

A day of resistance, partying
and PRIDE!

Sun 10th Sep Bristol

Details: angryqueerantifascists.wordpress.com

The far-right are coming to Bristol to try to spread their Islamophobic and racist agenda. This time they are using the label 'Gays Against Sharia' in a blatant attempt to use LGBTQIA+ communities for their own ends.

On their last outing (Manchester, June 2017) they yelled racist and homophobic abuse, hospitalising a homeless man who protected a mum and young daughter from them. Sikh volunteers giving away food were threatened and 'had to scarper for our own safety'.

Their leaders are far-right bigots with BNP/EDL/UKIP history & their Bristol organiser is straight. Let's not be fooled by their latest clumsy attempt to wrap fascism in a rainbow flag. History shows that wherever these bigots gain momentum by their racist scapegoating of one group (Jews in the 30s, Muslims and migrants today) they target us queers soon after.

So we plan to stop them with a large, spectacular and fabulous carnival. Dust off your heels, shine up your boots & join us!

NB Cops and far-right thugs can be unpredictable, so we recommend you come with friends and stick together.

Our meeting point will be announced via:
angryqueerantifascists.wordpress.com

This event is queer-led but anyone who wants to stop fascism, racism & homophobia is welcome.