"Hardcore that's well recorded and executed...they have lots of style , plus punkrockin drive and fury...really good.. check them out!" - Spamm - Volume 1 issue VII.

BEER CITY is proud to bring you another classic early 80's hardcore/punk reissue! This time its from RING 13 who hailed from Dekalb, IL and were a first wave hardcore/punk band from 83-85. What you get on this release is the original Nothing New Nothing Learned full length (for the first time ever on vinyl) fully restored and remastered. Of course there is brand new liner notes from the band as well as lyrics and photos.

The fun does not stop there. In 2007 RING 13 was asked to play a fest in their home town. So they got back together and played the fest and kept things going. Then in 2013 they headed back in the studio and recorded 5 new songs for a release called Rub the Lamp that has not seen the light of day till now. This time the band took a way more 'left of the dial' approach and turned out 5 really good catchy tuneful songs that would defiantly have made a huge impact on the left of the dial scene of the 80's . A special insert with lyrics , liners and photos is included for these songs as well.

In short 19 songs that will knock your socks off and a definite part of first wave early 80's hardcore/punk history!

MARKETING POINTS:

- Early 80's hardcore that has not seen the light of days in years

For Fans of: XENTRIX, SLAMMER, SACRED REICH, STONE, BLIND ILLUSION

During the late-'80s, legendary U.K. punk band THE VARUKERS underwent an unexpected transformation as its ranks gradually split off into two separate metal-oriented acts. One such group—inspired by the excitement and energy of albums such as METALLICA's Kill 'Em All in contrast to what was perceived as a stale and apathetic punk scene at the time—ARBITRATER, led by VARUKERS frontman Anthony "Rat" Martin, would proceed to self-release two full-length albums of taugt, crunchy, and subtly melodic underground thrash: 1991's Balance of Power, and 1993's Darkened Reality.

Despite the strength of the recordings and performing handfuls of shows alongside fellow U.K. thrash lords XENTRIX and SLAMMER, among others, ARBITRATER ran its course before securing the wider exposure that a proper record label may have offered. As a result, out of print for many years, both albums have become extremely sought-after collectibles—so much so that Rat himself was forced to pay £93 for a single copy of Balance of Power for use as source material for this very collection; and Darkened Reality has been documented to have once sold for over $600!

So now, more than two decades later, Divebomb Records is proud to represent ARBITRATER via this massive double-disc set, featuring both Balance of Power (appearing for the first time ever on CD) and Darkened Reality, as well as The Conquest demo from 1988—all fully remastered and restored by Jamie King at The Basement Recording. In addition, the packaging includes an insightful new interview with ARBITRATER main man Anthony "Rat" Martin, conducted by renowned musician and author Ian Glasper. For the fans, by the fans!

MARKETING POINTS:

- First CD appearance of Balance Of Power
- Original copy of Darkened Reality CD regularly fetches $500
- Featured 3 bonus demo tracks
- New band interview with vocalist, Tony "Rat" Martin
- Digitally remastered by Jamie King
