

Top Companies Driving Security Innovation

CSO
50
AWARDS

Which organizations are implementing the most successful cybersecurity initiatives?

What is CSO50?

The annual CSO50 Awards recognizes 50 organizations (and the people within them) for their security project or initiative that demonstrates outstanding business value and thought leadership. The final selections are made by CSO magazine's editors.

Congratulations to the Following Winners!

CSO recognized the following organizations for developing and implementing security initiatives that drive business value.

AECOM
Aflac
AT&T
Beebe Healthcare
Blackstone
Blue Cross and Blue Shield of North Carolina (BCBSNC)
BNY Mellon
Cancer Treatment Centers of America® (CTCA)
Celgene Corporation
Department of Homeland Security
FICO
Genpact
Health Management Systems
Hershey Company
Horizon Blue Cross Blue Shield of New Jersey
Kimberly-Clark Corporation
Mastercard
Monsanto
Sallie Mae
TransUnion
USAA
Voya Financial
United Airlines

Vendors Most Important to Winners' Success!

Security leaders named the following companies when asked who were the top vendors most important to the success of their winning initiatives.

AWS	Palo Alto Networks
Cisco	PhishMe
Forcepoint	RSA
HPE / Arcsight	ServiceNow
Malwarebytes	Splunk
McAfee	Sqrrl
Microsoft	Symantec
Okta

Judging Criteria

To be selected for a CSO50 Award, your nominated project or initiative must demonstrate excellence in:

Innovation: The extent to which your organization used security in a new way or enabled new ways of improving the organization's security and risk posture.

Business results and value: The measurable impact, backed up by supporting data that your project has had on your organization's business.