When the holiday falls on a Saturday, it is observed on the Friday before and when the holiday falls on a Sunday, it is observed on the Monday following the holiday. Refer to the Personnel Policy Manual, Section 12 for eligibility for floating holidays.

Holidays for bargaining unit employees appear in the Agreement between the University and Local 572.

Employees at the Homewood campus are no longer required to observe Commencement Day as a university holiday. Commencement Day will now be a normal work day everywhere in the University. All employees who were previously eligible for the day off with pay on Commencement day will have an additional floating holiday available, making their holiday schedule equivalent to employees elsewhere in the University.

*Divisions may decide to lift minimum staffing requirements at other times during the Winter Holiday season. Any full days of leave resulting from such a decision, must be covered by the staff member's accrued leave.

Presidents' Day is not a University observed holiday.
