

DMSC Gets SIRO recognition

DMSC has been recognized as a Scientific and Industrial Research Organization (SIRO) by Department of Scientific and Industrial Research (DSIR). Now DMSC is looking forward to conduct funded research studies through its research unit, Sonagachi Research Training Institute (SRTI), from other Institutions. DMSC has expertise in conducting Participatory research studies among various marginalized communities including domestic workers, Construction workers, ethnic communities including Shabars, sex workers and others.

Interested institution/ Organization are requested to contact DMSC research wing.