THE PROPOSED PUBLICATION

Author/editor (s) biographical details

Provide a paragraph about yourself as it might appear in the publication. Please include any present position or affiliation.

- >
- >
- >

Rationale for publishing

For example, you may have completed some pivotal research or taken a new approach to an already well-published area. Yours may be a cross-disciplinary approach to an established subject, or it may be a rebuttal to another publication.

- >

Publication category

For example, is the work being submitted for publication as a discussion paper, an issues paper, et cetera?

- >
