Listening copies are available. Contact AIATSIS to arrange an appointment to listen to the recordings or to order copies.

Restrictions on listening

This collection is open for listening.

Restrictions on use

Copies of this collection may be made for private research. Permission must be sought from the relevant Indigenous individual, family or community for any publication or quotation of this material. Any publication or quotation must be consistent with the Copyright Act (1968).

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

Date: 1964

Extent: 4 sound tape reels : analogue, mono.

Production history

These recordings were collected between January and August, 1964 by Nils M. Holmer during fieldwork in northern New South Wales and south-east Queensland. The field trip was funded by an AIAS grant, the purpose of which was to research languages from northern New South Wales, in particular Dhanggatti and Worimi (Kattang). The resulting paper, An attempt towards a comparative grammar of two Australian languages, was published by the Australian Institute of Aboriginal Studies in 1967. Many other languages were recorded by Holmer during the field trip, including Kuku Yalanji, Gumbaynggir, Dungidjau, Waka Waka, Bundjalung, Butchulla, Gooreng Gooreng, Gubbi Gubbi and Kaanju. Interviewees included Evelyn Ferguson, Eddie Lobban, William Turnbull (to be confirmed), Harry 'Tiger' Buchanan (to be confirmed), Charlie Collins, Larry Leedie, Joe Weasel, Locky Vale, Len Duckett, Willie McKenzie, Fanny Twist, Fred Bugg, Bertie Holten, Doug Scott and Victor Shepherd.

RELATED MATERIAL

Important: before you click on any links in this section, please read our sensitivity message.

A brief report on research carried out by Holmer in 1964 is held in the AIATSIS Library, see PMS 824. Transcripts and translations of many of the narratives featured in this collection, can be found in the publication Stories from two native tribes of eastern Australia, see B H748.91/S1. For a complete listing of related material held by AIATSIS, consult the Institute's Mura® online catalogue at <http://mura.aiatsis.gov.au>.

ARCHIVIST'S NOTE

The original recordings collected by Nils M. Holmer in 1964 are not held at AIATSIS. Instead, four edited compilation tapes were submitted, which were returned to the depositor upon copying. The excerpts on the four tapes supplied were not compiled in chronological order. The location of the original recordings is to this day unknown.

This finding aid was compiled from information contained in documentation provided by Nils M. Holmer and audition sheets prepared by AIATSIS staff. Visitors to AIATSIS have questioned the identity of one of the speakers and the language he spoke. Amendments to the original documentation are reflected in this finding aid.
