Change of interests in Reliance Worldwide Corporation Limited

Interests associated with Jonathan Munz, Chairman of Reliance Worldwide Corporation Limited (ASX: RWC) (RWC) have reduced their shareholding in RWC from 30% to 10%. This was effected through an underwritten block trade of shares to Institutional investors.

Mr. Munz complimented the RWC Management team, led by CEO Heath Sharp, on RWC's performance since listing and the operating results recently reported to the ASX. He also noted that RWC was poised for further growth with a number of exciting and innovative new products.

Interests associated with Mr. Munz have retained a stake in RWC worth approximately $200 million (as at close of trading on 30 August 2017) and have committed to a voluntary escrow of this retained stake until 28 February 2018.
