A MESSAGE FOR YOU JANUARY 2013

My Dear Unthinkable Mind Students,

JANUARY FEBRUARY MARCH APRIL MAY Summer
 Winter → ← Summer

VERY SOON WE WILL BEGIN OUR TIME TOGETHER

before our FIRST CLASS, I'd like you to do two things. Please read the introduction to IAIN MCGILCHRIST'S book "THE MASTER AND HIS EMISSARY." I've attached a PDF of the piece. It's also online at ianmcgilchrist.com.

You will not need to buy this book unless you really want to, but we'll be working through McGilchrist's ideas during our time together, so the introduction is an important part of the set up for this class.

 IAIN MCGILCHRIST: BRITISH SCHOLAR OF ENGLISH LITERATURE - TAUGHT AT OXFORD, BECAME AN M.D. - THEN A PSYCHIATRIST. READ ALL ABOUT IT AT ianmcgilchrist.com

The second thing is to memorize the 4 lines that make up EMILY DICKINSON'S POEM # 937

① → I felt a cleaving in my mind -
As if my Brain had split -

② → I tried to match it seam by seam
But could not make it fit

③ → The thought behind,
I strove to join
unto the thought before -

④ → But Sequence ravelled
out of Sound
Like Balls - upon a floor

PLEASE NOTE: THERE IS A TUMBLR PAGE FOR OUR CLASS @ thenearsightedmonkey.tumblr.com

②

you don't have to memorize the punctuation, capitalization, or line breaks. You just need to be able to recite it on January 23rd 2013 during our first class.

How will you memorize the poem? HINT:

- THINK ABOUT THINGS YOU'VE MEMORIZED WITHOUT TRYING - ALL OF THE AD JINGLES AND SONG LYRICS AND LITTLE RHYMES YOU HAVE IN YOUR HEAD - HOW DID THEY GET THERE?

For our first class all you will need to bring is your favorite sort of pen or pencil. FINALLY.....

I'll be sending each of you a separate email letting you know which part of the brain I've assigned to you randomly. This will be your IDENTITY for the entire semester. (More about that when we meet.)

Please know how happy I am about our upcoming EXPEDITION together. I think about you every day. Best from professor LYNDIA

WRITING EXERCISES AND CREATIVITY ADVICE FROM BARRY'S PIONEERING, LIFE-CHANGING WORKSHOP

Award-winning author Lynda Barry is the creative force behind the genre-defying and best-selling work What It Is. She believes that anyone can be a writer and she has set out to prove it. For the past decade, Lynda has run a highly popular writing workshop for non-writers called “Writing the Unthinkable”—the workshop was featured in the New York Times Magazine. Syllabus: Notes from an accidental professor is the first book that will make her innovative lesson plans and writing exercises available to the public for home or classroom use. Barry’s course has been embraced by people across North America—prison inmates, postal workers, university students, high school teachers, and hairdressers—for opening pathways to creativity.

Syllabus takes the course plan for Lynda Barry’s workshop and runs wild with it in Barry’s signature densely detailed style. Collaged texts, ballpoint pen doodles, and watercolor washes adorn Syllabus’s yellow lined pages, which offer advice on finding a creative voice and using memories to inspire the writing process. Throughout it all, Lynda Barry’s voice (as author and teacher-mentor) rings clear, inspiring, and honest.

PRAISE FOR LYNDA BARRY

“Barry isn’t particularly interested in the writer’s craft. She’s more interested in where ideas come from—and her goal is to help people tap into what she considers to be an innate creativity.”—New York Times

Lynda Barry has worked as a painter, cartoonist, writer, illustrator, playwright, editor, commentator, and teacher and found that they are very much alike. She lives in Wisconsin, where she is assistant professor of art and Discovery Fellow at University of Wisconsin-Madison. She is the author of acclaimed graphic novel One! Hundred! Demons!, the cartoonist behind the long-running Ernie Pook’s Comeek, and the author of creative how-to memoir comic books What It Is and Picture This.

GILBERT HERNANDEZ BUMPERHEAD

A FASCINATINGLY DISJOINTED TALE OF DRUGS, ROCK & ROLL, AND ADOLESCENCE FROM A LEGENDARY CARTOONIST

Love and Rockets author Gilbert Hernandez returns with Bumperhead, a companion book to Marble Season. Whereas Marble Season explored the exuberant and occasionally troubled existence of the wide-eyed pre-teen Huey, Bumperhead zeroes in on disaffected teenhood with its protagonist Bobby, a young slacker who narrates his life as it happens but offers very little reflection on the events that transpire. Bobby lives in the moment exclusively, and is incapable of seeing the world outside of his experiences. He comes of age in the 1970s, making a rapid progression through that era's different subcultures—in a short period of time he segues from a stoner glam-rocker to a drunk rocker to a speed-freak punk. He drifts in and out of relationships with friends, both male and female. Life zooms past him.

Hernandez's approach captures the numbness and raw undirected anger and passion of a young man who waits for life to happen to him, not noticing all the while that it's happening. Subtle and thought-provoking, Bumperhead is a fascinating read.

PRAISE FOR MARBLE SEASON

"Hernandez is brilliant on the particular embarrassments of growing up...Marble Season is a treat: beady, nostalgic, and sometimes unexpectedly piercing." —The Guardian

"Marble Season sometimes feels like one long, seamless shot of budding love, brimming violence and suddenly struck friendships." —Washington Post Best Comics of 2013

Gilbert Hernandez was born in 1957 in Oxnard, California. In 1981, he co-self-published the first issue of Love and Rockets with his brothers Mario and Jaime. Embracing strong female lead characters and punk rock culture, this series stood out from the male dominated comics landscape of the time. Gilbert Hernandez and his brother Jaime have continued Love and Rockets for three decades. In the ensuing years, Hernandez has won nearly every industry award, as well as the prestigious United States Artists Literature Fellowship and the Pen USA Literary Award. Hernandez currently lives in Las Vegas, Nevada, with his wife, Carol, and his daughter, Natalia.

TOVE JANSSON

MOOMIN: THE DELUXE ANNIVERSARY EDITION

A CELEBRATION OF TOVE JANSSON'S LEGACY, 100 YEARS AFTER HER BIRTH

Tove Jansson's Moomin stories made her one of the most beloved Scandinavian authors of the twentieth century. Jansson's whimsical tales of Moominvalley resonate with children for their light-hearted spirit, and with adults for their incisive commentary on the banality of everyday life. 2014 marks the centenary of her birth, and Jansson is being honoured with events in Japan, Scandinavia, England, Germany, Russia, Australia, Italy, Spain, and France. Drawn & Quarterly is joining the festivities by releasing Moomin: The deluxe anniversary edition, a slipcased, hardcover collection of the complete Tove Jansson-penned Moomin comic strip, replete with all of her most popular storylines and original pencil sketches.

It has been more than sixty years since the Moomin comic strip debuted in the London Evening News. By the end of its run in 1975, Moomin was syndicated in more than forty newspapers around the world, and hailed for its light-handed, charming stories. The comics were revived in 2005 by Drawn & Quarterly and published to widespread acclaim, sparking a new generation of devoted Moomin fans with international editions around the world. Moomin: The deluxe anniversary edition celebrates the classic comics the world adores, and will feature an essay about Tove's work on the Moomin strip.

SHOWA 1944–1953: A HISTORY OF JAPAN

A SWEEPING YET INTIMATE PORTRAIT OF THE LEGACY OF WORLD WAR II IN JAPAN

Showa 1944–1953: A History of Japan continues award-winning author Shigeru Mizuki's autobiographical and historical account of Showa period Japan. This volume recounts the events of the final years of the Pacific War, and the consequences of the war's devastation for Shigeru Mizuki, and the Japanese populace at large. After the surprise attack at Pearl Harbor, Japan and the United States are officially at war. The two rival navies wage a series of micro-wars across the tiny Pacific I lands. From Guadalcanal to Okinawa, Japan slowly loses ground. Finally, the United States unleashes a new and terrible weapon—the atomic bomb. The fallout from the bombs is beyond imagining.

On another front, Showa 1944–1953 traces Shigeru Mizuki's own life story across the sweeping changes during this period. After losing his arm during the brutal fighting, Mizuki struggles to decide where to go: whether to remain on the island as an honored friend of the local Tolai people or return to the rubble of Japan and take up his dream of becoming a cartoonist. Showa 1944–1953 is a searing condemnation of the personal toll of war from one of Japan's most famous cartoonists.

PRAISE FOR SHOWA

"Mizuki's grand overview of the era alternates between sections of wry personal memoir and more straightforward history...[Showa is a] remarkable manga chronicle of the Emperor's reign."—Japan Times

Born in Sakaiminato, Japan, in 1922, Shigeru Mizuki is a specialist in stories of yokai and is considered a master of the genre. Mizuki is the recipient of many awards, including the Best Album award at the Angoulême International Comics Festival, the Tezuka Osamu Cultural Prize Special Award, the Kyokujitsu Sho Decoration, and the Kodansha Manga Award. His work has been published in Japan, South Korea, France, and Spain.

JOHN PORCELLINO THE HOSPITAL SUITE

POETIC MUSINGS ON ILLNESS AND THE ART OF GETTING BY FROM A MINI-COMICS MASTER

THE HOSPITAL SUITE

JOHN PORCELLINO

The Hospital Suite is a landmark work by celebrated cartoonist and small-press legend John Porcellino—an autobiographical collection detailing his struggles with illness in the 1990s and 2000s.

In 1997, John began to have severe stomach pain. He soon found out he needed emergency surgery to remove a benign tumor from his small intestine. In the wake of the surgery, John had numerous health complications that led to a flare-up of his preexisting tendencies toward anxiety and obsessive-compulsive disorder. The Hospital Suite is Porcellino's response to these experiences, simply told stories drawn in the honest, heart-wrenching style of his much-loved King-Cat mini-comics. Porcellino's gift for spare yet eloquent candor makes The Hospital Suite an intimate portrayal of one person's experiences that is also intensely relatable.

Porcellino's work is lauded for its universality and quiet, clear-eyed contemplation of everyday life. The Hospital Suite is a testimony to this subtle strength, making his struggles with the medical system and its consequences on his mental health accessible and engaging.

PRaise FOR JOHN PORCELLINO

"John Porcellino has created some of the most important autobio comics of all time...spare, meditative artwork."—AV Club

"[King-Cat Classix features...] artist-writer Porcellino's intentionally simple drawings, largely autobiographical tales and renderings of dream...Porcellino is a master at miniature poignance."

—Entertainment Weekly

John Porcellino was born in Chicago in 1968, and began drawing and writing at an early age, compiling his work into little hand-made booklets. His acclaimed self-published zine, King-Cat Comics and Stories, begun in 1989, has found a devoted worldwide audience, and is one of the most influential comics series of the past twenty-five years.

AISHA FRANZ

TRANSLATED BY HELGE DASCHER

EARTHLING

A FINELY WROUGHT ACCOUNT OF ALIENS AND ALIENATION IN THE SUBURBS

German cartoonist Aisha Franz's debut graphic novel details a few short days in the life of two sisters and their single mother. Set in a soulless suburb populated by block after block of identical row houses bordered by empty fields and an industrial no-man's land, Earthling explores the loneliness of everyday life through these women's struggle to come to terms with what the world expects of them.

Earthling unveils a narrative rich with surrealist twists and turns, where the peas on the dinner plate and the ads on television can both literally and figuratively speak to the most private strife and deepest hopes in a person's life. As the sisters begin to come to terms with their sexuality, they are confronted by harsh realities and a world that has few escape routes for young women.

Drawn in deep grey pencil, the claustrophobia of Franz's crosshatching and smudging matches the tone of the book perfectly. Earthling is an atmospheric and haunting account of the inevitability of losing the dream worlds of childhood.

PRAISE FOR AISHA FRANZ

"From her pencil drawings to her naive yet dry illustrations, each image she's whisked out of her brain is so funny and sweet at the same time it's enough to make you have a little cry."—It's Nice That

"[Earthling is...] a melancholy tale of exquisite sensitivity."—Les Inrocks

Aisha Franz was born in Fürth, Germany and was named after an elephant from TV. She studied illustration at the School of Art and Design in Kassel and has worked as a freelance illustrator and cartoonist since graduating. She has published two graphic novels, which have been translated into Italian, Spanish, and French. Her work has been exhibited in Germany, Belgium, and Italy, and she currently lives in Berlin, where she's part of the comics collective The Treasure Fleet.

EVEN MORE BAD PARENTING ADVICE

LAUGH OUT LOUD ANECDOTES FROM THE FRONT LINES OF PARENTING

YOU'RE JUST DOING
ALL THIS BECAUSE YOU'RE
BORED AND YOU WANT TO GO HOME TO WATCH YOUR TV SHOW.

Ever wanted to know how to be awarded the Best Dad in the Whole World? Guy Delisle has all the answers for you in these light-hearted, entertaining tales of parental mishaps and practical jokes gone wrong. Whether he's helping remove a pesky, wobbly, but not quite loose tooth or trying to win at hide-and-seek, his antics will resonate with every parent who has ever wanted to give a sarcastic answer to a funny question from their kid.

Even More Bad Parenting Advice marks Guy Delisle's second foray into the world of offering bad advice to parents, and a second opportunity to express the minor frustrations and many joys of parenting. Delisle's skillful hand at illustration and ironic way with words, which helped to popularize his travelogues about daily life in faraway places, are just as much the stars here as he or his children are. His sense of comic timing shines through in these simply told stories; with their lively flow, a change in facial expression or a few words can serve as the anecdote's punch line. Even More Bad Parenting Advice celebrates the reality that parenting isn't all first steps and gold-starred report cards; it's stinky diapers and never-ending drives to the grocery store too.

PRAISE FOR A USER'S GUIDE TO NEGLECTFUL PARENTING

"A User's Guide...is a funny and truthful book about being a parent." —Boing Boing

"A User's Guide...shares with [Delisle's] previous work a keen appreciation for the clash of cultures; this time, however, the cultures in question are those of adults and children, and the damage that ensues is played for a rueful laugh." —NPR

Guy Delisle is the bestselling author of A User's Guide to Neglectful Parenting, and the travelogues Jerusalem: Chronicles from the Holy City, Burma Chronicles, Pyongyang, and Shenzhen.
