

OUR ROVING CAMERAMAN

THE aboriginal people in this State are scattered over a wide area, so far apart that many of them may never meet, but the magic camera can bring to us intimate glimpses of these people and enable us to become better acquainted with each other.

If you have photos at home, similar to those you see published in Dawn, send them along and thus add to, and maintain, the interest in your fellow men and women.

Three pretty girls . . . Valerie Nicholls, Janet Combo and Marlene Combo, all of Walgett.

Some personalities from far west Brewarrina. Hilda Coombes, Marlene Coombes, Annie Wright and a little friend.

It looks as if Ruby Zooch is walking along the railway line but, we can be sure Ruby didn't have to walk too far.

Little Marion Clarke, of Walgett, heard the fish were biting so she took up a spot on the river bank. We don't know what she caught.

Fred Ferguson and Jack Norman, of Brewarrina, seem all set to get the garden ready for the bright spring weather.

Valerie Nicholls, of Walgett, seemed all alone, but we can guess she had plenty of her friends not very far away.
