

Contents

Dedication	vi
Illustrations.....	viii
Acknowledgments.....	ix
Introduction: The Storyteller.....	1
1 Straight-line stories.....	11
2 Telling stories: People and places	37
3 The famous Erambie Allblacks.....	63
4 Fighting at the gates.....	101
5 The Wiradjuri clever men.....	123
6 Representation: Words and people.....	161
7 Telling Australian stories.....	175
Notes.....	189
Bibliography	191
Index.....	199

Illustrations

(Between pp. 86–87)

Note about the figures: Most of the photographs sourced by the author are old. Although they are treasured possessions, they are scanned copies of a long gone original where no negatives are available. There is some degree of wear and tear.

Figure 1: Erambie Allblacks

Figure 2: The ‘famous Cowra All Blacks’

Figure 3: Barnstorming Erambie Allblacks, 1929

Figure 4: Erambie junior team, the ‘Baby Blacks’, 1937

Figure 5: The railway gates

Figure 6: Harry Murray senior

Figure 7: Doolan Murray

Figure 8: Jim Murray at 13

Figure 9: Jim Murray, the ‘Black Prince’