WE WILL TAKE ANYTHING YOU DON'T WANT AT ALICE'S RESTAURANT

Alice's Restaurant (Bookshop) began last year with practically no capital and has by now built up a good stock of books, periodicals and posters. This has only been done by going into debt. To clear these debts and to attract new customers a monster book sale is being organised, and this means that Alice's needs about two thousand books (second hand). Donations of all types of books and pamphlets will be gratefully accepted.

WORKING BEE AT THE BAKERY (Where the Yeast is Red)

The newly acquired headquarters of the Revolutionary Socialists at the Bakery, 120 Greville St. Prahran needs cleaning, decorating and some alterations to make it a suitable centre of activity. There will be a working bee on Saturday afternoon (March 1) and all of Sunday. Volunteers are requested. When completed the Bakery will offer the following facilities to the Melbourne left:

- * Coffee shop/small meeting room.
- * Room for films, parties and large meetings.
- * Office for university newspapers, high school underground papers and other publications. Complete with typewriters and telephone.
- * Work area for making posters, collating magazines etc
- * Gestetner room and gestetner.

REV. SOC. IT TO THEM

The Revolutionary Socialists series of five classes on The State begins at the Bakery on Monday March 3rd at 8.00 pm and will continue at the same time each week.

REBEL GIRLS

There's an equal pay demonstration next tuesday March 4th. Details from our Union Maid Beth Phayer on 63 4659 (9 to 5)

PRINT GOES DAILY

The Monash Labor Club's newsheet Print will begin daily production next week. This means a larger staff this year and the Labor Club desperately needs typists, reporters, distributors and gestetner operators. All those interested are invited to a meeting at the Bakery, 10.30 a.m. sharp on Sunday March 2nd.

NO GAOL FOR DEMONSTRATORS

A party to raise funds for Albert Langer and Dave Rubin (charged with riot and other offences by the Bolte government) will be held at 66 Chatswoth Rd. Prahran on Saturday March 1.
