockey of Bentley and Kath Roberts of Tabulam take advantage of a rare sunny day.

These well-dressed young fellows from Tingha found no difficulty in posing for their photo.

Shirley Simm of the North Coast was all dressed up for a party when the Cameraman found her.

The old tank made a fine seat for Vivian Lowrie of Cubawee.
