Commerce Finds Dumping of Imports of Ammonium Sulfate from the People's Republic of China

- On January 18, 2017, the Department of Commerce (Commerce) announced its affirmative final determination in the antidumping duty (AD) investigation of imports of ammonium sulfate from the People's Republic of China (China).
- The AD law provides U.S. businesses and workers with a transparent, quasi-judicial, and internationally accepted mechanism to seek relief from the market-distorting effects caused by injurious dumping of imports into the United States, establishing an opportunity to compete on a level playing field.
- For the purpose of an AD investigation, dumping occurs when a foreign company sells a product in the United States at less than its fair value.
- None of the Chinese companies responded to Commerce's request for information. Accordingly, all producers/exporters in China received a final dumping margin of 493.46 percent, based on adverse facts available.
- As a result of the final affirmative determination, Commerce will instruct U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) to collect cash deposits at the final rate, effective on the date of publication of the final determination in the Federal Register.
- The petitioner for this investigation is PCI Nitrogen, LLC (TX).
- The merchandise covered by this investigation is ammonium sulfate in all physical forms, with or without additives such as anti-caking agents. Ammonium sulfate, which may also be spelled as ammonium sulphate, has the chemical formula $(\text{NH}_4)_2\text{SO}_4$.

The scope includes ammonium sulfate that is combined with other products, including by, for example, blending (i.e., mixing granules of ammonium sulfate with granules of one or more other products), compounding (i.e., when ammonium sulfate is compacted with one or more other products under high pressure), or granulating (incorporating multiple products into granules through, e.g., a slurry process). For such combined products, only the ammonium sulfate component is covered by the scope of this investigation.

Ammonium sulfate that has been combined with other products is included within the scope regardless of whether the combining occurs in countries other than China.

Ammonium sulfate that is otherwise subject to this investigation is not excluded when commingled (i.e., mixed or combined) with ammonium sulfate from sources not subject to this investigation. Only the subject component of such commingled products is covered by the scope of this investigation.

The Chemical Abstracts Service (CAS) registry number for ammonium sulfate is 7783-20-2.

The merchandise covered by this investigation is currently classifiable under Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States (HTSUS) subheading 3102.21.0000. Although this HTSUS subheading and CAS registry number are provided for convenience and customs purposes, the written description of the scope of this investigation is dispositive.

- In 2015, imports of ammonium sulfate from China were valued at an estimated $62 million.

NEXT STEPS

- The International Trade Commission (ITC) is scheduled to make its final injury determination in this investigation on March 3, 2017.
- If the ITC makes an affirmative final determination that imports of ammonium sulfate from China materially injures, or threatens material injury to, the domestic industry, Commerce will issue an AD order. If the ITC makes a negative determination of injury, the investigation will be terminated.
