COLLECTION OVERVIEW

Scope and content note

Press cuttings on current affairs relating to Aborigines, including book reviews, theatre reviews, public notices and employment advertisements, from various Australian capital city and country newspapers, together with transcripts of ABC radio and television interviews and news broadcasts, some transcripts of Parliamentary and other speeches, press releases, news service and other reports.

The first two files (MS 5061/1/1 &2) hold transcripts of radio and television broadcasts, June 1973-March 1975. The remainder of the papers document the period, 4-19 Dec 1974, 1 October

MS 5061, Commonwealth Department of Aboriginal Affairs, Press cuttings, 1973-1986

1978-31 December 1986. There is a large gap in the series of press cuttings between December 1974 and October 1978.

The press cuttings and other documents are arranged chronologically, day by day, in files. Some files are tabbed to mark the dates. The documents include original and photocopied press cuttings, original typed transcripts, telexed and faxed reports and press releases. They are usually adhered to backing sheets, with sticky tape or glue. The sticky tape has deteriorated. The publication details are written on the backing sheets. In a few cases outsize documents, such as pages from broadsheet newspapers and long telexes, are on the files.

Provenance

The Commonwealth Department of Aboriginal Affairs began compiling the series of press cuttings soon after its establishment in December 1972. The press cuttings were transferred to the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Commission (ATSIC) when it took over many of the Department's functions in 1990. After the abolition of ATSIC in 2005, the press cuttings were transferred from the former ATSIC Library to AIATSIS in 2008.

Material separated from collection
