

OUR ROVING CAMERAMAN

THE aboriginal people in this State are scattered over a wide area, so far apart that many of them may never meet, but the magic camera can bring to us intimate glimpses of these people and enable us to become better acquainted with each other.

If you have photos at home, similar to those you see published in Dawn, send them along and thus add to, and maintain, the interest in your fellow men and women.

Pretty Ivy Southwell, of Mimosa, Boorowa

"Come on in, the water's fine", said young Bevan Stacey when she went surfing off the Queensland coast

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Moore, of Cox Ridge, Coraki

A very familiar sight to city-dwellers, but there are many country people who have not yet seen the famous Harbour Bridge

One of the most exciting events at country shows and rodeos is the steer riding contest, an event that calls for skill and courage
