Title: Cycling for culture
Publication info: 2014
Physical descrip: 1 online resource (website)
Abstract: This web site is dedicated to 'Cycling for Culture', a unique blend of cycling, Aboriginal cultural experience and fundraising. Held for the first time in 2013, the inaugural event was a three day ride through Kaurna Country or in Kaurna language: Maityuwampidlu Kaurna yarta-arra; the the term Maityuwampi meaning bicycle. Riders involved visit sites of significance for the Kaurna, Peramangk and Ngadjuri people and discover a part of the history of a place that most of us would know as the Adelaide Hills, Barossa Valley and northern metropolitan Adelaide. Participants listen to Elders? story-telling, experience cultural practices, learn language and gain a better understanding of the lives of the people past and present. Cycling for Culture aims to enable a better understanding between Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal people and a greater appreciation for culture, country and history. Riders involved raise funds to support the development of the Kaurna language and to assist in developing resources and training Kaurna language teachers, so that future generations are able to learn their language as an important part of their culture. This website includes learning resources on the Kaurna language, histostoric information and external link to resources and news updates.
