CONVERSATION WITH COMPLAINANT (NOTE TO FILE)

Ms. Marie-Line Gentes contacted our office wanting to file a complaint against two hate sites: Free Dominion and [REDACTED]. C alleges that during the week of April 17, 2006, there was a flyer that was distributed in mailboxes in her neighbourhood in Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, which showed 3 controversial pictures that degraded the Muslims. Also, in the flyer the writer states that the Islam religion is becoming one of fastest growing and potentially most violent religion out there and he is trying to share the gospel of God advising everyone who is reading the flyer to give themselves to the one and only God. At the bottom of the flyer there was a name and a website, which C visited. www.freedominion.ca. This website constituted of [REDACTED] having a blog site where people can visit and post a message.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Yet when the flyer is on the internet, we have a potential human rights complaint, that although www.freedominion.ca doesn't have the flyer on the website.

I explained to Ms. Gentes the process and asked her to complete the two complaint forms and return them to our region and I would forward the files to the appropriate officer.

Hi Marie,

I took a quick look at the info Catherine is sending you. It appears that sexual orientation should be added as a ground. It also appears that the complainant was unable to provide an address for the respondent and/or the ISP. Therefore, once the files are received and in order, they should be forwarded to the Anti-Hate Team Manager for assignment so that we can try and locate the respondent and the ISP.

Hello,

We received a call and a fax from [REDACTED]. She was wanting to know what to do about a flyer she received in her mailbox. I have scanned it and attached it. This is the same guy, [REDACTED] who we have 2 complaints against for his website www.freedominion.ca & [REDACTED] which you are dealing with Sandy. I explained to [REDACTED] section 13 and advised her that since she received the flyer in the mail, it would be out of our jurisdiction and that she should get in touch with the Provincial Human Rights. I also referred her to the [REDACTED] Police Service-Hate & Bias Committee. I told her we would only deal with the website, which she did not visit. [REDACTED] said that [REDACTED] to tell him what he thought of him (which were not nice thoughts). [REDACTED] says the flyers were distributed all along her block this past weekend. We may get more calls regarding this in the near future.

I just thought you should know that they flyers are still being passed around, although the subject of the flyer is different. I don't think it will have an effect on anything, but regardless just wanted to pass it on.

Have a great day.

S. 19(1)

Hi Dean,

██████████ contacted our office inquiring about filing a hate message complaint against www.freedominon.ca. He said that he found out about this website, when he got a flyer in his mailbox with the head line "Does Mohammed and his followers merit criticism?" Below are 3 pictures, one of a Christian girl who was decapitated in Indonesia, the Mohammed cartoon, with the turban and explosives etc. At the bottom of the flyer there is a website address and states that any comments are to be sent to ██████████. The potential complainant did a google search on ██████████ and a blog came up. He printed out the pages from the website page, which I have scanned and attached. The heading is of the Free Dominion, the Voice of Principles Conservatism. There is one blog entry, which I believe is more directed towards the Liberal Party of Canada, where he states that he believes that ██████████ and the Liberal Party believe that it's right to sodomize minors and potential issues towards the gay community. One part of the entry of the blog, states facts regarding the case of the 2 boys who were sexually abused by an employee at the Maple Leaf Gardens.

I'm not sure if any of this would constitute hate-messaging under our act. Obviously, the flyer isn't. ██████████ contacted the Alberta Human Rights Commission and was told that if he didn't know who dropped the flyer in his mail, then there is no complaint.

I was wondering if you had any advice regarding my handling of this complaint. Any advice would be appreciated. Again, I have scanned and attached what ██████████ mailed me.

Thanks

CHRC operative Dean Steacy is a Free Dominioner

Earlier this week in a Toronto federal courtroom a lawyer representing the Canadian Human Rights Commission surrendered the commission's position that it should be able to continue to [self-servingly] conceal information behind Section 37 of the Canadian Evidence Act. The commission made this move because they knew the judge's decision would go against them and they didn't want future operations bound by a potentially restrictive ruling.

This opened to the public testimony given in a closed CHRC tribunal by one of the commission's operatives, Dean Steacy. Part of that testimony is reproduced here:

Quote:

1. Do any investigators post on Stormfront.org <<http://stormfront.org/>>?

I am not aware of any investigator other than me, who has posted on Stormfront.

2. Getting back to Jadewarr, do Commission employees sign up accounts on Stormfront, under pseudonyms such as "Jadewarr"?

I used the Jadewarr email address to create an account on Stormfront. I am not aware whether or not other investigators have created other accounts on Stormfront.

3. Do you know who Jadewarr is?

Jadewarr is not a person, it is an email address and a user account on Stormfront.org <<http://stormfront.org/>>. I created the Jadewarr email address on yahoo.ca and the Jadewarr account on Stormfront. I have used the Jadewarr email address and the Jadewarr account on Stormfront on occasion, in the course of investigating complaints. I am not aware of anyone else having used the Jadewarr email address or account.

4. To your knowledge, is Jadewarr a Commission employee?

See above.

5. As part of your duties, have you ever signed up with a message board and made postings?

Yes, I have done so using the Jadewarr account in investigating section 13 complaints.

One of the many questions remaining to be answered is why did CHRC operative Dean Steacy register at Free Dominion using his official Section 13 complaint screen name 'jadewarr' on April 5, 2006?

View Dean Steacy's Free Dominion public profile<<http://www.freedominion.com/phpBB2/profile.php?mode=viewprofile&u=6706>>.

(Note he used the same official investigative email address jadewarr@yahoo.ca he spoke of in his testimony.)

According to the documents Connie and I were served from the Canadian Human Rights Commission last summer, Marie-Line Gentes did not bring Free Dominion to the commission's attention with her bogus complaint against us until September 29th, 2006, over five months after Dean Steacy began his 'investigation' by registering as jadewarr. It may be coincidence, but the posting that ultimately caused poor Ms. Gentes such distress happened to be posted just two weeks after Dean Steacy began his complaintless investigation of Free Dominion by registering.

Why was Dean Steacy investigating Free Dominion half a year before any complaint was filed? And is there a connection between Dean Steacy and Marie-Line Gentes?
