

STATEMENT FROM SBS

10 APRIL 2017

SBS has been alerted to calls that have been made to people within the Australian Egyptian community from someone claiming to be an SBS employee, seeking donations in aid of those affected by recent attacks targeting Coptic Christians in Egypt. This is a scam and SBS has notified the authorities.

If people are contacted they should not provide any personal information, credit card details or any form of donation, and contact Crime Stoppers on 1800 333 000.
