

HAPPY BIRTHDAY TURA SATANA!

July 10, 1938. Tura Satana's birthday. No one could have predicted that this little girl would become such an amazing woman, whose life we're still exploring to this day. The events she experienced; the actions she took in the face of almost unthinkable adversity have directly or indirectly influenced millions, and will continue to do so as long as there is a mankind.

While Tura may not be here with us physically, her spirit is very much alive and present. The Tura we don't see with our eyes is thrilled right now! Thanks to the grand effort of many, her lifelong wish (TURA! The documentary) is a reality, and IMO she is experiencing one of her most gratifying birthdays ever right now.

Happy birthday, Tura. We are giving you our best, as you deserve.

When working in creative fields, financing media projects is no easy feat! Although we had initially intended to crowdfund in 2015, we then decided to plow on with the film using our own resources for the interviews and building up a greater audience on social media. By 2017, however, were unable to continue on this path. The time had come to turn to Tura's fans, something she wanted so much even on her death bed. The making of TURA! The Documentary should be a project involving her adored, loyal fans. So, we took the plunge and dived headfirst into the KICKSTARTER crowdfunding project we wanted and needed to do for the final steps of the film...and many of you reading these words were there to see the joyous result as we passed the $50,000 dollar finishing line...just in time in this all or nothing race!

TURA!

Three months after the successful funding of our KICKSTARTER project, we are still reeling (literally) from the month long nail-biting experience. The generosity and sheer determination we felt from all those who supported us will never be forgotten...and we will make sure of that as your names will also go down in cinematic history with the making of the film biopic. The interviews are already lined up from LA to Chicago, New York to Las Vegas. In fact, we will already be kicking off by interviewing Tura's daughters, Lani and Jade in LA in August. Siouxfan is already working through her huge archive of Tura film and memorabilia and more. All is pussycat purringly perfect!

I am so beyond excited and proud to be able to finish Tura's dream. Every day we unearth something new, extraordinary and fabulous. This whole process is very emotional for many people, but especially for me. It is still hard to believe that Tura is not here with me to complete OUR project. That I can't make that phone call to ask her advice, that I don't receive that mail with her latest ideas and support. Yet, I am so grateful to have her two daughters, Lani and Jade standing next to me in her place.

Thanks to all of you who are helping me and our team keep Tura's dream alive. Join us in celebrating the life of one amazingly talented, beautiful , kick-ass woman by clicking here and writing your own birthday wish to Tura!

Happy Birthday, Tura, wherever you are!
