PV3.2 Israeli Prime Minister Netanyahu said in a speech to Israelis: “In this land, there lives a large population of Palestinians. We do not want to rule over them. In my vision of peace, there are two free peoples living side by side in this small land, with good neighborly relations and mutual respect, each with its flag, anthem and government, with neither one threatening its neighbor’s security and existence.”

Do you see in this statement a recognition of the Palestinian right to an independent state?

IV3.2 In a meeting with Israelis in his office in Ramallah few years ago, Palestinian President Mahmud Abbas told them that “I want to make some issues clear, I assure you that following the end of successful peace talks, the conflict will be resolved, we will not demand to return to Jaffa, Akka and Safad”.

Do you see in this statement a willingness on Abbas’ part to indirectly accept the Jewish character of the state of Israel?
