Johnny 'Perfect' Cueto pitches Royals to victory

(Chicago, IL) The Royals were back in full force today as they took on Astros in this head to head match for the finals. Both teams have powered forward through the competition to get to the cut-throat match early today, and there was absolutely no mercy. Royals has had a bit more of a struggle to get to where they are, but they've rebounded well and are now in a position to win it all. They've clipped the Clippers and rocketed by Houston.

Royals started off rough today but made up for it with their defensive ability. At the end of the first quarter Astros was up 1-6 with no signs of slowing down. Lucking, Royals was able to recover with a score of 3-3 by the half. Both teams had time to recover from this extremely physical match and there was no doubt that Royals and Astros were leaving it all out on the court.

(Chicago, IL) The Royals were back in full force today as they took on Astros in this head to head match for the finals. Both teams have powered forward through the competition to get to the cut-throat match early today, and there was absolutely no mercy. Royals has had a bit more of a struggle to get to where they are, but they've rebounded well and are now in a position to win it all. They've clipped the Clippers and rocketed by Houston.

Royals started off rough today but made up for it with their defensive ability. At the end of the first quarter Astros was up 1-6 with no signs of slowing down. Lucking, Royals was able to recover with a score of 3-3 by the half. Both teams had time to recover from this extremely physical match and there was no doubt that Royals and Astros were leaving it all out on the court.

The best team money can buy? I'm no baseball fan, but do the @Dodgers players really like/respect Mattingly? Not 100% his fault, but he does
