

Well done! Eighteen-year-old Margaret Priscilla Tighe, who works at the hospital, smiles happily as she is handed her Assistant Nurses Diploma by Mr. J. Goodsell, Chairman of the Public Service Board at a ceremony at the Lidcombe State Hospital on 8th December, 1964.

Norman Shields and his Dad. Mrs. M. Shields of St. George St., Mungindi, informs Dawn that Norman was adopted by herself and her husband at the age of seven months.

Norman, who is very well known to the people of Mungindi, spent most of his babyhood days up to the time of his adoption, in the local hospital. He is the apple of his parents' eyes, as our photo indicates.
