

Victorian Children at Work

Supporting Resources

A selection of documents to help you interpret the evidence with your class.

Supporting Resources - contents

Big Picture information How and why to create a Big Picture	Page 1
Money Conversion Chart Was 10p a lot of money then? Find out how much it is worth in today's money.	Page 2
Costs of Living in 1880 Find out how much the average family needed to spend each week on food, clothes and living. This can be used to see how valuable a child's wage was to the family.	Page 3
Timeline Essential dates in the movements against Child Labour in Britain, from 1818-1948.	Page 4
What can you find out from the interview? Framework of questions to accompany the Interviews provided in the Evidence Resources.	Page 6
Examples of DIAL questioning Questions to encourage pupils to get different types of information from the pictures they are looking at.	Page 7
Hot Seating Character Framework	Page 8
Examples of Persuasive Posters This is a selection from the Working Class Movement Library to demonstrate a variety of techniques used in posters. The selection includes real examples of anti-racism, peace, education and workers' rights movements.	Page 9
What's in the news? Links to recent articles from BBC Newsround and The Guardian, highlighting child labour as it is today	Page 19

WCML has made extensive efforts to locate and acknowledge copyright owners, and wishes to be informed by any copyright owners who are not properly identified and acknowledged in this resource so that we may make any necessary corrections.