Travel Tip #5: Did We Mention Do Something Fun?

Be sure to ask at your hotel to see the "This Week in Ogunquit". This way, you will know about everything that is going on in the area during your stay. You can also get one at the Ogunquit Welcome Center on your way into town. Click here for a sample.

CAPRICCIO IS COMING! Monday, September 7 - Sunday, September 20

Capriccio: "a musical composition in free form, usually lively in tempo and brilliant in style." The word also represents Ogunquit's town-wide Festival of the Arts, this year celebrating its 25th anniversary. Coordinated by Ogunquit Performing Arts, an expanded Festival is planned, occurring September 7th through September 20th, throughout Ogunquit. Participants will include the major arts organizations in town, churches, art galleries, service organizations and local businesses. Events will include concerts, new exhibits and receptions, historical look-backs, special tours of theatres and art galleries, and the art of kite-flying. Click here for more information.
