‘The exclusive right to copy, publish, adapt or authorise use of copyright works’

Notice to all users of Copier/Printers

AUT staff and students must comply with the provisions of the Copyright Act 1994 and the Privacy Act 1993.

Where copying of copyright works is not covered by any of the exceptions provided in the Act (should these be detailed?), then clearance must be sought from the copyright owner or from the appropriate licensing body.

AUT has a licence with Copyright Licensing Limited (CLL), which provides for the copying of extracts from hard copy printed published works for students for the educational purposes of AUT. These copies may be included in course-packs or compilations, distributed either in hard copy or electronic format to enrolled students and staff involved in the particular course of instruction.

Course Materials sold to students must have included a Bibliography(s) or References.

Every course-pack produced and distributed, whether in hard copy or electronic format, must be accompanied by the following copyright warning notice:

COPYRIGHT WARNING NOTICE

“This material is protected by copyright and has been copied by and solely for the educational purposes of the University under licence. You may not sell, alter or further reproduce or distribute any part of this course pack/material to any other person. Where provided to you in electronic format, you may only print from it for your own private study and research. Failure to comply with the terms of this warning may expose you to legal action for copyright infringement and/or disciplinary action by the University.”
