What Is Patriots' Day, Anyway?

Patriots' Day is officially a commemoration of the first battles of the Revolutionary War: those at Lexington and Concord on April 19, 1775. These battles began shortly after Paul Revere's famous "Midnight Ride" to Lexington on the night of April 18, 1775 to warn the minutemen that "the Redcoats are coming!" Patriots' Day is celebrated only in Massachusetts, Maine, and now Wisconsin (which officially recognized the holiday in 2001) on the third Monday of April, as we continue to keep alive the memory of our forefathers' dedication to the ideals of freedom and democracy.

On Friday evening this year, we hope to move outside for our annual historical re-enactment, which will be of General Washington crossing the Delaware River on Christmas night, 1776. The famous painting by Emanuel Gottlieb Leutze is included in this booklet. If you choose to watch from the shore at Sea Chambers, you will be able to join us as the Patriot Fife and Drum Dou march us back to the Ogunquit Baptist Church to learn more about the musical instruments of the Colonial era, and about the fife and drum in particular.

This year we will also have several demonstrations. On Saturday there will be a demonstration on how Colonial women would have taken wool and made it into yarn. There will also be quilting demonstrations, and children will have the opportunity to put down their electronic devices for a time, and to make and play with toys of a previous era.

Throughout the weekend, we will have plenty of photo opportunities available for you, as you can pretend to be Uncle Sam, a rabble-rouser stuck in the stocks, or the be a respectable Colonial family, and more.

Finally, on Sunday we will have another re-enactment, this one more modern, but still in keeping with our Patriotic theme. Few photos garner more patriotic feelings that the 70-year-old photo by Joe Rosenthal of the raising of the flag at Iwo Jima. This photo was used as the basis of the Marine Corps War Memorial statue at the entrance of the Arlington National Cemetery. Join with us as we take a moment to create our own version, and to remember all of the brave Americans throughout our history who have fought and died to secure our freedoms as Americans.

Then we end the weekend on a lighter note, with the Patriotic Pooch Pageant. Dress your dog in red, white and blue or as your favorite American (past favorites have included Barbara Bush and Sarah Palin). Your dog is sure to win the adoration of the crowd, and may even walk away with a prize!

The Patriotic Pooch Pageant is just one way to win a prize over the weekend. The Ogunquit Chamber of Commerce will also award prizes in the 3rd Annual American Pie Contest, as well as for several historically-themed treasure hunts throughout the weekend. (No skill necessary - see the schedule of events in this booklet for more information.) This weekend is truly a celebration of all things American!

The Ogunquit Chamber of Commerce thanks you for joining us for our 25th annual Patriots' Day Weekend Celebration. We hope you enjoy the festivities in Ogunquit, and we encourage you to return in the future as we continue to add exciting new characters and historical events in future years, celebrating our founders' commitment to our country's ideals and the early years of the republic.

EMILE F. STEELE 1936-2015

PORT ORANGE, Fla. - Emile F. Steele (Moe) 78, born on Nov. 16, 1936, passed away quietly on March 4, 2015, in Port Orange, Fla. Moe will be remembered for his famous sayings, "Ta Ta for Now!" (TTFN) and as being a people person who was always ready to help those in need and make people laugh.

He lived most of his life in Billerica, Mass. and graduated from Howe High School in 1954. He played semi-pro football in the Boston area. Moe served in the Army in Korea from 1959-1962, as a military policeman. He joined the Billerica police department, serving for 32 years before retiring as captain. Moe attended the FBI Academy and founded the Northeast Regional Police Institute in Tewksbury, Mass., as education was important to him. At age 50, he obtained his Master's Degree in Criminal Justice from Anna Maria College.

Moe was an avid motorcyclist and belonged to the Triple Towers and Compass Riders Motorcycle Clubs of Burlington, Mass., which sparked his love for his many adventures, exploring the US and Canada.

In 1982, he became a summer resident of Moody. He met his wife, Beverly in 1991 and together they ran Your Body Works Massage in Wells. Moe was the president of the Wells Chamber of Commerce for six years. Moe founded the Chili Fest, Harbor Fest, and the fund raising efforts for the Wells

Harbor Park Playground. He coined the phrase, "Wells, the Friendliest Town in Maine," and he set up the 911 Memorial Monuments with a prayer bell in Wells Harbor. Moe had a life well lived!

He was preceded in death by his son, Daniel Steele; brother Robert Steele, and sister, Joan Folland Berthiaume. He is survived by his wife, Beverly Steele; two daughters, Cheryl Steele and Carol Steele of Billerica Mass., stepdaughter, Bobbie Jellison and her husband Steven Jellison of Wells, stepson, Marc Cuthbertson of Wells; and seven grandchildren, Amanda, David, Summer, Taylor, Bennie, Adam and Hayden; his brother George and his wife, Marye Steele of Port Orange, Fla.; and numerous cousins; nieces and nephews.

A Celebration of Life service was held on March 22, at 1 p.m. at Messiah Christian Church, 2700 Post Rd., Wells. There will be a graveside ceremony at Fox Hill Cemetery in Billerica, Mass. on a day and time to announced in the future. Arrangements are under the care of Heritage Funeral & Cremation Service, Port Orange, Fla. Thoughts and condolences may be shared with the family by visiting www.HeritageDaytona.com.

The Ogunquit Chamber mourns the loss of a great friend and Patriots Day volunteer.
