

A global day for workers rights

Mayday²⁰⁰⁷

On Mayday we remember the Haymarket martyrs who died fighting for the introduction of an 8-hour day, over 100 years later we still find ourselves in constant struggle for our rights as workers. The labour market pits us against one another but together in solidarity we are stronger than they could possibly imagine. Workers of all nations unite!

Join The Trade Union March!

Sunday 29th April

Parnell Square

Assemble at 12:30pm
