

RT interviews Andre Damon: Google becoming “censorship engine”

1 August 2017

Over the past week, the World Socialist Web Site has revealed that changes to Google's search algorithm aimed at censoring “fake news” have led the global traffic rankings of a broad range of left-wing, progressive, anti-war and democratic rights organizations to plummet.

World Socialist Web Site reporter Andre Damon spoke to RT America Monday about Google's censorship of political thought on the internet.
