

FLUORIDE FACTS

First city in Wisconsin (Sheboygan) starts fluoridating water to optimal level for public health

90

Percent of Wisconsin residents on community water supplies who are receiving fluoridated water's benefits

125

Number of reputable international health and science organizations that recognize fluoride's public health benefits

$3,800

Amount of dental care costs saved for every $100 invested in community water fluoridation

25

Percent (minimum) amount of tooth decay prevented during a lifetime thanks to fluoridated water

70

Years of research and experience confirm fluoridation is safe for people and the environment

2009

FDA APPROVED

FDA approves bottle labeling that states fluoridated water may reduce risk of dental cavities or tooth decay

Learn more at WDA.org/your-oral-health/fluoride

WDA
WISCONSIN DENTAL ASSOCIATION

