7mate starts October with a bang!

The world's biggest comedy leads 7mate's all-new primetime line-up.

Hit reality franchises STORAGE WARS, COUNTING CARS and ICE ROAD TRUCKERS will join THE BIG BANG THEORY on 7mate next month, as part of the channel's all-new primetime arsenal.

THE BIG BANG THEORY will be stripped 7pm Monday to Thursday from October 5, launching with Season 3.

On Tuesdays, follow the drivers of the US and UK ratings hit ICE ROAD TRUCKERS as they brave the treacherous paths, frozen lakes and perilous whiteouts of the Arctic. Straight after is the American muscle car fix up hit, COUNTING CARS, starring PAWN STAR'S Danny 'The Count' Koker.

On Wednesdays, it's a southern spin on the popular Vegas reality series, PAWN STARS, in CAJUN PAWN STARS, with the Louisiana based pawn store showcasing its quirky characters and eclectic array of historical merchandise.

And on Thursdays, take a look inside the high-stakes world of storage unit auctions in the US ratings hit STORAGE WARS. Each episode is filled with drama as the bidders assess if they think the unit is worth a bid... and how high they will actually go. Then explore the thriving subculture of cashless trading in BARTER KINGS, as these larger than life characters trade up items of little value to be worth thousands.
